PUBLIC MEETING OF CITY CLUB
Addresses Will Be Made by Colonel Potter and Other Prominent Men.

The City Club of the University has established a program for a full public meeting, to be held in Price Hall, December 15th, at 11 A.M. The meeting will continue for one hour in length. Provost Charles C. Harrison will be the presiding officer. The speakers will include Colonel Potter, Mr. Tilden and Owen J. Roberts. Colonel Potter will be well known as a former efficient Director of Public Safety. Mr. Tilden is a member of the Union League and is prominent in the Lincoln and City Party movements. Owen J. Roberts successively was a member of class C, and during his course was an active member of the Zelosophic Society and a varsity debating team.

Senior Class Meets.
At a meeting of the Senior Class, which was held in the 20th, Columbia, Hall, the dates for the football schedule were discussed, but as a quorum was not present no definite action was taken. The treasurer reported the club's financial condition, after paying off $17 of its debt, is still $118.35 in debt. The class collectors were urged to collect all the bills due, for which bills have been made out, and receipts will be given. President Hopkins will read a letter from Dr. Smith, to the effect that all those who had ordered class caps from Harrington's, 1222 Chestnut street, and had not received them, should do so at once. Special efforts will be made, by those of the class present yesterday who are able, to have the class union a reality. The next meeting, when an assessment is to be made, will be held before the close of the first chapels exercises.

Interclass Football Game To-Day.
Captain Bickham, of the 94 class football team, has twenty candidates for his team, which is scheduled to play the 91 class team this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. A full team and several substitutes run through signal practice for a couple of hours yesterday afternoon. All of the men are in good physical condition, as practically all of the men have been working with the varsity substitutes and scrub team this year. Only half a dozen men were reported for practice yesterday, and it is feared that the game will have to be postponed, as this effort will be made to get the team together by tomorrow, and the game will be played if possible. If the game is not played by Monday the Senior class will probably have to throw up the game.

Alpha Omega Alpha Fraternity.
At a recent meeting of the Alpha Omega Alpha Honorary Medical Fraternity, it was decided that the Senior Medical Class were elected to represent the University at the meeting of the American Physiological Society. A. H. Logan, H. S. Hutchinson, W. S. Campbell, R. B. Voorhees, J. P. Schoefler, R. J. Birds, Calvin Busk, A. L. Huse, Thomas H. Rutherford, J. W. Robinson, T. D. Crow, R. M. Viebe, William Burdick,

ANNUAL BOWL FIGHT HELD ON FRANKLIN FIELD TO-DAY AT 1:30

EVEN IN EVENT OF RAIN THIS MORNING CONTEST WILL BE POSTPONED.

Same Rules as Last Year to Prevail. Date Changed That All Men of Both Classes May Take Part.

At 1:30 today the Sophomores and Juniors will clash on Franklin Field in the annual and historic Bowl Fight. In the event of stormy weather his morning the contest will be postponed.

This fight is by far the largest and most important fight between the two lower classes of the College, and is looked forward to by the whole University and alumni with a great deal of interest.

The Bowl Fight dates back many years in the history of the University, and has been subjected to many changes. It was at one time held at the close of the first chapels exercises after mid-year examinations. The two classes then fought from the chapel into the halls and on the sidewalks of the campus.

The Bowl fight this year the Sophomore Bowl Fight will try to touch the Freshman bowl man with the bowll, while the Freshman will try to touch the bowll the Sophomore and over the brick wall at the west end of Franklin Field.

In the second half the Sophomores will protect the bowl, and the class which succeeds in having the most hands on the bowl at the end of the half will be declared the victor.

The Undergraduate Committee, by changing this most important football game from the spring to the fall, when all members of both classes are free to enter, and by holding it on Franklin Field, have made this a more important event than it has been in previous years.

The spectators will be required to sit in the stands, and to enforce this rule a number of police officers will be stationed on the grounds.

Members of the University will be admitted upon presentation of their A. A. books, and an admission fee of ten cents will be charged to others.

Camera Club Meets. The regular meeting of the Camera Club was held last evening in Hees- ton Hall. Considerable business was transacted.

President in absentia, Fleischer, '97 C, sur- prised his fellow-members by presenting his resignation, on account of his withdrawal from the University. Fleischer has been president of the club for three consecutive years, and has won two second prizes and sever- al honorable mentions in the inter- collegiate exhibitions. He was also the first president of the Intercollegiate Photographic Association.

George Wanger, '94 C, who had formerly been secretary of the club, was unanimously elected president, to fill the vacancy. R. W. Frenzberger, '94 C, was elected secretary. After the meeting Fleischer gave a demonstra- tion of the new ready-coated gum bichromate paper.

Grand—"The Girl from Broadway.

The attraction at the Grand Opera House for this week is the musical sensation, "The Girl from Broadway." The story is a consistent one, and not a simple excuse upon which to hang a plot of scenery and masquerade numbers. It is in three acts and any number of scenes.

The story opens at the "Down East," a resort summer hotel where a pair of gentleman artists from the city have engaged rooms for the hot months, and who have scarcely been settled before they are launched into a mesh of plots and counterplots, wherein a crew of clever and dodging old salts learns that the fortune she is enjoying rightfully belongs to her uncle, who was stolen when a baby by gypsies. The rightful owner of the money is discovered, in the course of a circus queen, and as the chief attraction of that enterprise she is at the opening of the story, something much trouble to the owner, as a procuratrice, to having defrauded without the customary two weeks' notice. In her endeavor to stifle the hopes of circus folowers who are seeking her capture she appeals to the hero, Jack Dawne, an artist, and he ends by falling in love with the charming equestrian. The hero, failure to control the girl's money, enters into an intrigue with a villain, and attempts to subdue another girl for Mlle. Venus, and a rival of the heroine is chased whom, after a stormy period of trials and a host of musical numbers, repeats, punctuated on her employers, and assets in restoring the girl's money and position.
