Cussick and Hammond Landon for the other debate. Columbia notified the debate com- mittee yesterday morning that it would be ready to speak on the Philadelphia debate. It will be (1) Carl D. Dorrinson, '07, \( \frac{2}{3} \) H. C. Trueman, '07; (2) Maurice L. Wurmer, '09.

In an order of speaking accepted by Columbia will be Wilesney, Gilchrist, and Parkin in each round. The contest was awarded to a Quaker, of Episcopal Academy, with a number of points second with 108 points, and P. Noll of Central High School, third, 127 points.

Forensics.

Dr. M. H. Cary, Professor of Oral Surgery, who has been ill for some time, was able to return to his Saturday clinics at the Phila- delphia General Hospital, where he is now attending patients. Dr. G. N. Durman will con- clude to perform the clinics until Dr. Cary returns.

The examination of mechanical dentistry and metallurgy, has just brought out a third edition of the Text and Manual of Oral Surgery. This book, the first of its kind in the United States, is invaluable to the profession.

The entrance fees for the Dental Department will be raised with the next incoming class. Under the new regulations a man will have to pass the four years' course at the Dental College in order to take entrance examinations unless he has a recommendation from the Dental College. While the general tendency of such examinations is, of course, to lower the number of men entering the Dental college in the world," the num- ber of students in the school will be limited to 100, including the foreign students. The Dental College is now in session, and the Dental College is now in session.

The third and fourth-year students who have taken their examinations will be entered in the Dental College in the third year.

The third and fourth-year students who have taken their examinations will be entered in the Dental College in the third year.

The following men will report at West Philadelphia Station at 4 P. M. today, to go to New Brunswick: Bradford, Kraus, Brooke, Spandling, Joyce, Lawton, Ball, and Lentz, signed: Samuel D. Hawley, manager.
Freshman Debate Team Trials.  Preliminary rounds for the Freshman debating team will be held at Houston Hall Monday evening, March 11th, at 7:30 o'clock promptly. The subject for discussion will be the same as that for the interclass debate: "Resolved, That a system of compulsory arbitration of labor disputes similar to that enacted in New Zealand, should be introduced into the United States." All students who desire to have their names to Ottenberg, '10 Wh. chairman, on or before Monday, March 4th, if possible. Right men will be selected in the preliminary trial, and from those eight the final team of four will be chosen about a week later.

Each speaker in the preliminary will be allowed four minutes, but there will be no rebuttals, owing to the large number of candidates. In the final, each speaker will be allowed a first speech of five minutes and a rebuttal speech of three.

Tablet to James Wilson. The James Wilson Law Club has completed arrangements for erecting in Houston Hall a tablet to James Wilson, the first professor of law in the school. The tablet will be similar to the Hogan and Hare memorial tablets now in Houston Hall. The alumni members of the club are aiding in raising the funds.

The date for the unveiling of the memorial has been fixed for Thursday, but will be some time early in March. The tablet will contain the following inscription: "James Wilson, 1742-1798, Member of Continental Congress, 1774-1778, Signer of the Declaration of Independence. Member of the United States Constitutional Convention, 1787. Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, 1789-1798. First Professor of Law in the University of Pennsylvania, 1799-1800."

Lecture by Professor Bates. In the lecture hall of the Free Museum of Science and Art, Tuesday-third and Fourth streets, at four o'clock this afternoon, will be delivered the second of the present course of Free Museum lectures. The speaker will be Professor William N. Bates, of the Greek Faculty, and his subject, "An Archaeological Journey in Asia Minor." Professor Bates traveled alone among the ruins of Asia Minor last year, and achieved even a great deal of interesting and valuable archaeological information, and his lecture is expected to be of great interest. He read a paper on the same subject before the Classical Club at its November meeting, and it met with the greatest approval.

Grand—Low Dockstader's Minstrels.
Low Dockstader believes that he has accomplished the ambition of his life; this season in building up a minstered entertainment that for completeness, beauty of scenic environment and perfection of every detail makes up a great minstrel entertainment has never been equalled.
This is a small task in the field of amusement. Managers in other lines get new effects, new color, new music, operas, but the basis of the minstrel entertainment is always the same and demands the most extraordinary ingenuity to give a new originality and variety to old established form. From beginning to end, the Dockstader Minstrel Company will present a program at the Grand Opera House this week that is not only new but novel. Every act, every feature has been under the direction of the famous minstrel and has had his personal attention. It will amuse; the sentiment more than a college man.
We can satisfy you for all occasions, whether at work, at play or in society.

Columbia Cancels Track Meet.
Late yesterday afternoon Columbia cancelled the two-mile relay races which she was scheduled to run against Pennsylvania this evening in the Baltimore A. A. games at Baltimore.

This action came unexpectedly to Pennsylvania, no reason being given other than the canceling of the race or leaving it so long before taking such action. Pennsylvania was especially destitute of meeting Columbia, the Pennsylvania last week, in the face of most remarkable results in the recent inter-city track meets in attempts to run away with them. The Mulligan has been declared infel-ible to represent Pennsylvania in relay races, this being part of Visual Smith's recent effort to replace the invidiousness of first-year men.
