A Freshman's View.

Editor of The Pennsylvania.

Dear Sir,—The following is a just criticism, and I hope you can give it space in your valuable columns.

Referring to a brilliant and highly interesting article in The Pennsylvania of October 16th, entitled "Dying the Freshman," I would like to express the ideas of a Freshman on this subject.

I believe that Freshmen as a class behave such acts as putting the regular Freshman of later classes into a thoughtless moment, being disregard upon the entire class, and the public welfare of the Class of 1910 should so assert itself as to make impossible a repetition of such an act.

It seems to me to be wrong that—become a few of the Freshmen who are able to control the underclassmen, in the little black caps and are other on the proper lines, it is not to the advantage of the Sophomores, Freshman, writing or studying in his proper class, is not to be arranged against the determinations of the Sophomores.

Wouldn't the Undergraduate Committee accomplish the Freshmen. I submit the Freshmen to the University if its diligence were directed toward putting in force a honor system in examinations, so that the Sophomores who spend their nights making merry at the expense of the Freshmen could not crib their way through a test the morning after. If the Freshmen are not doing the right thing the sentiment of the entire college should be against them. But there is no good argument in favor of a decathlon or a diehard Freshman at any time.

Loyal Erie Club.

Editor of The Pennsylvania.

Dear Sir—It should be in the heart of every University man to help make his alma mater the greatest and most powerful in the country. Towards that end I am planning to see the Erie Club is working, and every loyal Pennsylva- man certainly congratulates them in securing five students from their section of the State. Keep it up, Erie Club.

THE JAMES WILSON CEREMONIES

LAW CLUB TO PARTAKE—BODY TO ARRIVE NOVEMBER 10.

Signer of Declaration of Independence.

First Professor of Law in University—United States Senator.

The James Wilson Club of the Law School has been invited to participate in the ceremonies in memory of James Wilson. The Hon. James Wilson was the first professor of law in the University—one of the Five Justice Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, being appointed by Washington: Advocate-General in the United States for France, in which capacity he was stationed at Bordeaux; colonel XVI: counselor and solicitor for the state of New Jersey, being named from Pennsylvania; a member of the Ameri- can Philosophical Society, and a signer of the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution. Historians are beginning to believe that the connection with The Declaration of Independence was greater than has been accredited to him, as many of his letters, lately discovered, in 1804, written previous to the signing, contain, word for word, phrases which were later embodied in that famous document. After the close of the Rev- olution he went to Europe to make his official business, and while there died. A committee has undertaker to bring his body here from the latter state, where it now lies, and have it interred in his native city. The body is expected to arrive here about November 10th, and elaborate plans are being made for fitting ceremonies at that time, in which the James Wilson Club, which is named after this great man, has been invited to participate.

Definite plans for the ceremonies and the part the club will take have not been decided upon, but will be announced in detail at a later date. In probability one of the Pennsylvania effects or plans are being made for fitting ceremonies at that time, in which the James Wilson Club, which is named after this great man, has been invited to participate.

Art Association Meets.

The meeting of the officers and Exec- utive Committee of the Arts and Science Association was held last evening and plans outlined for the coming year. The meeting was well attended, and a policy of aggressive work for Pennsylvania and for the Arts course was resolved upon. A resolution was adopted favoring the use of the honor system of exami- nations in the course, and it will be presented to the society at its first meet- ing

Gun Team Candidates to Report.

All candidates for the Gun Club team are requested to report at 11.50 in the trophy room of the Washington Club. It is most important that the men of last year's team be present. Signed: R. Harrison Smith, captain.

SECRET PRACTICE YESTERDAY

The Varsity Line Up Against a Strong and Heavy Freshman Eleven.

In preparation for the game with Swarthmore on Saturday the "Varsity line put through a long period yesterday afternoon behind closed gates. Smith and Wolfe were both kept out of the line up, as neither is in very good condition. Beans' ankle kept him on the scrumming bench, but Halsey worked a little to keep him in condi- tion.

A great deal of yesterday after- noon's work was devoted to signal practice and perfecting of Inter- face. The Varsity then lined up against the Scrub, and made a touch- down in a few minutes of play. The Scrub were then given the ball, and carried it for some distance, but lost it on a quarter-back kick. The "Vars- ty lined up against the ball to within twenty yards of the Scrub's goal, when they also lost it on a quarter-back kick.

Coach Smith has found two stars in Marklin, fulbrock, and Smith. Marklin played at St. Paul's for the last two years, and would cer- tainly be playing Varsity football were it not for the one-year rule. Regan is a fine little fullback, and a good at quarter-back. He is healthy, quick and speed. The "Varsity and Freshman line up:

"Varsity, Freshmen.

The Reading Hour

It is always more pleasant in cheerful surroundings and with good light. There is no light that suits me so well as incandescent. A glow, and at the same time, the rays are so slight, as the Electric Lamp in combination with the proper shade. An Electric Portable is a necessity on a study table.

We invite your inspection of the various electric lamps in our show room.

Reading Notices.

Until the next number of the Record will appear, the following books have been received by the library for the reading of students:

- Albert J. Peterson, Student Tailor.
- Baldwin J. Peterson, tailor and importer, 1606 Walnut Street. We have for the past two years almost exclusively catered to the student trade and have given the best of satisfaction.
- Woman's Work in the ladies' room of the Student's Union has been imported by a notable company of English players, a large number of whom have already appeared in this country in the support of the late Sir Henry Irving. It is probable that the famous Irving engagement at the Chestnut Street Opera House will appear in some of his father's most famous successes, including "The Lion's Tail," "The Bank," and possibly "Hendler." The opening of the sale of goods and seats for the first week of Mr. Irving's engagement will be Thursday, October 25th, at night, and in the box office of the Chestnut Street Opera House.
