The Mask and Wig Club Elects Undergraduate Members

EIGHT OF THIS YEAR'S PLAY RECEIVED COVETED HONOR.

Several Other Freshmen of the Cast and Chorus of "Herr Lohengrin" Are To Be Electcd in October.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Government of the Mask and Wig the following students were elected undergraduate members: J. F. Brcnnach, 09, M. F. E. Macrill, 07 C. M. S. Pottit, 09 H. R. Haycs, 08 C. W. N. Kiepler, 09 C. W. G. S., 09 C. W. R. Weiss, 08 C. W. S. J. Hickson, 08 C. E.

Election to undergraduate membership the Mask and Wig Chiovmen means that men so elected are members of the club only while they remain bona fide undergraduates of the University. They may or may not be elected graduate (permanent) members after they have left the University or their courses have been granted. Full membership privileges are en- joyed, however, by undergraduates.

It is customary for the club to elect in the spring and fall. The above- men were mentioned in the program and chorus of "Herr Lohengrin, " and the honor accorded them is in recogni- tion of their spirit and willingness shown in making the production a success. The more that a man has proved himself a capable actor, singer or dancer has never insured him election to membership in the past and undoubtedly will not in the future.

As for the elections, they are really contingent upon whether or not those eight undergraduates return to Pen- sylvania next year; that is, the Uni- verse year ends in June and takes about a month until commencement. The man elected in May can enjoy club privileges for so short a time, and election is made contingent upon his returning in October of this year.

There were many promising men in the cast and chorus of "Herr Lohengrin" who were not considered at the recent election because they are taking their first year at Penns- ylvania and will be held until June 7th.

Cornell triumphed over Harvard last Saturday, winning by three-quarters of a length.

Leblanc has announced football schedule. There will be no game with Pennsylvania next year.

Nearly two hundred men are entered in the tennis tournaments which are now being held at Cornell.

Cornell and Columbia broke even in the tennis tournament held May 11th, each team winning two matches in the singles and one in the doubles.

In the recent dual track meet between Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Brown University, the latter won by a score of 62:20 to 27:12.

"Chick" Kiefer, the famous sprinter of Cornell, has injured a tendon in his leg and will be unable to run against this season. This fact may cause Cornell to lose several points in the intercollegiate Races.

To-Morrow's Chapel Speaker.

Rev. Robert G. Berlye, Director of the Daily Vacation Schools of the Federation of Churches of New York City, will speak in Chapel to-morrow morning on the work that is being done in these schools by college men. Dr. Berlye is anxious to secure the services of half a dozen Pennsylvania students in connection with similar work to be inaugurated in Philadelphia during the coming summer. All who are interested in this work are invited to hear the address.

Examination Time!
In a few days we will jump from cool spring days into hot weather. In a few weeks examination times will be here. Do you realize how much easier it would be to prepare for your exams if you had an ELECTRIC FAN in your study? You could keep cool and comfortable, you could pass better examinations, and the cost would be far less than employing a tutor. Fans of all sizes at different prices.

Lyric—"The Music Master"
At the Lyric David Warfield is presenting for a short engagement of two weeks "The Music Master," the tender drama of smiles and tears. Philadelphia theatregoers laughed and cried with "The Music Master" last Sunday, when Mr. Warfield gave the first performance here of the part of the German musician.

"The Music Master" is a comedy drama. It is in three acts and the setting and characters are of to-day. The action occurs in New York, two acts showing humble lodgings in New York's East Side, the other act disclosing life in a drawing room of a German musician. The drama takes its interest from the central character, Herr Anton von Barwig, an Old German musician.

Camera Club Excursions.
The Camera Club will take a photographic excursion along Wissahickon Creek on Friday afternoon. All members and others desiring to take this trip will meet the 2:16 train at West Philadelphia Station for Chestnut Hill.

If you want to make money this summer

We have a proposition by which a good man can, in three months, make more than enough to defray his college expenses for the next year.

There is no outfit to buy and no cathechism which you have to learn. All you need is your own gray matter and a little help from us from time to time.

If you will write us, we will gladly explain how we propose to make your next college year free from financial worry.
