Mass Meeting in College Chapel at 1:15 O'clock on Thursday

Dr. J. William White to be INFORMED INSTRUCTION

HAS BEEN TRAVELING, SEARCHING IN HEALTH IN EUROPE.

Welcome in His Return This Evening in Tended Him in Weightman Hall, Gymnasium Building.

Three hundred of the students of the Medical School accompanied by Dr. Horatio C. Wood and Dr. Edward Burton, moved into Broad Street Station yesterday when they arrived from New York. Dr. White landed in New York yesterday morning from the "Cedrle." The arvement was made after the informal reception in Weightman Hall that evening with which he will be welcomed back to his work at Pennsylvania after his travels in Switzerland, France and Egypt in search of health.

"Hall, Pennsylvania," was the thing the train pulled in, and when Dr. White appeared he was greeted with three long rays. In a few words he expressed his appreciation of the doing of the undergraduates and its effect on his health. His pleasure in being among his fellow students was very evident.

On the eve of the departure of Dr. White, the University will be represented by Jones, Haskins, Taylor and Plummer, and as will be written by Carll of the Office, in the hurly burly of McCulloch, and in the hurly burly of McCulloch, and in

th Day, Coach Murphy is looking to enter a relay team from the University to try to defeat the Harvard. New York. It has not yet been definitely decided who will represent Pennsylavania. One of the three college teams will in all likelihood be Taylor, coach of the B. Wharton A

The University leads all the Eastern colleges and universities this year in track. Three Varsity collegiate championships have already been captured, and on Saturday evening Taylor's running at Madison Square Garden equalled the world record.

Wharton School Address.

A. J. Countyan, of New York, is the third vice-president of the Pennsylvania State College of Agriculture in the Wharton School to-morrow, at 1:35, in Room 102, Logan Hall. The subject of his talk will be "The Pennsylvania Railroad tunnel extension from Philadelphia to Harrisburg.

Mr. Countyan is assistant to the third vice-president, who has charge of private lines and others of the largest and most interesting work in the United States.

Students in University Hospital.

There are only three students in Ward H of the University Hospital at this time. They are: Williams, who has been there for a week with abdominal and heart trouble, and sponge-rhinitis. Wenzl, who has been on his visit in Barnard. He has been there for four weeks with typhoid fever, and is doing as well as could be hoped for, but it will be a full ten weeks before he can leave his bed, and Feinman, whom he has been in. He is doing better, and has started walking with the leg broken by being thrown from his horse on Lancaster avenue.

Basketball Team is HOME

After a Very Successful Trip in the Central Part of New York State.

The Varsity basketball team returned home on a successful trip in New York State. On Saturday night the team played the five of Syracuse University at Saturday night before a large and enthusiastic crowd. The team was represented in this meet by Stanford, Cornell, Harvard, Columbia, Princeton, and Dartmouth, and a number of other clubs will be represented.

Syracuse will run a two-mile relay race against Wharton, and will enter men in three other events; which are the pole vault, the low and high hurdles, and the shot put. In the track and field meets the Carolina teams will be represented by Jones, Haskins, Taylor and Plummer, and the New York teams will be represented by Carll of the Office, in the hurly burly of McCulloch, and in the hurly burly of McCulloch, and in

POPULAR FRENCH COMEDY WAS A VERY MARKED SUCCESS.

Last night in the New Century drawing Room at the Cornell University, the school's scandal was held its annual play before an audience of about five hundred. The play, "Les Femmes Qui Pleurent," a comic comedy, was very well acted indeed by the cast of five students. The house was continually in merri-ty during the brilliant satire in French conversation.

Too much credit cannot be given to Dr. Vulpito, of the Pennsylvania Depart-iment, for his great and invaluable assistance rendered by his persevering

The Intercollegiate championship will be held in form of a round-robin affair, in which all of the remaining games of the men play.

The team against Cornell, held yesterday, was played Cornell at Atlantic the following night a totally different exhibition of the players. The team was the highest order and the game was the finest professional of the season, and came through the heat.

It is not too early to call attention to the mass meeting to be held in the chapel on Thursday of this week at 11:30 P.M. The students of all departments are urged to attend, as matters of vital importance will be discussed and questions settled which are of importance to the undergraduates of all departments.

Today in another column we print the opening paragraphs of the series of articles written expressly for the members of the Intercollegiate Civic League and published by them in their respective college daily publications. These articles are thoroughly non-partisan, written by men of all sorts of different political views, and are entirely original.

We feel that in giving prominence to the stories we are giving the undergraduates first chance to read what will undoubtedly be a notable series of articles.

