Students in the Hospital.

The Combined Musical Clubs will hold their annual meeting in the University Hospital at three o'clock on Thursday, January 17th, and the students' ward presented an address to the hospital staff. It was signed by all the members of the Select Committee. The address was read by Dr. John D. Newton, who has been a regular visitor in the hospital for the past two years. It is in the form of a letter, and is written in the hand of Dr. John D. Newton, who has been a regular visitor in the hospital for the past two years.

CUT IN MASK AND WIG CHORUS

Thirty-five Candidates Still Left in Competition—Last Cut This Evening.

This will be the last live test before the midway examinations. Officemen Manager Morgan will make a slight cut in the number of men to be retained. Those then kept will have their names presented to the Faculty Committee for approval. Any man having more, than one condition will not be allowed to report. Hard practice for the show will begin right after the examinations.

Dr. S. Weir Mitchell to Speak.

Prominent Alumnus Will Make an Address in Chapel This Morning.

Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, '48 C, who will speak in Chapel this morning, is probably the best known physician in the United States. This eminence has been attained by achievements both in medicine, and in the fields of literature and science. Dr. Mitchell would speak from the experience of more than a generation, and would have been retained. Those then kept will have their names presented to the Faculty Committee for approval. Any man having more than one condition will not be allowed to report. Hard practice for the show will begin right after the examinations.

All candidates for the special gleee chorus report this Friday afternoon at five o'clock. The following men will be made in this chorus, as forty-six men are now trying for this chorus: John Smith, William Brown, Edward Williams, James Harvey, Robert Morgan, and Henry White.

The following men will report at the Mask and Wig Club house to-night, at eight o'clock, for continued practice for the coming show: William Johnson, Edward Brown, William Jones, John Smith, and Charles White.

The following are the officers for the ensuing year: C. S. Lee, president; A. F. Hanby, vice-president; A. F. Hanby, secretary; and R. J. Smith, treasurer. The following are the members who will report at the Mask and Wig Club house to-night: William Johnson, Edward Brown, William Jones, John Smith, and Charles White.

The Combined Musical Clubs will hold their combined meeting at the dining hall of the University, at nine o'clock. The Combined Musical Clubs will hold their combined meeting at the dining hall of the University, at nine o'clock.

University Club of New York

At the annual meeting of the University of Pennsylvania Club of New York held at the Club, 134 West Forty-seventh street, on Saturday evening, January 12th, the following officers were elected: President, Henry Galbraith Ward; vice-president, William Gingerich; secretary-treasurer, Harry B. Mingle; members of council (term expiring 1909), Howard Conard and William H. Johnson. Admissions Committee, Frank Topper, Dr. S. de Sola, Max Feldman, Carl Wettersen.

The treasurer's report was gratifying, as it shows for the first time in the history of the Club a balance in the treasury. The report of the Council was also gratifying, and showed an increase in the membership during the year, and also made a plea for cooperation and enlargement of the men coming to New York.

Soccer Game To-Morrow

The following game will take the 2:40 train from West Philadelphia Station tomorrow for Havertown, to play Merion Cricket Club: Keating, Goodfellow, Bretter, Wood, Schopack, Pike, Widdow, Morris, Shoemaker, Pleasanton, Webster, Montgomery.

The game will be played off the posted game for last week. The snow will in all probability not interfere with the game, as the Merion Cricket Club grounds are always cleared.

Next week's game will be with Philadelphia and Reading Y. M. C. A., and will finish the regular schedule of games. After that, however, there will be three postponed games to play off, only one date for which has been set as yet.

Law Committee Appointed

Swimming Team at Brooklyn

It is probable that several members of the "Varsity" swimming squad will be sent to Brooklyn to participate in a swimming meet to be held there January 25th. The meet will be under the auspices of the Thirteenth Regiment, and will be held in their armory.

New Jersey Practice.
Professor Grey will meet the class in New Jersey Practice to-day at three o'clock, instead of at two.

interscholastic Meet in March.
Dr. McKennis announces that an interscholastic meet will be held some time in March, the date to be announced later.
By the time it was handed out, the lecture was "Lord Erskine," and this will most likely be the subject of the next lecture.

Spring State Smoker.
Arrangements are being made for a smoker at the Spring State some time in the latter part of February. The last smoker, which was held in October, was a decided success. The plans are being laid for one even better next time.

Empire State College.

"Your appearance can be the difference between success and failure," said Mr. Henry Flanders, who was unable to lecture yesterday at the Law School on account of illness. The subject of the lecture was "Lord Erskine," and this will most likely be the subject of the next lecture.
