lights. Although the days are gradually becoming longer and daylight more plentiful, there have been many days of late when twilight has almost choked into darkness before the lights have been available—that is to say, it has frequently been after five o'clock before a student can go out with his interrupted work.

Complaints concerning this annoyance—for it is an annoyance not to be allowed the electric lights as soon as they are needed—have reached us from several sources. It is certainly a cause for self-congratulation that the administration in general is so liberal that we have no more serious reasons for complaint than this; but at the same time it must be remembered that an idea or two little things make life comfortable. In short, we find our Dormitory rooms so useful that we object to being deprived of their use for any fraction of the day.

Dormitory Rooms Vacant. There are a number of very desirable rooms vacant in the Dormitories, due to the fact that several men have dropped out of college at the end of the first semester. These rooms may have had application to the Bursar, and a new allowance will be made, proportionate to the time already elapsed. The rooms are: Nos. 12 Morgan, single, renting at $80. 12th class, single, $65. 41 Class of '07, single. $85. 215 Lightfoot, single. $225. 54 Cox, single. $75. 46 E. F. Smith, single. $65. 55 Memorial Tower, single. $85. 15 Robertson, single, studio, $125. 44 Cox, double room. $175. 46 E. F. Smith, double room. $175. 465 New York Alumni, double room. $115. 366 Bald, double room. $155. 177 Hopkins, double suite, $250.

Change in Baseball Schedule. A slight change has been made in the baseball schedule because of the canceling of the date with the University of Alabama, who were to have been played on June 6th. In place of this game two additional games have been scheduled with the Carlisle Indians, to take place at Atlantic City, March 29th and 30th, while the third game will be played on Franklin Field on June 6th. This change in the schedule will lengthen the Southern trip for three days.

Andrew Cookley, a famous pitcher on the Athletics, is now training with the candidates for pitcher, and is rendering very valuable assistance.

Basketball with Rochester. Tonight, at eight o'clock, the Pennsylvania "Varsity" basketball team will meet the Rochester team at Rochester. This is the last game to be played on the trip, the team returning home on Sunday. At Rochester there has been a strong team this year, the outcome is very doubtful, owing to the uncertainty of the "varsity" teams playing. Immediately after the game the Pennsylvania team will attend a smoker, given in their honor by the Pennsylvanians of Rochester. The team will leave Rochester for Philadelphia tomorrow night late.

Meeting of the Chess Club. All members of the University Chess and Checker Club are requested to attend a meeting of the Club at 1:30 P. M. on Tuesday, February 12th, in Room 11, Houston Club. The matters of club rules and chess library will come up for discussion.

Five Baseball Candidates Report. Five new men reported for the baseball team yesterday, but the number of candidates is still very small, and more is certainly needed. The new men reporting yesterday were Hearst, Henry, F. Collier, Borle and Knowles.

Bowling Match with Columbia.
The Pennsylvania bowling team will roll an intercollegiate match this afternoon with the team of Columbia University. As Columbia has a strong team, the contest will be very interesting to bowling enthusiasts in the University. In a recent game with Pennsylvania the New Yorkers made almost 1,000 points, although one man scored only 16. The average score of the team is 912. As they are accustomed to having more than six feet of running, the amount on the Houston Club alley, they will be slightly handicapped. The team is composed of Schlotter, Cograve, Turkel, White and Scharb, with Levettitt, Angerger and Weisheber as substitutes. The Pennsylvanian team consists of F. H. Schenck, R. E. A. Do How, W. M. Baldwin, E. M. Schan 11 J. W. W. C. Anderson, and R. A. Camhans, substitute.

Grand—"Piff, Paaf, Pouf!"
The story of B. C. Whitney's big successful musical comedy, "Piff, Paaf, Pouf!" which is at the Grand Opera House this week, concerns one August Melon, who cannot touch $1,600,000 left him by his deceased wife, should he marry before his four daughters have faded beauty. As the gay widower sports along the sands of Atlantic City, he meets the dancing Widow Montague, whom he considers his affability. Immediately they begin laying plans to get the four Melon girls married off. This situation leads to a number of very amusing and laughable scenes. Gus. F. Morrison creates the character of August Melon and Henrietta the role of Mrs. Montague, the fascinating widow.

If you are interested in treatment and an acting and singing company of the best-known Broadway favorites count for anything in the make-up of a successful production, then the popularity and popularity of "Piff, Paaf, Pouf!" is assured.

The principal members of the organization comprise many favorites on the stage and in the dress and efficient chorus, principally pretty girls.

The matinees will be on Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday. The prices are as usual, popular.

Paris—"Way Down East."
That delightful play of New England life, "Way Down East," is at the attraction at the Park Theatre this week. Those who have witnessed its presentation here before will not doubt go and see it again.

Lottie Blair Parker bulled better than she knew when she constructed "Way Down East," and she has given the American stage a play that will live for years—perhaps forever. The characters in the piece are human beings who live and are to be found in every little settlement in the State of New Hampshire, where the action of the play transpires. The play fairly abounds in "atmosphere," and one can almost smell the fragrant odor of the New Hampshire pines as the delightful and interesting story is unfolded.

The love of an honest, stalwart young farmer led for the heroine, Anna Moore, the suspicions of her sturdy father that the girl is not all that she should be, the devotion of the girl herself to the family that has taken her in and sheltered her when she was in want, furnish a story that appeals most strongly to human sympathy, and it is not strange that hundreds of all classes like it.

"There she has a Hit; the chorus boy, the constable, the "Village Choir" and other "types" that are to be found only in a New Hampshire Village that furnish the comedy of the piece. Like the principal characters these "types" furnish plenty of wholesome amusement and they relieve the more strenuous moments of the play with bright dashes of genuine comedy.
