Mass Meeting To-night

BASKETBALL TEAM PRACTICE

A Number of Men Report—Coach Smith Pleased with the Result.

There are quite a number of new candidates reporting daily for the basketball team, and Coach Russell Smith, the very successful basketball star, is well pleased with those who have reported.

Five new men have reported for the Varsity. They are: J. L. Edwards, J. A. Shaffer, W. E. Holshorn, C. F. Paxson and W. H. Shaffer. The following new men have reported for the Freshman team: H. D. Rod-

At last night’s practices about twenty-five men reported to Coach Smith. This number was divided into separate teams, and games of about two hours were played.

The first cut in candidates is to be made at the end of the week, and will appear in the next number of the Mask and Wig Club program.

Both Ehlers and McCrudden, who were reported yesterday, are last year’s Varsity men. Coach Smith wants every candidate for the basketball team out tonight at 7:30, sharp, in the gymnasium.

There will be a meeting of the Sophomore Debate Committee tonight, at 7:30, in the trophy room of Houston Hall. D. J. Loeb and M. D. Vincent will preside. Signed: A. B. Miller, chairman.

Seven Reasons

"But apart from all theories, deductions, and what may perhaps be justly termed glib generalities, there remain seven solid reasons for using an Electric Sign. These are to be found by a count of the letters which form a word spelled G I L B E R T. For that is what an electric sign spells to the merchant who places it over his door."

"November 19th to Monday evening, November 26th. All members of the club who have paid more than one year are eligible to compete. Competitions will be held in fencing room at the gymnasium. Signed: R. G. Park, manager."

"An invitation is extended to the Pennsylvania College Men's Dress Suits and Tuxedos, $35 to $60. Add to this the style shown in the present line of clothes: those of the most successful dance ever held by the club."

"A cordial invitation is extended to the Penn boys."
