ANNUAL RELAY RACES WILL BE HELD TO-MORROW AFTERNOON

MANY BIG COLLEGE TEAMS WILL ARRIVE IN THE CITY TODAY.

Visiting Athletes Will Be Taken Care of by Pennsylvania's Fraternities. Many Entertainments Arranged.

Pennsylvania's Relay Races promise to bring out the biggest crowd ever to be seen at Franklin Field for track and field sports. The advance sale indication thus far points to the fact that many fans of the visiting teams, as well as Penn fans, expect to be present.

Delegations are coming from New York, Baltimore, Chicago, Boston, and especially from those famous rival teams, while students from Cornell, Columbia, Yale, Princeton, Michigan and scores of other schools and colleges are on hand today. What men will do in their relays. Fortunately Franklin Field has a large seating capacity, so that all should be accommodated.

Big Final Will Reach Philadelphia by the score today. Michigan and Chicago will probably get in early as they are in the for it, and will be up on Franklin Field this afternoon. The results of tonight's meet will be announced.

Late today, Lafayettes have announced the program for their diamond jubilee celebration, June 16th to 20th. Governors Stuart, of Pennsylvania, and Hughes, of New York, are expected to attend and make addresses.

College baseball: Wesleyan, 3; Princeton, 0; Lafayette, 7; Dickinson, 6; Army, 0; Yale, 4; Villa Nova, 4; Gettysburg, 1; Navy, 4; George, 3; Holy Cross, 11; Williams, 8; Cornell, 0; Columbia, 3.

The number thirteen remained victorious over the Wesleyan baseball team last night when the Varsity won by a score of 3 to 2.

According to the latest registration statistics of the Wesleyan, Minnesota now has an enrollment of 4,126.

The Princeton baseball team for the University are reporting in track suits for spring practice. The squad now numbers eleven men.

Cornell started her training table yesterday with eight members of the Varsity track squad.

The interfraternity baseball league at Minnesota is now well under way, and several games have already been played.

Thirty men at Harvard reported for the first practice of the second baseball team on Tuesday.

The Princeton baseball team started on its New York and trip last night and will return Saturday evening.

The annual production of the P'90 drama club of Pennsylvania now has an enrollment of 1,412.

President Wilson, of Princeton, K, Wilson, has presented several new members to the Varsity track squad.

The interfraternity baseball league at Minnesota is now well under way, and several games have already been played.

URSINUS BASEBALL TEAM DEFEATED BY PENNSYLVANIA

THE SCORE ENDS 13 TO 5 AFTER A WELL PLAYED MATCH.

Varisty Showed Good Judgment and Heady Base Running, Batting Well and Bunching Their Hits.

Pennsylvania won from Ursinus yesterday afternoon on Franklin Field by a score of 13 to 5.

The "Varsity" gave one of the best exhibitions of good, heady baseball playing that has been seen on the Franklin Field this season. The team's hits nearly made the game a tie but when the defense showed the best of judgment, Collier, who pitched the game for Pennsylvania, struck out eleven men. He was. a little weakened in the ninth inning, when the visitors made a two-base hit and a home run hit of it. Paltz, who pitched for Ursinus, weakened materially in the seventh and last eighth innings. He did a creditable job, however, to be the star of the game by getting a two-base hit in the first inning and a home run in the ninth.

Captains Judi, while making one hit, did good work fielding and making a most sensational catch in the third inning.

Chess Exhibition.

Mr. Herman G. Voigt will give an exhibition of simultaneous chess play in the Houston Club at eighteen o'clock this evening. He will play against fifteen boards against members of the University Chess and Checkers Club, and will be the guest of honor of Mr. G. Henry Smythe, Jr., president of the club.

Now that we are to have a new pathway across the campus toward the gymnasium it will be advisable for undergraduates to see it instead of continuing to spoil the grass in devious directions. The pathway has been much in demand, and we greatly appreciate the fact that the suggestion to make it has been followed, but it will scarcely serve the purpose for which it was needed unless everybody adds his share to preserve the good looks of the campus.

The smoker to be held tomorrow night in the Houston Club to entertain the visitors who will participate in the riding and track games in the afternoon can only be made a success by a large attendance of Pennsylvania men. The Arts and Science Association, the Wharton Association, and the track management are organizing a big undertaking in providing for and entertaining such a large number of men, and all others should do their part toward supporting the prime movers of it. It is especially desired that fraternity men, athletes, and all other representative Pennsylvanians, attend the smoker. It will not be fair to our guests or to the University to permit the committees to entertain without any help.

Instead of twelve hundred men taking part in the gymnasium exhibition of Wednesday, there were not more than two hundred and fifty. Thse who did take part included many of the best men in the University—best because they never hesitate to throw themselves enthusiastically into any enterprise that is for the good of the University; best because they are influential and popular men in college.

The exhibition was a proof of the greatest that has ever been done at Pennsylvania for the cause of physical perfection. Why is it that so few out of a class of twelve hundred choose to take part in it? If there are men so bashful that they are ashamed to show their physical perfections before a large crowd, they deserve some kind of banana that will enable them of this quality in the future. We hope there will be a manifestly right for places in the next outdoor athletic exhibition.

Chestnut Street Opera House. Philadelphia has evidently gone vaudeville mad. The brilliant inaugural of Klaw & Erlanger's "advanced vaudeville" on Monday was a red letter day in the annals of local announcements, and the crowds that poured into the matinee and lined up literally for blocks, for the evening performance, showed that in the announced policy of "every act a headliner," Messrs. Klaw & Erlanger has caught the popular taste with a whirlwind of success.

Mr. A. L. Erlanger, the practical head of this new circuit, has promised something a trifle better than the routine variety programmes with which Philadelphia is familiar, and to thoroughly convert this intention the significant term, "advanced" preceded "vaudeville" in all the early announcements. In would be hard to determine which of all the headliners deserved the distinction of first place. The announcements placed the Four Mortons at the top, and those popular comedians and singers were enthusiastically received. They have been starring this year in "Breaking Into Society," and their appearance here is said to be their only one in vaudeville. After the overture the first novelty presented was "Jewell's Minikins," a miniature stage performance, which is new to Philadelphia; a fact which is true of nearly every number presented. A hippodrome novelty, which was wildly applauded, was Kuhl's Educational Elephants, which present, without doubt, the finest example of animal training that has seen on a local stage. From the Circus Busch, Vienna, came the famous Eloquent Troupe in an acrobatic exhibition of wonderful skill. A local favorite, who was one of the big hits of the bill, was Miss Emma Cams, whose songs will be whitened everywhere this week. Others who contributed comedy and novelty were the Empire City Quartet, Staley's European Transformation, Greene & Werner, Edward Bloodell & Co., and new dramatic pictures.

It is advisable to secure seats as early as possible in advance, and mail orders will receive immediate attention.
