An Auditorium and Chapel Will Be Added in Place of the Present Dining Hall.

Work was started yesterday on the new dormitory system. The new house will occupy the ground on Sproule street between Cox House and the dining hall. It will be similar to Cox House in fittings and general plan, but will be larger and will contain more single rooms. Several rooms in Coxen has not yet been announced. The architects are Messrs. Cope & Baw- ards, who have been in charge of the dormitories and who planned and superintended the erection of the new Engineering building. The house will be erected by William R. Dough- erty, who had the contract for the other houses recently put up along Sproule street.

This latest addition to the dormitories will harmonize with the rest of the buildings on this side of and in Elizabethtown detail. The en- closures are the same, the triangular and the little quadrangle, strongly suggest the Oxford and Cam- bridge style. The name for the new dormitory is the name of the house in the University at the end of the seventeenth cen- tury, which was owned by Prof. Frazer family. The Fennell, '01 law, student, is Frederick L. Thomas, '07 Wh., and quotes official letters and doc- uments that of the as year. Among those who 1. Ralph .1. students the Junior Rail, which is held the weekly meetings of the society and of the language, and the members are thus made to the Library, which Dr. Mor- xed about the system and it is expected that when the systems been completed along the lines at pres- ent in mind, the University the best dormitories in America.

Junior Committees Appointed.

Junior Committees Appointed.

Junior Committees Appointed.

Junior Committees Appointed.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

The Students of the University of Pennsylvania

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF.
WALTER C. NEELY, 1908.

MANAGING EDITOR.
ROBERT L. LOVE, 1908.

ASSISTANT MANAGING EDITORS.
EDMUND H. KRETER, 1908.
ROBERT D. CORSO, 1908.

EDITORS.
M. T. Fildes, 97, R. Morgan, Jr., '08.
F. L. Mann, 97, J. R. Dixon, '08.
M. J. Ingle, 97, F. P. Committee, 98.
Carl Fillen, '99.

ASSOCIATE EDITORS.
J. A. Alhams, 97, C. C. Hartley, '09.
D. Macfarlan, 98, B. Morrison, Jr., '99.
W. R. Folger, 97, B. L. Simmons, '98.

BUSINESS MANAGER.
J. Z. TADDY, 1907.

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS.
C. A. MOORE, 1908.
C. J. McNAMARA, 1909.

Business Manager's Office Hour.
1 to 2 P. M. Daily.
Office: 2411 Woodland Avenue.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1906.

EDITOR OF TODAY'S PENNSYLVANIAN.
MAURICE T. FLEISHER.

UNDERGRADUATE SUPPORT.
The Undergraduate Committee, composed of representatives from every class in the College, has seen fit to formulate a few wise rules for the government of Freshmen. It is evident that these rules will be disregarded from time to time, and finally fade into oblivion, unless every upper-classman takes it upon himself to help enforce them. Such action is just right, if the undergraduates intend to help their committee carry on successfully the work for which it was created. Many first-year men are openly disobeying the black-cap rule, and the promiscuous smoking of pipes around the campus is a matter of comment. It is but a small matter for an upper-classman to remind such offending members of the Class of 1910 that they are breaking rules and customs that are laws in undergraduate activity.

NEW DORMITORIES.
It is most gratifying to all interested in the growth of Pennsylvania College for the University to be able to look forward to the fulfillment of plans for an extensive dormitory system. Coxe House has not been finished more than six months, and yet the demand for more rooms in the University buildings makes necessary the construction of another house. The demand is increasing faster than the supply, and the consummation of the big quad will soon be realized with the steady increase of our enrollment.

Not only is the dormitory the logical place of abode for every University student, but by owning a room there he derives benefits which are totally lacking in either boarding house life or in home living. Pennsylvania College is one of these advantages, and helps not only the individual who possesses it, but also the University to which it belongs.

The dormitories have been the largest factor in crystallizing into a compact body the students at this University. The demand Is In-
COMMUNICATION COLUMN

The Pennsylvania invites all members of the University to contribute to this column, but is not responsible for the sentiments expressed.

Dormitory Inconveniences.

Editor of The Pennsylvania.

Dear Editor:—Trifles make perfection and perfection is no trifle. The University has a model system of dormitories. This system has brought Pennsylvania men closer together, increased the solidarity of the Pennsylvania family, and taken away the impression that we were a "big day school." The inhabitant of the dormitories who criticize the management in a capricious spirit would be more unreasonable and most ungrateful; but, on the other hand, he must be blind who cannot see that there are minor faults, the correction of which would add greatly to the attainment of that perfection which is no trifle.

One instance, which was noticed by every one who had occasion to look for anyone in the dormitories in the evening or on Sunday, when the office was closed—was the delay in putting up the names on the directory at the entrance to the triangle. Now that the names have at last been put where they can be found, it is impossible to find or decipher them at night unless one happens to be so fortunate as to have a pocketful of matches. A light over the case which contains the directory would be a potent trifle, as would also a little more dispatch in completing the directory at the opening of the year.

Another cause of annoyance to the residents of the dormitories is the delay and confusion which the present system, or rather non-system, means in the delivery of packages and messages. If a package comes when one is out, he is left to rummage for it in the office when he returns. If a friend calls during one's absence, nothing more is heard of it unless the friend makes strenuous efforts to communicate with him.

