Annual fall handicaps to be held on Franklin Field.

Track events arranged for next Saturday morning.

First opportunity Trainer Murphy will have of sizing up his new material—The Entries to Date.

The annual fall handicaps will be held on Franklin Field on Saturday morning at eleven o'clock, and intercollegiate meets are looked forward to as the first big track event of the year and rivals the cross-country run in importance. It affords the first adequate opportunity to Coach Murphy for sizing up his new material and he has been making conscientious efforts to have the men in the best physical condition. The entries to date are as follows:

120 yards—Maxwell, Arthur, Thunder, 11.7; D. Whitham, Harlan, Hartraff.

220 yards—B. B. Terry, Merritt, A. Boyle, Missler, Worrell, J. D. Whitham, Haydock, Wilson, J. D. Whitham.

120 yards hurdles—W. R. McColloch, Moffett, Hartraff.

High jump—Swalm, Moffett, Throok, Newton, Harkins.

Broad jump—McColloch, Hartraff, Moffett, Brown, Girard, Haydock, Conner, Kirkpatrick.

Pole vault—Swalm, Carter, Plekikis, Kimber, Kripton.

1909 Football Candidates Report.

Twelve men responded to the call for Sophomore football candidates yesterday, and though many are expected to make a squad of at least two teams.

Leon H. Garrison was elected temporary captain. He will be on the field every afternoon at 3.30, and all candidates will be expected to report at that hour. The names of the candidates are:

Leland, Gillamson, Milton, Black, Sholar, Harrington, Winslow, Hixon, Williams, Young, Blake, Harlen, and Newberry.

Seventeen candidates were reported yesterday morning as having decided to put their names in for the Sophomore Class to-day, at 1.15, and it is expected that the Sophomore class will be able to field a team.

On account of the large number of candidates, the coaches feel that a strong man should be developed for this very important position, so that Heilshenk will be tried in the back field hereafter. Greene, Foxwell and Longwell were at their old positions in the back field.

The coaches had arranged for another secret game to be played with the Jefferson team, to take the place of yesterday's practice, but on account of the condition of Franklin Field from the cold wind which held the game was called off. It is very likely that the Jefferson team will be put through before the Lafayette game, the time has as yet not been decided.

School Committee Meeting today.

The Medical School figures are now complete and show the present Fresh- year class to be the largest to enter Pennsylvania since the present entrance requirements went into effect. Over two hundred men have matriculated in the first-year class, and the number of those who have entered with advanced standing.

NEW COURSES

A liberal step in making the University more beneficial to the community is contained in the announcement of Dean Penniman, printed on the first page of this issue. It marks a new epoch in the usefulness of the College. The privileges of the regular students are now within the reach of those, who, for one reason or another, get the benefits of the day classes. It is of especial value to those who desire to better their education, and allows them under certain restrictions, and regulations, to reach that coveted goal—a college degree—without sacrificing their life's work.

JUNIOR WEEK

One of the happy innovations at Pennsylvania a few years ago was the idea of having a celebration that should be an attractive feature of each Thanksgiving season. It was designed to fill up the space of the University holidays, with a diversified program of athletic, social and musical events which would be joined in impartially by all classes and all departments, and which would make the week thoroughly pleasant for the out-of-town students. The plan met with instant approval, and time has demonstrated the justifiableness of its innovators. Little by little the "Junior week" idea has been evolved until it is now a delightful Pennsylvania institution. Plans are already on foot for this year's celebration. A committee is at work on the details, and a more elaborate program will be entered upon in 1906 than ever before. The Cornell Pennsylvania and the West Point-Annapolis football game, the Junior Ball, the Combined Musical Club concert, the Bowl Fight, the theatre party, the opera party, and dormitory teas—these are but a few of the good things in store at this high-tided season, one month hence.

The Pennsylvania is hearty accord with the movement—starting off so auspiciously this year—and wishes the committee every success in its efforts. The fact that it is the Junior Class that is managing the events ought not to dampen the ardor of any undergraduate. Indeed all the classes are already working harmoniously to make the affair successful.

Junior Week Plans Arranged.

Plans for Junior week were perfected at the meeting of the Junior Week Committee, held yesterday in Houston Hall. Many minor details are still to be attended to, but in general the program has already been decided upon. The Bowl Fight is to be held in Junior week this year and another novel feature in the form of a dormitory ton, which will be given early on the evening of Friday, November 30th. Of course the usual Junior week events—interclass football games for the championship of the College, Cornell Pennsylvania football game on Thanksgiving afternoon, the first regular concert by the Combined Musical Clubs, and the Junior Ball in the gymnasium—will be given this year as usual. The annual West Point-Annapolis football game is to be played on Franklin Field this year, and that evening will be Pennsylvania night at one of the downtown theatres, probably the Opera House or the Chestnut. Junior week will conclude on Sunday morning with a special Christian Association service, which will in all probability be held in chapel rather than in Houston Hall.

Army and Navy Football Tickets.

All members of the Athletic Association recently received circulars for the seats for the football game between the United States Naval Academy and the United States Military Academy, to be played on Franklin Field Saturday, December 1st. The private sale is now on and will continue until November 7th, after which time it will be impossible to procure cheaper seats.

The net proceeds from the sale are to be divided between the organizations for the relief of dependent widows and orphans of officers and enlisted men of the army and navy of the United States. All sales, including admission, are $2.50.

In 1904, the last year in which the Army and Navy game was played on Franklin Field, seventy-two boxes were sold by M. Thomas & Sons, 1519 Chestnut street, at prices ranging from $10 to $25. But thirty-five boxes are on sale this year, the remaining forty having been pre-empted by the two schools.

Discussion of Labor Question.

Dr. James T. Young, Director of the Wharton School, will give a talk at 7:15 this evening in the Christian Association rooms, second floor of Houston Hall, concerning labor problems of to-day and their solution from the standpoint of one applying the doctrines of Jesus Christ.

All men interested will find this an unusual opportunity for hearing the views of a careful and practical student of the labor problem and its relation to Christian teachings.

Students in the Hospital.

There are four men in the students' ward at the University Hospital at a present time. Robert L. Lowe, '98 C., has an acute tonsilitis, but expects to be out in a few days. Paul A. Bankston, who broke his leg some time ago in football practice, expects to leave the hospital the latter part of this week. U. A. Gnott, P. G., has been having an injury to his knee treated, and is getting along well. M. L. Arkin, '96 C., 19 M, is on the road to recovery from typhoid fever.

Now I do not want to criticise our leader personnel. No, they were there to be the captain of the crowd, and they must remain that, and will have to take lessons from the Princeton leaders by putting spirit into their own actions because they can do good results from the crowd.

A good time could be made for the singing which, if carried out, will prove a great addition. That is to have the Glee Club members sit on the first row and lead the singing. I believe that if those steps are car-
