VETS IN THEIR NEW BUILDING

Not Yet Officially Opened, but First Clincia Held There Yesterday

The opening of the new building of the Veterinary Department of the University is not wholly completed and the formal opening will not take place until Monday. It is in working condition, and yesterday morning the faculty and some state board members held their clinic of the full term within its walls.

The new building is situated at Thirty-eighth street and Woodland avenue. It contains the dormitories and will be the finest and best equipped building devoted to veterinary science in the world. The under-graduates will have the advantage of having the State Veterinary Department located in the building.

Dr. Ames graduates today, and his death is a great loss to the University. The University has been fortunate in having a man of his abilities and integrity on its faculty.

CRICKET TEAM IS REWARDED

VARSITY PLAYS VILLA NOVA ON FRANKLIN FIELD TO-DAY

EASY VICTORY FOR PENN IS EXPECTED TO RESULT.

Dwyer and Hollebuck Valuable Additions to the Team's Strength.

Regan to Play at Quarterback.

The varsity physics Villa Nova this afternoon on Franklin Field. The game promises to be very close, as the Villa Nova team is unusually strong this year, having had the Indians down to ten points last Saturday. Regan will start the game at quarterback, and it is likely that several substitutes, especially in the back field, will be given a chance to show what they can do.

Yesterday afternoon the 'Varsity was put through a hard practice with excellent results. Several times the scrum was given the ball on the 'Varsity's ten-yard line, and after repeated attempts, was practically unearable. The work of Hollebuck and Dwyer, who were both out yesterday, increased confidence in the team's work, and a big victory over Villa Nova is expected for this afternoon.

The Penn cricketers took the three or four matches in hand on Franklin Field with ease and the American Universities' Championship is in sight.

The directors decided that no program would be printed for any of the games except that with Cornell, and gave permission to "Old Pensa" and "The PENNSYLVANIAN" to sell their publications on Franklin Field under the direction of the teams.

Freshman that this is so. They should also impress upon Freshmen not the importance of working for one of the undergraduate publications. There are many men in the Pennsylvania Class who are keenly interested in newspaper work and may some day make that their profession. There is no better training while in college than can be obtained in THE PENNSYLVANIAN. for, in addition to the practical work done for this paper, each candidate will receive the benefit of criticism from a newspaper man of varied experience. Dr. Wenzel, whose newspaper writing course will be a valuable help to those who intend to study newspaper methods, has had practical experience, and will give the members of the class the benefit of it. From a selfish point of view work on the paper will do you good. Many alumni now in newspaper work have received their earliest training on this paper, and if you want to make a beginning, now is the time.

This year's Freshmen will not be eligible for the paper next year, as it is advisable for them to realize at once what they intend to do. Upper classmen are asked to take their influence to induce future yearmen to report here for work.

Smoker to Wharton Freshmen. The Wharton School Students' Association will give an informal reception and smoker to all first-year Wharton students at eight o'clock tonight in the smoking room of Room Hall. There will be informal talks by Maxi Murphey, "Bob" Pal ves, Thomas R. Donaldson and other University men prominent in athletics and other college activities. This, together with music by the Glee Club and sketches by members of the Mask and Wig Club, will provide the evening's entertainment. All first-year Wharton men are cordially invited to attend. Signed: Norman T. Moore, chairman.

Mandolin Club Rehearsal. At the regular fall meeting of the board of managers of the Mandolin Club, held late yesterday afternoon, all definite discussion as to the acceptance of Miss Jeanes' bouquet was postponed to a future date. A committee, composed of Joseph Wharton, Charles F. Jenkins and David Cooper Johnson, was appointed to look into the details of the legacy and report to the board in an advisory capacity.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1907.

Today's game with Villa Nova will probably contain more than the interest which this non-conference contest, due to the fact that this mine team was able to score on the University eleven last year. Villa Nova usually has a fast and rather heavy team, and so small an invitation, and a victory will not be an entire wallop.

Although it does a good deal to win the class honors to the point of action, yet so would again suggest that the work of organizing and stirring up no enthusiasm for the winning and losing is begun in one. There is no reason why there should not be very good practice in both afternoon football practice on Franklin Field. Although Pennsylvania cheering and singing is famous, it is not so good that it cannot be improved. It is never too early to in instill the right kind of spirit into the Freshmen, and nothing can do this as effectively as hearty singing and cheering. We wish the cheer leaders the best of success in their efforts this fall.

Candidates for this paper have not yet reported in sufficient numbers, and so believe it is necessary for the sake of a branch of a University activity to be partly due to the apathy of the upper classmen. While there is plenty of enthusiasm at Pennsylvania for Freshmen to come out and work hard to make an athletic team, there is apparently an insufficiency to fill non-athletic hole in the part of those who should properly guide the Freshmen.

While work for the college newspaper is held in the very highest esteem at other universities, here for some reason or other it does not seem to be greatly valued, and men who do the work receive no honor other than that felt in their conscience, namely, the satisfaction that they are doing what they can in their own way for Pennsylvania.

But this is the highest reward that any man can get, and although there is absolutely no financial emolument in working for this paper, there is for every one who does his work conscientiously the satisfaction that he is doing as much as in his University as a member of the football team.

It is every undergraduate's duty to accomplish something for his University, to do something unselfishly. Upper classmen who have a true sense of their obligations will tell any
