PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 1907

Vestaville Show, Gymnasium.
A vaudeville show by undergradu ate men will be given in the gymnasium on Monday, May 6th. This new event will be called "Pennsylvania Nights," and it is the purpose of the committee in charge to have it become a regular annual feature. The money accrued in performance is to secure money to make the affair a success. The entire fund will be used to support the Athletic Association and of the Combined Societies.

The program is planned to make the affair a veri able Pennsylvania night, and will re quire the presence of a large number of Pennsylvania's representative men to properly entertain the visitors. The Blg Club, including the Sun set Quartet, will be present to lead in the general singing of college songs. Mr.
Mason will bring the Varsity crew team and some writers, and some of the "Yarsity captains will speak.

Thomas B. Donaldson, the old Mask and Wig star, will be asked to add features to the evening.

The refreshments, which have been served in the basement in the past, will probably be served this year in the evening.

1908 College Officers.
On Friday, April 26, there will be an important meeting of the Junior Class in Room 205, College Hall, at 1:15. The first ballot will be cast for Senior president and nominations for other officers will take place. Other important business will be transacted, and all Juniors are requested to be present.
Signed: Ralph J. Waite, president.

"Much Ado About Nothing.
Mr. Greer's company played "Much Ado About Nothing.", in the programed house last night, and won for itself and applause. Mr. Greer's alter neration of Benedick in particular with unanimous approbation.

The company will play "Harlech," at the Academy of Music to-night.

No May Day Medals.
Following the example of the soph omores on the varsity, the Freshman Execut ive committee has decided not to appropriate twenty-five dollars for May Day med als. Those medals are to be purchased by the Athletic Association last year.

Frosamore Dance.
All freshmen who want to try for the May Day Sports will please report today in Houston Club trophy room.
Signed: H. K. Parsons, chairman.
