ASSIGNMENTS OF VISITING RUNNERS PARTIALLY MADE

INDIVIDUALS TO WELCOME THE TEAMS IN THE RELAYS.

Mr. Ellis, Graduate Manager, Emphasizes Need of Concerted Action in Extending Hospitality.

Frank B. Ellis, Esq., graduate manager of the Relay Races, met the students at the mass meeting of the University of Pennsylvania at 9:30 o'clock last night. Assignments were given to different fraternities and sororities, and a large number of schools, and plans and suggestions were made for the weekly visits of the various fraternities to the University were made.

As a matter of importance the occasion, Mr. Ellis called attention to the fact that the relay games of the University of Pennsylvania are the largest games in the world to-day. There are approximately two hundred colleges and schools entered, represented by from 1,500 to 1,600 athletes. There are nearly forty events, whereas the English championship games consisted of five events, if the world's championships at the Paris Exposition.

Mr. Ellis laid emphasis on the need of concerted action in extending the hospitality of the University to the 1,500 visitors. He requested that all undergraduates who can help in meeting and entertaining the teams, showing them the University, and looking after them at the games, Tickets of admission will be furnished each volunteer member of the Reception Committee.

Manager Martin has placed the list of places to which the undergraduates are to make call, with the names and addresses of the various fraternities, in the Office of the Student Body. Tickets of admission are being provided to each member of the committee. It is expected that in his charge will be found and also the list of the fraternities entertaining schools.

The following colleges and schools are still unassigned. Any undergraduate who will take any one of these in his charge will please leave his name at the Athletic Association office.

The Mackenzie School (Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.), Newark High, Pottstown High, Perkiomen Seminary, Palmyra High, Perth Amboy (New Jersey), Pigeon Hill (High Penn.), Morton, Island City, Atlantic City, and the Mexican Institute have been assigned.

The practice consisted mainly in kicking and passing the ball, under the direction of William H. Torrance and Coach Brooks of Mount Holyoke. The practice was conducted for the benefit of the players who did not take part in the semi-final and end positions. Practice will continue for the next three weeks and will be held three times a week, probably on Monday, Tuesday and Friday.

Relay Smoker Committee.

There will be a meeting of the Arts and Science-Sharnton Joint Committee in charge of the relay smoker to-day in the trophy room at 1:15 o'clock. The following are asked to attend: Hummert, Pulweller, Bilba, Taut, MacFrynd, Hopkinson, Saw- ter, Johnson, Pulweller, H. F. Brown, Warden. Signed: H. W. Scarlett, chairman.

Deaver Surgical Society Officers.

"Supers" To Ben Greet.

Mr. Ben Greet will require twelve students, between 5 feet 10 inches and six feet tall, to assist in the supermanties in to-day's production of "Ham- let." These students will have to apply to register in Zolar Hall at 1:30 today.

Machter's Engagement of Ben Greet Will Open to-Day.

Repertoire of Elizabethan Dramas to be Produced.

This afternoon Mr. Ben Greet will open his production in Philadelphia, under the auspices of the Zelosophic Society, at the Academy of Music. Mr. Greet is now on his fifth American tour, after twenty years of connection with the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge. During his visits his company has performed with great success before all the leading universities of the country, and as such in the large cities. Everyone has been received with the greatest enthusiasm, for aside from the intrinsic factor of Shakespearean drama, Mr. Greet's performance is extremely valuable as an educational factor. His productions receive the endorsement of Dr. Horace Howard Furness, the eminent Shakespearean scholar, and of Professor Albert H. Smythe, of the Central High School, besides many of the leading educators of the country, all of whom unite in expressing the opinion that it should be a part of the education of every person interested in Shakespearean drama to see Mr. Greet play "Shakespeare's" plays as Shakespeare wrote them.

The performance this afternoon will be the first part of the "Tragicall History of Hamlet," Faustus, and "The Merry Wives of Windsor." The entire second quarter verse will be played, and owing to its great length it has been found neces- sary to give the play in two performances, one this afternoon and the other this evening at eight. To- day is the anniversary of Shakespeare's birth, and "Hamlet" is being put on as a special performance. This is the first time Mr. Greet has "produced" in Philadelphia.

