Bowling Season was Opened on the Houston Club Alleys

The Freshmen took three games from the 1903 team.

BOWLING SEASON WAS OPENED

Inaugural Match was One Sided from the Freshmen to Take Three

The bowling season opened yesterday with a match between College Juniors and Freshmen. The Juniors won the game with a score of 15 to 0. The Juniors had a lead of seven or eight balls at mid-way, and they were never caught up. The Juniors took three balls in a row at the finish.

The game was a good one, with hard work and real skill on both sides. The Juniors had the better of it, however, and they won the match with a score of 15 to 0.

The Freshmen, who had a better team, were not satisfied with their performance. They were determined to come out strong, and they did. They won the first game with a score of 15 to 0. The Juniors were not able to get a ball past the Freshmen before the finish. The Freshmen took three balls in a row at the finish, and the Juniors were never caught up.

INCREASED ENROLLMENT. A close study and examination of the geographical representation in the University enrollment will prove at least one thing—an increase in students from the areas into which our undergraduate organizations have gone. The New England trip of the Combined Musical Clubs, the Western trip of the Mask and Wig Club, and the efforts of many other organizations have all been productive of an increase of enrollment from the respective areas. This is only one of many reasons why such organizations should be heartily supported by all students.

INTERNATIONAL REGATTA. The efforts of the Jamestown Exposition officials to arrange an international regatta should meet with the hearty and enthusiastic support of everyone concerned. The plans, if they should materialize, will give the winner of the intercollegiate event at Poughkeepsie a chance to prove its boasted superiority over the winner of the final contest at New London; and more than this will result. It will afford the best college eight-oared crews in America a chance to meet the winner of the British inter-varsity rowing contest. In this manner it is intended to decide the world's championship for college crews.

Junior Week. The Junior Week Committee announces that the plans for Junior week are now being rapidly developed and that the details of the proposed week of jollification will be printed within a short time. It is thought best by the committee to hold back their publication of details until everything has been definitely arranged, in order that there may be no misunderstanding as to the specific events and the particular day at which each is to come off.

The program which is being worked up for this year will be much more elaborate than anything of the kind which has gone before. While the occasion will be known as Junior week, most of the events scheduled are of a distinctly University character, and it is expected that the whole University will work together for the success of the movement. One of the features during Junior week, for the first time this year, is the Bowl Picnic. Among the other events of Junior week will be Inter-department and interclass games, the Cornell-Pennsylvania football game, the Army and Navy game, the Junior Ball, domino and fraternally teas, and a special service in chapel in line with the occasion.

New Men for Wharton School. About twenty-five freshmen in the Wharton School met in Dr. Young's office yesterday and discussed means of getting new men to come to Pennsylvania and especially to the Wharton School. Dr. Young impressed on them the responsibility of making the department a success. He said that, being the last among the College men to leave preparatory schools, should have the most ills in getting men to enter the Wharton School from their own schools.

Wayne Hummer, president of the Wharton Association, and Paul R. Kilham, chairman of the Committee on New Students, spoke on the same subject.

Junior Class Football Team to Meet. All men in the Junior Class, College, interested in developing a strong class football team are asked to meet in the trophy room of Houston Hall at 11:15 this afternoon. Signed: M. H. Rickham, captain.
Seven Reasons

"But apart from all the justly termed glaring generalties, there remain seven solid reasons for Class Football.

All of the classes have their football teams on the field and engaged in actual practice. Much interest is taken in the interdepartment and interclass games this year, and the men are turning out in force.

Yesterday the members of last year's 07 team elected Hawley to captain them this season, while the Juniors elected Rickham, substitute

"Varmy" centre, to lead them.

The Varsity Freshman team, while very formidable in their present lineup, will present quite a changed appearance when they play the Sophomores, for many of their star men are members of the professional schools.

The Sophomores had twenty men on the field during the afternoon and did so fast signal practice, working on the forward pass and trick for-

end; Walton, left tackle; Townsend,

t right guard; Taylor, right guard; Callow, right end; Garrison, quarter-

right half-back; Hull, full-back.

Annual Dance of Club Camera.

The Camera Club will hold its third blowout meeting to-morrow evening in Houston Hall. Mr. Elias Goldenky, a prominent photographer of this city and one of the greatest portraitists in the United States, will criticize the work of J. Allen Mason,

George Gunmesser and Maurice T.

Fleisher. Reports will be heard from the Instruction Committee and the Dance Committee.

