Men from the Other Departments Be gin Monday—Junior and Fresh man Boats Are Rowing Well.

Full practice for the interclass races at the end of this month brought out new men from Freshman one Junior and one Senior. The Junior and Senior are the sophomore Class of the College this year, and it is to be noted that a number of them are registered as candidates. The Senior, Leonard Keinath, for instance, is a new man, enough to make a crew which will start work to-day or Monday. Captain Herman is anxious to get all the department crews down to practice, and will form the nucleus for a crew which will start work to-day or Monday. Semi-Finals Were Won by Yale Tennis Tournament Was Interrupted by Accident to Tilden in Last Set.

In the semi-finals of the Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament, held at the University Cricket Club on Thursday, the University met defeat at the hands of Yale, Partridge and Dailman winning from Tilden and Register by the score of 20, 64, 63.

Pennsylvania's team was somewhat handicapped by the fact that Tilden was suffering severely from a sprained ankle, injured earlier in the morning. During the last and deciding set, while reaching for a high lob, he collapsed in a dead faint on the court. After a few minutes he was revived, and insisted on finishing the set. Each team had been going to Pennsylvania, and the play had reached a most critical period. Though Tilden was in the hospital, the game was resumed, Yale winning the set 63-56, 63-63, 63-56. The game was then played off some time in the near future.

In the intercollegiate match between LeRoy, of Columbia, defeated Pell, of Harvard, 64-61, 63-63.

COMMUNICATIONS.
The Pennsylvania desires to encourage students to write communique on a paper as an object of reginlar interest. While the policy of the paper is to treat editorially important matters from the undergraduate standpoint, it is not always possible to cover every question that needs discussion.

NORTH CAROLINA CONTEST.
On Franklin Field this afternoon the "Vanitey" will meet North Carolina in what should be a close and hard-fought contest. The "Vanitey" has not displayed first-class work so far this year, for Lehigh offered but little resistance and the Gettysburg contest was almost a farce. To-day we hope to see the team with its chosen leader at halfback. We hope to see every man play with vim and spirit, and we desire a glorious decisive victory.

Phil Siper's Year's Work.
The opening meeting of the Phimatheum Society was held last night in its rooms in College Hall. A large number of enthusiastic members attended. Pecilulous speeches were made at the present.

The final report of the Committee on the Outdoor Plays, presented by the then Greet Company, was read. Beside furnishing the library of the new University House building extra and making a liberal contribution to the Botanical Society, the committee was able to turn into the society's treasury the sum of $105.

News of the College World.

Thirty-six Froshmen have come out for the Tiger football team. Signal practice began Thursday afternoon.

—Princeton’s track candidates reported yesterday, forty-two men coming out, and were drilled in the usual preliminaries by Coach Copeland.

—W. G. Taylor, 1907, of Middletown, N. Y., consisting of the 1907 Froshmen crew, and ‘Varsity coxswain for 1905 and 1906, has been elected commodore of the Cornell crews.

—Michigan’s ‘Varsity is putting up some good old fashioned football against a strong scrum. On Wednesday afternoon they scored twenty-six points while holding the scrum down to none.

—One of our exchanges, the ‘Minnesota Daily,’ says: ‘The Pennsylvania Athletic Committee has added a new rule to the code, barring any athlete who is two weeks in arrears for his board at the training table. ‘We are glad to receive suggestions from our friends.

—Work on the new alumni athletic field at Cornell has been stopped on account of lack of funds. It is estimated that $56,000 will be needed to complete the plans, which call for football, track, and baseball fields, a stadium containing a winter running track, a baseball grandstand, and a club house for use as general headquarters for athletes.
