For the third year in succession our football team is going into its big game with public backing and our opponents at prohibitive odds. It is true that in 1904 and 1905 we had not been beaten and that Harvard was made odds-on favorite at 5 to 1 in 1904 and 3 to 1 in 1905 simply because the latent power that was underestimated. It is needless to recall the victorious glories of scores by 11-2 and 12-4, which we won in those years and which will go down in the book as True Blue for all time to come.

We have beaten twice this year, but don’t forget that the team as it lined up Saturday—with Lawrence, the star, a doubtful scratch at full, "Fat" Dyer at center, and a 138-pound tackle—that has not been beaten, and it is a very much stronger combination than we presented when we met our defeated teams. With only a few days’ practice to get this team into an absolutely new quarter, they held Lafayette to a score, and the Eastonians have admitted one of the three or four strongest teams in the country.

If this team of 1906 can get up its fighting spirit, they will go in and lick that crowd from Ann Arbor from start to finish. Michigan’s Pennsylvania will be vindicated. You may say that this is a big proposition, but Pen-sylvania will not be whitewashed. It will not wipe out the sting of the defeats at the hands of Swampmore and the Indianapolis gridiron, but it will give them out a hundred times, for it was a crowd that was stronger than we have risen in our might and won out against all odds. It has always been a truth that so long as Pennsylvania when their fighting blood is up, no matter how much stronger our opponents may be.

This fighting spirit can be aroused to a great extent by you fellows in the University. If you show those fellows down at Willow Junction that you are back of them heart and soul, they will go into the game Saturday in such a state of mind that Michigan will go back West wiser and better— and beaten.

Speaking for the Board of Coaches, I know we can win Saturday. Let every man get back of the team and "Ed" Greene. Don’t believe anything you hear to the contrary, and don’t believe in lack of harmony. There is nothing in H—except money for the space writers.

Turn out in full force to-night at the mass meeting. Every last one of you, Senior and Freshman of whatever department. It’s your team. We all say ‘t’s up to you to back them. Then be at the mass meeting at some time tomorrow at 12.15, in the Mathews Memorial building, 3320 Walnut street, the time to be announced at the mass meet-

AVOID SPECULATORS!

In the possibility that some undergraduates may be tempted to sell their tickets for the Pennsylvania-Michigan game, we desire to urge them to regard the sentiment against such a practice. At the present time it is impossible to compel students to observe this unwritten law of honor, but if it becomes necessary, steps will be taken to publish the names of any who have abused their privileges.

This disgraceful practice has the strongest disapprobation of the right-thinking students, who are practically unanimous in condemning it, and all but the demoralized feel scorn and contempt for the man who sells his right as an undergraduate to an outsider, who has no interest but dollars and cents. Every man who obtained good seats only to make a dollar or two is depriving his school of the moral support which has carried so many enterprises to success in the past.

Professor A. C. Haddon Lectures.

Professor Alfred C. Haddon, F. R. S., of Cambridge University, delivered a lecture in Houston Hall at four o'clock yesterday afternoon on "Magic and Religion Among the Nations of New Guinea." The lecture was illustrated by lantern slides, showing various totems, masks and charms used in the religious and magical ceremonies of the islanders. Professor Haddon showed that there has been pronounced evolution in the beliefs and practices of these as of most other savage peoples. The lecture was held in Houston Hall, on account of the temporary closing of the Free Museum of Science and Art for repairs to the heating plant.

Henry Flanders, 3rd, to Lecture.

Henry Flanders, 3rd, one of the oldest and most honored members of the Bar, will give the first of a series of popular lectures this afternoon in Price Hall, at the Law School, at two o'clock. His subject will be "Samuel Chase, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court."

Dr. Flanders will be remembered by his lectures here last year. During the Civil War he was appointed by the United States District Court very frequently as Prize Commissioner, as his specialty is the admiralty practices. He is also an authority on ecclesiastical law, and is noted for his scholarly ability and attainments.

Camra Club Meeting.

A meeting of the Camera club was held last night in the rooms of the Club in Houston Hall. Dr. George W. Davidson, of the Architectural Department, gave an interesting talk and criticisms, also spoke mainly on the composition of the pictures which he brought to various members of the club.

