NEWS EDITOR FOR TODAY'S ISSUE: J. C. MALONEY.

It now appears that the Sophomore Class intends to withdraw from the annual Sophomore-Freshman track meet scheduled for next Tuesday, April 24th. They seem to find themselves unable to defeat the Freshmen and are already entitled to the Dean's trophy, having won the majority of athletic meets between the two classes. Although it is true that the Sophomore-Class have deserved the Dean's trophy up to the present time, and may yet get it even should they allow the track meet to go by default, nevertheless the 1909 class is showing a disgracefully unsportsmanlike spirit in declining to meet the Freshmen in the track games. The Dean's trophy is offered to stimulate athletic rivalry between the two classes, and even though it may be already won and an outright victory impossible for the winners, these are childlike reasons for offering for the canceling the meet. In the pole vault and high and broad jumping the Sophomores are unquestionably weak, but in the sprints and one or two other events they should be able to win points. The meet would not be altogether one-sided, and even if it were, the Sophomores should have enough broad-minded sportsmanship not to be afraid to take a defeat. We think it would be advisable for the Undergraduate Committee, if it has not already done so, to insist that the meet take place as scheduled or that the trophy be withheld, if this is possible.

Political and Social Science.

Many members of the University of Pennsylvania faculty will take part in the proceedings of the eleventh annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, beginning to-day and extending over to Saturday night. Tonight a reception will be tendered by the British Ambassador, the Right Honorable James Bryce, who serves as permanent honorary chairman of the annual meeting in Horticultural Hall.

The general topic for discussion is the "American Colonial Policy and Administration," and each of the four sessions will be devoted to a different phase of the subject.

This afternoon Professor James T. Young, director of the Wharton School, will preside, and under the topic heading of "Industrial and Financial Problems in the Dependencies of the United States," the following addresses will be delivered: introductory address, by the president; "Banking, Currency, and Finance in the Philippines," the Hon. Henry C. Ide, former Governor-General of the Philippine Islands; "The Agricultural Bank in the Philippines," Professor J. W. Banks, of Cornell University; "Railroads in the Philippines," Captain Frank McIntyre, Assistant Chief of the Bureau of Issuance Affairs, Washington, D. C.; "An Educational Policy for Spanish-American Civilization," the Hon. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Superintendent of Philadelphia Public Schools and former Commissioner of Education for Porto Rico.

The topic for the evening session is "American Colonial Policies." The Hon. Charles Emlen Smith, formerly Ambassador to Russia and Postmaster-General of the United States, will preside.

The addresses will be: introductory address of the presiding officer; "Some Difficulties in Colonial Government Envisaged by Great Britain and How They Have Been Met," the Right Hon. James Bryce, Ambassador from Great Britain to the United States; the annual address, "The Development of a Colonial Policy for the United States," by the Hon. Albert J. Beveridge, United States Senator from Indiana.

1907 Record Announcement.
At the meeting of the Record Committee Thursday night final preparations were made to send the copy to press this week. Practically all the art work has been completed, which promises to be a feature of this year's Record. The colored inserts are especially effective, and will be more numerous than ever before. On account of the Easter holidays the time in which subscriptions will be accepted has been extended until April 20th, but after that date the price of Records will be $2.50. Subscription cards may be secured from any member of the committee.

"What is to be worn this season?"
The above question is now frequently asked us, and in reply would say that fifteen minutes talk with us and an inspection of our stock (largest ever) will satisfy you in every detail.

As leaders in the College trade it is our business to keep thoroughly posted, and we certainly try, and judging from the business given us, we have made a notable success in our endeavors.