Tomorrow night the company will play "Machter Against Nothing," one of Shakespeare's best comedies.

April 25th will mark the production of "Machter." On Friday night, April 26th, "The Merchant of Venice" will be played. There will be two performances on Saturday, the matinee, the famous eighteenth century morality play, "Everyman," being at 2:30, and the evening spectacle, "Julius Cesar," at eight. The seats are now on sale at Hopper's, 1115 Chestnut Street, ranging in price from fifty cents to two dollars, and reduced rates have been provided for the students, faculty and teachers.

The committee of the Zelosophic Society has the engagement in charge of the society, for success during the past few weeks. It is composed of J. A. Mason, '97 C, manager; G. C. Band- nell, '97 C, first assistant manager; J. L. Wolcott, '97 L, second assistant manager; J. E. Storer, '97 L, secre- tary, and J. Rosenbaum, '96 C, treasurer.

Free Admission to Endorsing Students and Instructors to reduced rates may be ob- tained by any one of members of this committee.

The Houston Club Elections. The Houston Club will be held this evening at the Athletic Association office.

VARSITY WON AT BASEBALL.

Win, Clean Game Before a Very Small Attendance—The Score was 3 to 2.

A very interesting game on Frank- lin Field yesterday afternoon resulted in the trophy room of the Houston Club the Chest Atlantic League team. Score, 3 to 2.

The game was poorly attended. Those there however were not disappointed in the game, although it was a slow one, taking two hours.

Twinsville pitched a very creditable game and split even with Waver on five strike outs. The infield support, even to Twinsville was extraordinarily good, the only error going to Henry Huard, Waver's shortstop.

Pompei was substituted in the ninth and secured two strike outs to his credit.

The next home game will be played against Steel on Tuesday, April 30th, with Ureus, at 3:30 o'clock.

Two-base hits—F. Howard, Grayfcell, S. Gann, W. Street. Three-base hit—Twitmire. Left on bases—Twitmire, 1; W. Street, 5; B. Second base—Twitmire. Left on bases—Twitmire, 1; W. Street, 5; B. Third base—Twitmire. Left on bases—Twitmire, 1; W. Street, 5; B.

Crew Practice. With a little over a weeks time remaining before the men go to the training table, the crew started out yesterday unchanged from the order followed for the last two weeks. The advent of warmer weather was wel- come, as it makes the practice considerably more agreeable.

It seems that there will be a very good list of entries for the Henley Regatta this year. All putting out crews of one kind or another. The American Henley boat will have to meet the Vesper boat and probably a crew from the Crecsent college the subject. "America in Licht der Geschichte." Professor Hoetzle is lecturing in this country under the auspices of the Germanic Society, which brought Dr. Ludwig Felix over last year. He has written on American history, and is an ele- gant lecturer.

There will be a banquet after the lecture, to which all are invited. The charge for the banquet is $1 per plate.

Freshman Executive Committee.

This year's half has been brought to a close by the 1910 Executive Committee at 11:15 today in the trophy room of the Houston Club. Signed: J. M. Lucas, chairman.

Lyric—"The Snow Man."
"The Snow Man" is in its small week at the Lyric Theatre. Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday. The Menus, Shubert have staged and dressed this production in a way that pleased many of their previous elaborate efforts. The play is laid in Flanders and the scene painter has laid carte blanche. The result is a background with all the poetry and charm of the seventeenth century, funny little sugar-bosomed houses, a hall that looks like a garden, and a garden that has a well with hot water in it. The story is woven about four lines of legend, in which it is prophesied that an entirely full of snow means danger ahead.

Some of the useful efforts are: "I Want You for My All Time Girl." "My Lady Fair," and "Love on a Summer's Day," composed in Reznikeld de Koren's happiest mood.

An excellent company, consisting of over seventy people, has been engaged for this production. There are nearly forty female voices in the chorus and sixteen male voices.
