DEBATE AGREEMENT RENEWED WITH CORNELL AND COLUMBIA

CONTRACT CALLS FOR THREE SETS OF ANNUAL CONTESTS.

As was foreshadowed in these columns last week in the triangular debate agreed to between Cornell and Columbia for the second time, the contract has been renewed for a second period of three years as a meeting place for debates in New York City on Thursday. Many of the provisions of the old contract have been retained without alteration; what changes have been made are all advantageous to Pennsylvania.

The contract calls for three sets of simultaneous debate, one meeting Columbia at home twice and Cornell once. On April 16, 1908, 1909, Pennsylvania will meet Cornell in Philadelphia and Columbia in New York. The old provision for having the home team support the affirmative of the proposition all over the country this season was dropped; the provision that the negative shall have the last speech in rebuttal in each case also was dropped.

The annual meeting of the League will be held on the Saturday next following the triangular debates. Loney E. Goodrich, '98 C, of Cornell, will be president for 1907-08, and Frank A. Paul, '98 C, is vice-president. The presidency will come to Pennsylvania for the following year.

One significant change is in the date of the annual contest. Instead of being held on November 1st, this agreement providing approximately five weeks earlier than the date of the old contract, much inconvenience has been occasioned by delay in the formulation of a new contract. This provision that the negative shall have the last speech in rebuttal in each case also was dropped.

The difficulty will be obviated, and it will be possible for each university to select its teams immediately before or after the Christmas holidays, which will allow the men more time for preparation. The debate itself will be held in work earlier than has been the custom heretofore. This arrangement made to avoid the Lehigh plan of sub-stitution will obviate the necessity for all such fault-finding that the men may seek to criticize the team before it is in existence. It will be possible for the men to become familiar with the constant intervention of the Committee, without all the aid of the Committee's habitus of serious contemplation, and the advantages of the Pennsylvania team. GRAND’S THE NEW YORK TOWN

"In New York Town," Hurley & Seamans new musical oddity, is the attraction fixed for the Grand Option House this week.

"In New York Town," as the title implies, is based and founded on happenings in the great metropolis served up in a musical and comedic vein solely for amusement purposes and as a leeway to introduce clever comedians and singers of note, also a bevy of handsome and stately show and chorus girls. All in all there are fifty members in the new musical oddity, and the scoring, scenic, stage and electrical effects are among the foremost that have ever been seen on any stage in recent years.

"In New York Town" is the joint effort of Willard Holohan and Loney Haskell, while the music was especially written by Tull Taylor and Cliff Meech, and comprises eighteen consecutive and distinct song hits.

"In New York Town" is not a hodgepodge by any means, but one of those well-crafted and up-to-date musical oddities that never fail to please even the most fastidious of audiences from the rise until the final fall of the curtain on the last act.

The matinees will be on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at the popular price of 25 cents throughout the entire house, every seat reserved.
