Two men from small colleges get into college! End preparatory expenses Moderate and Opportunities outdoor pleasures.

mornings are given over to conferences, on religious subjects. Swimming in the Conference is conducted and a track meet held, open to all. The men are strong and wholesome. The following twenty years men from all the big universities to one and from a small college go together in a normal, enjoyable, fashion and talk over the things needed to make life endurable.

Each day is divided into periods for study and conferences, for athletics, and for social entertainment. The mornings are given up to conferences, Bible and religion study groups, the afternoons to athletics. Baseball between teams from each college decides the conference championship. A tennis tournament is conducted and a track meet held, open to all. Delegation in the Conference and track meets to all delegations. The men in their nightshirts will form in the triangle and march to Franklin Field led by Hunter Scarlett, the May Day King. After the sports the men will return to the old Athletic Field, where the Freshmen will have a large bonfire ready. There has been a band engaged to accompany the teams to and from the field.

The sports consist of boxing, wrestling and a tug of war. The weight for the different events will be at random.

The Sophomore entries are as follows:

Freshman entries—Boxing: Heavyweight, Robbert; middleweight, Hagenbuch; lightweight, Ginger. Wrestlers: Heavies, Summers or Bradlock; middleweight, Brown or Cusler; Tug of war: Smith, Crooks, Macklin, Bratlock; middleweight, Miller; lightweights, Bowman, Auger, Bevington, Goodwin.

Vaudeville Night. Tickets are selling rapidly for the first "vaudeville night" that Pennsylvania has had. Weightman Hall will be a miniature theatre on Monday night, May 6th, when "old favorites" from "Her Lodefinger" and other well-known Mask and Wig scenes and an undergraduate "talent" will contribute to the vaudeville program. Tickets are on sale at the Houston Club, Price, one dollar.

Freshman Baseball To-Day.

At a meeting of freshmen interested in cricket in held in the trophy room yesterday, a trial meet was decided upon. Several in the near future. Full particulars of this meet will be published in to-morrow's Pennsylvanian.

Freshmen Tied In Track Meet With Prepar. Schools.

The freshmen made a total of 24 points in their track meet yesterday. Their opponents, the preparatory school boys, made the same score. Central High School came second with 21 points. The other schools represented were Northeast, Central Manual Training School, Drexel Institute and Temple Preparatory School.

First-year men strong in dashes. Good in Field Events—Boyte, Quigley, Harttart, Parker, Hunter and MacDonald won First Place.

AMBASSADOR TOWER TO SPEAK

Diplomatist, Author and Scholar Will Address Wharton Association

Charlemagne Tower, present United States Ambassador to Germany, will speak before the Wharton Association to-morrow at 12:15. No subject has been assigned him nor has he announced any. Mr. Tower was born in Philadelphia. After going through college he went abroad, studying history, foreign languages and literature. Returning to Philadelphia he studied law, and was admitted to the bar. A few years of his life were spent in Duhlt, Misn, where he was interested in iron mining. Again he returned to Philadelphia and became an officer and director in several corporations. In a very few years thereafter he gave up his business, devoting his time to study, mostly historical.

Since 1877 he has been the United States Minister to Austria-Hungary, Ambassador to Russia, and Ambassador to Germany, which post he now holds.

Mr. Tower is much interested in the University, having been at one time a trustee.

Joseph Wharton will preside at the meeting to-morrow.

MAY DAY SPORTS THIS EVENING Nightshirt Brigade Will Form at 7:45 and March to Franklin Field.

The May Day Sports—first college in the United States to commemorate Admiral Dewey's victory over the Spanish in Manila in 1898—will be held to night, at 8:30 o'clock, on Franklin Field.

Mr. Tower will be the men in their nightshirts will form in the triangle and will march to Franklin Field led by Hunter Scarlett, the May Day King. After the sports the men will return to the old Athletic Field, where the Freshmen will have a large bonfire ready. A band has been engaged to accompany the teams to and from the field.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

During the year 1906-6, the University of Pennsylvania will have another chance to show their spirit of rivalry in the May Day Sports, to be held tonight on Franklin Field. This year the sports were held on the Athletic Field and were open to the public view. To confine the festivities to Franklin Field and to charge a nominal admission fee were wise moves, since the presence of a large number of outsiders made the May Day Sports a public spectacle rather than a strictly undergraduate jollification, as such an affair should be.