Another cause of inconvenience which has been forcibly brought home to many during the recent gloomy afternoons is the lateness of the hours at which the lights in the rooms are turned on. Anyone who has tried to work in his room between five and six o'clock any evening during the past week can testify that this is no causeless complaint.

But as the writer has tried to make plain, these criticisms are made in an entirely friendly spirit, and he for years has been a member of the dormitories—those dormitories that are the most comfortable, most economical and most delightful place for a University man to live. He only wishes to bring to the light the matters that are in the minds of all, to point out such features as he would be glad to have pointed out to him if he were the manager of the dormitories.

AMCUS.

Mass Meeting Friday Evening.

In preparation for the Indian game on Saturday the cheer leaders have arranged for a mass meeting in the dormitory triangle Friday evening. Several new songs have been received and will be performed, with the old ones.

Notice, Freshman.

If the Freshman who left a light-colored soft felt hat with the right maores at College Hall last week will call at Locker 29, Logan Hall, and identify same he can secure it from W. B. Smith.

Lost.—Gold Watch and Fob.

Last, a gold watch and fob in or near the Houston Club. Reward and no questions asked if returned to the Bursar’s office. Plainly marked "B."

Illustrated Price List Sent on Request.

"YOUR APPEARANCE CAN BE IMPROVED."

The College Master's endorsement of our improved method of cleansing and pressmg, by electricity, is a satis-fatory guarantee of our work. There is no need to press a suit by hand at pressing spots. Stand alone, quiet place. Call at 3211 Baltimore avenue.

Printers, Developing. Lantern Slides. Framing, developing and labeling printing, design, and manufacture of lantern slides. Walter Rogers, Harrison Laboratory.

Suites of Private Rooms with Bath, 232 1st street. Second-story suites of rooms with private bath; food for gentlemen.

Wrestling Candidates Report. Nearly forty candidates reported yesterday for the wrestling team. Several of the old men are back, and work will begin at once for the first meet, which will be with the Nurcie V. C. A. some time before Christmas. E. W. Crittenden will again coach the team.

The following is a complete list of the candidates: J. C. Dwyer, C. P. Jones, Lawrence, W. H. Palmer, W. H. Verne, J. H. Wadgley, C. R. Griffin, B. E. Miller, H. M. Pottendorf, L. E. Hackett, D. D. Wolfe, W. W. Rob-

Albert J. Peterson, Student Tailor. Albert J. Peterson, tailor and importer, 1906 Walnut street. We have for the past fifteen years almost exclusively catered to the student trade and have given the best of satisfaction. At several seasons of the year we have brought large quantities of foreign and domestic fabrics, including the most nobby styles that could secure. We would appreciate your coming in and looking over our stock before selecting elsewhere. The usual 10 per cent. off.

W. H. Embrick & Sons. The 10 per cent. student reduction, announced in your Houston Club Book, on Embrick tailoring is on reduction prices $1 to $10oyer per suit than their usual competition's prices. Establish this fact for yourself. Buildings, $25 to $45. P. H. Embrick & Sons, 2805 Chest-ward street.

The Chose and Checker Club to Meet. The Chose and Checker Club will hold a meeting on Friday, at 115, the Houston Club. Nominations for officers will be made and other important business transacted. First-year men in all departments are especially invited to be present. Signed J. Henry Smythe, Jr. president.

Gray's Athletic Institute for Students. The new football rules have brought into play a lot of new football players. Loggery, all of which can be had at the same time. "The Sham." Gray's Athletic Institute for Students, 29 South Seventh street.

Bargain Sale in Athletic Goods. Those at all interested in athletics should not fail to take advantage of this sale in athletic goods, announcement of which is on the bulletin board in the gymnasium.

Two Rooms, Steam Heat. For rent, two very handsome rooms; steam heat and other conveniences. Apply Pennsylvania Barber Shop, 3242 Woodland avenue.

Lost—Umbrella. Lost a brown, wooden handled umbrella. Please return to Kenneth Williams, Room 54, Memorial Tower.

Second Floor Front Rooms for Rent. Chestnut street, 2415. Two second floor front rooms, single or commun-nating, well furnished; heat included.

Rooms for Students. Rooms for students who desire a clean, comfortable, quiet place. Call at 3211 Baltimore avenue.

Printing, Developing. Lantern Slides. Framing, developing and labeling of lantern slides. Walter Rogers, Harrison Laboratory.

Suites of Private Rooms with Bath, 2321 1st street. Second-story suites of rooms with private bath; food for gentlemen.

Grand Opera House—A Good Fellow. Because of the success of "Dolly Sevier" in Mark E. Swan's new three-act play, "A Good Fellow," which Manager Joseph M. Galtos will present this week at the Grand Opera House, Eric Tanger will have the part of the first act in male attire. This disadvantage becomes an advantage to the baron quarter-the office of this publication.

WM. H. HOSKINS CO. 904-906 Chestnut Street PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Laundry

TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. OFF TO STUDENTS.

University Laundry

3207 WOODLAND AVENUE.

If you like it, wear your gloves long, wear

Fownes Gloves.

They wear longer.