YESTERDAY'S VARSITY FOOTBALL PRACTICE DISCOURAGING.

TEAM AGAIN SHOWED UP POORLY IN A THIRTY-MINUTE HALF.

Regulars Tied the Freshmen in the Last Half of Game—The Score Was 5-5—Gaston Strong at Centre.

A most discouraging practice was held yesterday, in which the Freshmen tied the Varsity. The Freshmen were given the ball on the Varsity's ten-yard line, and after two rushes somehow came to the touchdown. The work of the Freshmen was excellent. On de dence both teams were equally poor, and did not seem to be able to resist the other team's offensive. When the Varsity was given the ball it made two touchdowns, in turn, Holmsknecht making forty-five yards from deep and Kier making the other.

The work of the centres at guard and back was good, and Regan did well as the Freshmen. The line up: courts were too wet from Wednesday's rain. It is expected that they will be ready for practice on the gymnasium floor at 1:30 to-night. At the same time all candidates for the position of second assistant manager of the Varsity team will report. Signed, W. C. Foster, manager.

Glee Club Held Meeting.

The Glee Club held its regular Thursday night meeting last evening. Among those present were several who had not attended for some time. The club will hold a meeting on Friday night this week. The program will consist of an essay on "Music" and a debate on the advisability of the faculty adopting the simplified spelling rules. Snyder and Fineman, with Goodman as alternate, will support the motion, while Zimmerman and Brown, with Melvin as alternate, will oppose it. W. R. White will read the review.

Basketball Candidates Report. All candidates for the Varsity and Freshman basketball teams will report for practice on the gymnasium floor at 1:30 to-night. At the same time all candidates for the position of second assistant manager of the Varsity team will report. Signed, W. C. Foster, manager.
Seven Reasons

"But apart from all theories, deductions, and what are justly termed glittering generalities, there remain seven solid reasons for using an Electric Sign. These are to be found by a count of the letters which form a word spelled "B.U.C-S-K-S-G-6," for that is what an electric sign spells to the merchant who places it over his door."

Need of a Dining Hall.

Editor of The Pennsylvaniaian.

Dear Sir—Practically the only thing which the University now lacks is a large dining hall, even judging from the management of the University. What a great convenience it would be for those who live in the dormitories and who now, under the present regime, have to tramp quite a distance to get something to eat three times a day, no matter how bad the weather may be. I am sure that these men would rather stay indoors and go without their most needed stormy winter nights rather than subject themselves to pneumonia and other diseases. What a pity it is that Pennsylvania, as large as it is, cannot find some space near or adjoining the dormitories on which to erect a large, well-equipped dining hall, and to make it large enough to seat most of the students who, at the present time, have to take their meals in some overcrowded, cheap, rummum restaurant. Why is this? Surely the Trustees and officers of the University would like to see their students all assembled in one large room, eating good, substantial food, rather than in "hash houses" scattered over the city. It is very evident that the present dining hall, adjacent the hospital is not very inviting; so why should not this old shanty be torn down and a large building built on the same plan as this old one. I sincerely hope that some steps will be taken in this direction in the near future, and I am sure that the student body hopes with me.

Conduct at Football Games.
Editor of The Pennsylvania.

Dear Sir—I have heard repeatedly about the present team since last Sunday's defeat sadder remarks cast at the team as a whole, and still more personal remarks hurled at members of the team. Is this the true Pennsylvanian way of appearing at hour of so often? If these men would stop and think how much it means to them to receive encouragement from the student body, for whom they are playing, there would be different results. Let us put ourselves in the place of a member of that team, running out on Franklin Field. Are we going to play with that determined spirit to win—which dominates the heart of a Harvard going when we know that the cheering sections are all alike? "knockers" and men who play the part of a "quitter" as soon as the team meets with defeat? You can answer this without a trouble.

We have four hard games yet on the football schedule, and what matter if we have lost two games. We still can have a splendid season if we do our part, by encouraging the team by saying a good word for the team. If we have some hard feelings or disappointment, let us keep that to ourselves. Don't be "quitters" and "knockers," the team. Let us help the coaches in their faithful work.

Grand Opera House—York State Folks.

York State Folks are to leave us forever after its appearance at the Grand Opera House next week.

It would be difficult to find in the annals of the stage a record of greater triumphs than that secured by this beautiful play of Arthur Sidney's. For six years the piece has been seen a number of times in this city, and with each appearance the filled houses have attested its increasing and universal popularity.

For six seasons the same company of players have interpreted the play and will be produced with the announcement of the intention of taking the play abroad at the finish of this season for a tour of England and continental Europe.

Mr. James Lackey and Mr. Ray L. Rovce will still hold the all-star cast, and it is a most remarkable showing for "York State Folks" that, with the exception of five of the minor and unimportant characters, the entire original cast of twenty-four are still with the organization.

The announcement that this is to be the last time "York State Folks" will be seen here will be too little and too late for its many admirers to turn out in such force that the entire cast of York will be severely tried.

An Enterprising Man.

Mr. Tony Mazzaro, one of America's most distinguished theatrical artists, began his career at this University four years ago in the Houston Club. With barely enough work to keep himself busy at that time, he realized that there was a large field for ultimate success. Always paying close attention to details in management, cleanliness and quality of work, he attracted the attention of both students and faculty. The Pennsylvania Shop, at 2043 Woodland Avenue, of which Mr. Mazzaro is proprietor, has been newly redecorated, and is now the best equipped theatrical and maquillage parlor in West Philadelphia. Beginning only five years ago, and operating for the first time in the East the Flank- ing Dress House service of Milwaukee, Wisc., a service which requires all the barristers to work alike—liner materials and greater expense.
