COLUMBIA DEBATING TEAM WILL LOSE CAPTAIN HARPER

VARSTY MEETS CORNELL AT ITHACA SATURDAY EVENING.

Question. Resolved. That Immigration shall be Restricted. Motion. Resolved. That Immigration shall be Committed to the Committee on Immigration.

Word was received yesterday that Harold Harper, '07, Law, the captain and star debater of the Columbia team which will meet Pennsylvania in front of the President on the Thirty-six, has been taken down with nervous prostration and is in a precarious condition in his home in New York City. Harper has been on debating teams at Columbia since 1904 and has been a speaker on "Varsity teams for the past three years. He was the most experienced debater Columbia has had in the field, and his loss will be keenly felt.

Harper's place will be taken by Isaac Batchelor, '08, alternate. Batchelor Arkansas and prepared at Central.

"Bauer, born," Paul Z., BpokeB, "rcolregi. on the team that men send to..."

The basketball season will end Friday night, and already three of the teams, Ko, and Patricks, have joined the base ball squad and are preparing daily.

Pitcher Stockton will be in shape by tommorow, it is out of the hospital, and it is expected that he will be able to join the squad in a few weeks. He is one of the best pitchers in the nation, and when the time he was taken sick was looked up at the doctor's advice.

There are about thirty battery candidates for the freshman team. The rest of the players will not be formally booked until after the leaves on its Southern trip. This will have to be done before their first game. It is impossible to take care of such a large number in one day, and it would be impossible to take care of any candidates for the varsity squad in a week. It will be impossible to take care of all candidates for the varsity squad in a week. It will be impossible to take care of any candidates for the varsity squad in a week. It will be impossible to take care of any candidates for the varsity squad in a week.

News from Other Colleges.
E. H. Haliday, of Columbus, Ohio, has been elected captain of Princeton's basketball team for next year. He has played guard for two years and was substitute in that position in the freshman year.
The Cornell debating team that will meet Pennsylvania Friday is composed of H. G. Pinta, '97; R. E. Cowan, '97, class, H. J. Rozy, '97, leader, and E. C. Embly, alternate.
Syracuse is expecting to win the neighborhood again this year in all three events. She places a great deal of confidence in the Varsity eight, and considers that the freshmen boat will be the best on the river.
Dr. Henry Van Vechten has resigned from the faculty of Princeton University. He graduated from that institution in 1893, receding the same degree as D. D. from Princeton, Yale and Harvard.
His connection with the Princeton faculty covers a period of three years in Murray Professor of English Literature. Dr. Van Vechten is anxious to be free to carry on his literary work.

What is to be worn this season?

The above question is now frequently asked us, and in reply would say that fifteen minutes talks with us and no inspection of our stock (larger ever) will satisfy you in every detail.

As leaders in the College trade it is our business to keep thoroughly posted, and we certainly try, and judging from the business given us, we have made a notable success in our endeavors.