The annual dance of the Camera

Club will take place on Monday evening, November 26th, in the auditorium of Houston Hall. The committe, consisting of J. Theodore Marshall, Albert W. Duke, Samuel A.

Fernberger, George L. Brown and

Charles P. Mills, chairman, is now sending out invitations to patrons and tickets of admission, which will be sold at one dollar, will be ready for distribution within a few days.

Cross-Country Run.

The last track event of this season will be cross-country runs. The race, which will be held at Fairmount Park this week, is open to all students of the University other than intercollegiate point winners. Two solid gold prizes are being offered for this event, and are now on exhibition in the Houston Club trophy room.

All track candidates will remain in training throughout the winter, doing much distance work, the style of training so successfully practiced by Trainor Conkley, of Cornell. Probably no teams will be entered at meets held during the Christmas vacation, and although if material warrants it, relay teams will be entered at the various meets held from time to time throughout the winter.

News of the College World.

- The Minnesota football team practiced last week by electric light.

- Michigan and Chicago will meet again on the football field next year.

- The Student Board of Columbia asked President Butler to allow inter-college football. He refused.

- Harvard has selected the following subject for the debate with Yale on December 7th: "Resolved, That further restriction of immigration is undesirable.

A complimentary dinner will be given the Harvard crew that went abroad this summer. An attempt will be made to secure the attendance of every man now alive who has rowed on a Harvard crew.

MESSRS. S. P. ROTAN AND J. H. MOORE SPOKE IN LAW SCHOOL

legal friends have been justified in doing so. But I would like to make that quotation read: "Here lies, here lies, little Lew Kibby, and he never did anything else." But, as I said before, I am not indulging in personalities.

Mr. Moore also referred to the character of the daily press, which he declared was such that he had knowledge that no other medium should not see his papers. His address was a discussion of the political tendencies of the nation, as illustrated in the campaign. He said: "Under our system many a man of close attachment to one line of activity have won high success. But that line has now changed, and the part of those who have failed is. We see this dissolution in anagrams. This condition is now apparent in Pennsylvania It has brought very little profit and is little better than a failure. There must be law, there must be order, there must be a political government; and, therefore, the young men will make up their minds that the best thing to do is to elect men who stand for State progress and now who stand for nation progress."

Botanical Society Meets. At the recent meeting of the Botanical Society of the University J. C. Bethell and R. N. Haver, who were sent to the Tyrol, Swiss Alps, addressed the society on the results of their trip. Dr. Macfarlane spoke of the specimens he gathered while in Switzerland. He said he was having $1,000 of these prepared for exhibition. He also spoke of the Botanic botanical collections in the South Kensington Museum, London. He is collecting everything connected with the Batavian family for the Batavian Natural History Library of the Biological Department. J. C. Bethell and R. N. Haver spoke of their impressions of typical plant life seen on the trip. The former spoke especially of that between Gippsland and Grahame Town and the latter of that between Gippsland and Grahame Town. At the close of the meeting Dr. Macfarlane announced that he had recently received several beautiful botanical text books from Miss E. Rorar.

Gymnastic Candidates Wanted.
Captain Kraus, of the University gymnastic team, requests candidates at present, and expects to have a very good squad this year. There is still plenty of room for good men—tumblers especially wanted. A more club coach and flying men are wanted for the gymnastic team.

Grand—"Breaking Into Society." The scene of musical comedy excellence and novelty, with Albert J. Peterson, Student Tailor, one of our newly constructed melodious freaks, "Breaking Into Society," by Jar- rish and Robert Hardee, with music by Gus Edwards, which Manager Frank H. Watson has just introduced to the premier fun-makers, the Four Mortons, in the field of musical comedy. The Four Mortons—Stan, Clara, Paul, and Kitten—are without question the most talented family of entertainers on the American stage, and their fame extends clear across the continent. "Breaking Into Society," which is, as its name implies, is satirical pursuit of morals and men-ualy, affords them ample scope for their versatile capabilities, and song and dancing, which is of the so superior degree. They are supported by a company of fifty talented performers, which includes a chorus of twenty-five singing girls in a chorus of bewitching beauty. As may be expected the comedy with the efforts of a former humble family of Haitian ancestry to force its entrance into the "broad class" and the attendant ridiculous complications are almost past description. There is a cavalcade of laughter in every line and a world of tuneful song in every word. There are vocal bits that will be whirled everywhere, and the marched orchestral music is of the kind that lingers in your ear. "Breaking Into Society" will be this week's attraction at the Grand Opera House and despite the strength and surety there will be no admission prices. The usual matinees will be given on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 25 cents throughout the entire house.