The greeting which the medical students will tonight give Dr. J. William White is one in which the entire University feels a share. As the greatest living teacher of surgery, Dr. White has endeared himself to Pennsylvania by his services to athletics. It may not be known to all undergraduates of the present day that Dr. White was the first Physical Director at the University and that he was the champion of athletics. Until very lately Dr. White gave a very large portion of his time to personal supervision of all branches of sport, and it would be impossible to calculate the value of his efforts.

He was one of the most instrumental factors in securing for the University the well equipped Gymnasium, now so universally enjoyed. While the medical men enthusiastically receive him in the class room, the remainder of the University will extend a cordial welcome back to the "Pennsylvania family."

THE MATTHEWS BENEFIT

With the host of stars in the theatrical world only too willing to do their "turns," and requests for tickets from all parts of the country, the testimonial benefit to the widow of the late William H. Matthews at the Lyric Theatre last Friday afternoon holds fair to eclipse any like performances ever given in this city.

Among the handiworkers who have consented to aid in this worthy cause are Henry Woodruff, of "Brown of Harvard," May Irwin and company; La Petite Adelaide, premier dancer with the Blue Moon Company, who will come in from Washington; Kylie Bellew; Robert Edison; John Jack, the veteran actor; Thomas O'Brien; Gladys Carlisle; Al Lawrence; Rawson and Clark, and the Arab troupe from Keight's. There are still more to come. Mayor Weaver and party will occupy one of the boxes, nearly all of which have been sold to theatrical stars, a half dozen of whom will leave Broadway to attend the benefit—Adv.

Lyric—"Brown of Harvard." "Brown of Harvard" is in its final week at the Lyric Theatre. The piece is a bright comedy of modern American college life, and is eminently suited to the abilities of the star. Harry Woodruff has the title role. His excellent training as a light comedian serves him in good stead, and he quite realizes the popular ideal of the youthful collegian. The management has provided some handsome stage settings and a capital supporting company. Willette Kershaw has the leading feminine role.—Adv.

Wrestling.

The intercollegiate wrestling match scheduled to take place on Saturday evening, February 9th, at Ithaca, N. Y., between Cornell and Pennsylvania was cancelled for some unavoidable reason and a later date is being arranged.

On next Thursday, February 14th, the wrestling team of the University will meet the Yale team at New Haven. The men who will represent Pennsylvania in the contest are Pete, Gimble, Wlley, Waite, John, Freeman, Polwell and Yonger.

Checker Tournament.

The checker tournament is now in full progress, about half the games having been played off. Every contestant must play two games against every other contestant, all scores counting, and the man having the highest percentage will be declared winner. There are eighteen men in the tournament, and the scores of each are posted up in the University Club chess corner.

The Sophomore-Freshman basketball game for a point towards the Dean's trophy will be played immediately after the Cornell game next Saturday evening. Members of both classes are expected to turn out and support their teams.

Meeting of Sophomore Collectors.

There will be an important meeting of all the collectors of Sophomore dues in the Houston Club trophy room Wednesday at 11:15 sharp. He prepared to turn in all dues collected. Signed: Robert D. Smith, treasurer.

Jewish Chautauqua Circle.

There will be a meeting of the Jewish Chautauqua Circle in Room 1, Houston Hall, at eight o'clock tonight. The subject for discussion is "The American Army and Navy." Papers will be read by I. K. Levy, A. M. Rose and J. Moss.

English 257.

Students taking English 257 on Tuesday and Thursday at 11:15 will please report hereafter to Professor Rice in the big lecture room of the Harrison Laboratory of Chemistry.

Grand Opera House—"Dolli's Dimples".

"Little Dolli Dimples," after making a great hit which has echoed around the world, is back to her own United States again. Not only is she singing the song which made a prodigious fortune, but is now appearing in a musical drama which gets its title from the famous song.

Miss Cameron skipped right into big prima donna roles from the very start of her theatrical career, and has carried many a burdensome, dull and monotonous musical play into the very height of success by her clever, conscientious and artistic work as a coloratura soprano singer.

Two years ago the Vanderbilt Association of America offered her a very tempting salary to appear in a limited number of vaudeville halls, and her success was so phenomenal that she made a year's tour of the world, playing in all the principal theatres in London, Paris, Berlin, Glasgow, Cape Town, Brussels, etc.

She returned to native soil especially to appear in the musical drama which was written by C. H. Kerr to fit her great versatility and to give ample opportunity to display her wonderful powers as a coloratura soprano as well as her remarkable character impersonations.

Miss Cameron and her splendid company will play "Dolli Dimples" at the Grand Opera House this week. The matinees will be as usual on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, with every seat reserved at 25 cents.—Adv.