It was decided to hold the next regular meeting on Monday, December 2nd, at which time a talk on sun-hieratarchie paper will be given, and to call a special meeting on Monday, November 19th, at 11:30 o'clock.

There was a meeting of the Sophomore Bowl Fight Committee yesterday in the trophy room at 1:45 o'clock. The committee, after hearing a report from the treasurer, discussed the idea of having the Bowl Fight. In Junior week, the general feeling was against this proposition, and an attempt will be made to hold the fight in the spring, as has been the custom in former years. A sub-committee was appointed to meet with the Undergraduate Committee on this point.

COLUMBIA LETTER.

New York, November 12th.—The final team to meet Princeton in the cross-country race on Friday was picked during the past week from a squad of about thirty men. Cross-country running at Columbia has become one of the most popular outdoor sports this fall. Besides the regular weekly handicap races, there are to be held interclass and interclass races during the remainder of the month. Seven men and one substitute will enter the meet at Princeton. They are: B. Santor, S. F. Hetherington, A. P. Montgomery, F. W. Kennedy, W. J. Donovan, B. S. Harper, and F. L. Potz.

This week marks the close of one of the most successful fallrowing seasons in Columbia's history. J. C. Rice, the new coach, has undertaken several radical reforms which have proved of great benefit to the interests of the crew. The Freshmen have turned out in good numbers, and much promising material has been developed. Since the annual fall regatta, held recently on the Harlem River, the 'Varsity 8, defeated the crew of the Nassau Boat Club, finishing a seagull length in the lead. The Science Freshman crew cast off from the College Freshman in a short three-quarter mile dash. Coach Rice intends to begin indoor practice on the machines some time in December. It is probable that the Hudson River will be hereafter abandoned for practice purposes and the Harken chosen instead.

One of the important events in the coming year will be the Junior Prom, the first of its kind to be held at Columbia. The program includes the Yale-Columbia basketball game, followed by a dance in the University gymnasium, a University reception, a theatre party, fraternalities, and the popular Junior Ball at Sherry's. It is planned to have these festivities come during the week of February 5th to 9th.

We mention Swimming Events. The third bimonthly swimming events will be held tonight, at eight o'clock, in the gymnasium pool. These events, which were so popular last year, have proven even more so this fall, and a much larger list of swimmers is being developed.

Captain Hopkins reports the discovery of some excellent new material, and anticipates a creditable season.

The events tonight will be: One hundred yard novice, two hundred yard novice, one hundred yard handicap, two hundred yard handicap, twelve yard for distance, fancy diving, one hundred yard breast stroke, one hundred yard back.

A special match for one hundred yards, between L. J. Crowe, of the New York Athletic Club, and D. B. Renner, '89 M., for a trophy offered by Frank J. Milton, president of the Philadelphia Swimming Club, will be a feature of the evening.

Freshman Debating Candidates. All candidates for the Freshman debating team will report in the trophy room of the Houston Club to-morrow (Friday) at 11.55. It is absolutely essential that every candidate shall be present. All men who have ever had any experience in public speaking or debating, who intend to run for the team or not, are requested to be present, to ensure a successful and representative team.

a voice and his heart in the right place to be there. It would also be a good thing to meet again Saturday afternoon. But inside the dressing room at Franklin Field and sing a few of the grand old Pennsylvania songs and sing them with your hearts back of the words. If you do, I'll guarantee you will have a different article of football from any we have shown so far. Now you get together and keep together until the last whistle blows, and then I think you'll have a chance to send you down town, as you did last year, and use up all the paint you can get your hands on. Now all together for Pennsylvania and "R.F. Greenie and the team!" Yours for a good fight.

Mask and Wig Preliminary Play.

The final assignment of parts for the preliminary play of the Mask and Wig Club was made to the candidates even before the play, which is called "Going Back to College," was written by Thomas B. Donaldson, who was the prize of 72, offered for the best play for the football smoker, and will be given in the club house on Saturday evening, December 1st. The play will be presented on December 21st and 22nd by the two casts chosen. On December 22nd a select cast will give the same play before the club members and their wives. The chorus for each performance will consist of the candidates who are not then taking the cast parts. About the first of the new year the old men will be called out to compete for places in the cast of the Easter production with the new men who have this fall.
