CALL FOR TRACK CANDIDATES

Candidates for the Varsity and Freshman Teams to report on Monday.

Captain N. C. Carmiell and Manager Joseph H. Cockrum, of the track team, have issued a call for candidates for both Varsity and Freshman teams to report at Franklin Field on Monday, October 7th, at four o'clock.

All men, and especially Freshmen, in the University with any ability for track work should report without fail on Monday. Not much is expected to be accomplished with the new material this fall, but the idea is to get the men in shape to do their best next spring.

Captain Lloyd P. Jones, of the cross-country team, has also issued a call for candidates. There is no better work to get in good condition for spring than cross-country running, and the call should be responded to by all men with any track ability.

The full handicaps will be held sometimes the first month, and every track man should be getting into condition. The date of the handicap races will be announced in the PENNSYLVANIAN later.

STIFF SIGNAL PRACTICE AND SCRIMMAGE FOR THE VARSITY

PAUSTY AND MILLER SUSTAIN SLEIGHT INJURIES IN PLAY.

The Varsity was put through a stiff, though yesterday afternoon in the large part of the afternoon's work consisted ofish and pitching, and of stick work. After this the Varsity lined up against the crew and about an hour's hand-to-hand work. Captain Polwed held during part of the scrimmage with the coaching and Macklin filled his place at left. Fauzy was used at quarter until near the end of the practice when he stretched his knee slightly and his absence was felt seriously hurt, and will probably be able to report for practice to-day.

The Varsity used the forward pass many times during the practice. They were not very successful with the long plays, but the hand-to-hand needs a great deal of drilling in handling the forward pass. The line-ups were as follows:

H. B. REGISTER WINS AT TENNIS

Captures Second Round of Singles in Tournament Held at Haverford.

The Varsity tennis team had its second match of the season yesterday afternoon at Haverford. The survivors from Wednesday's contests in the singles numbered fourteen, of which Pennsylvania and Harvard had each four. The singles were continued tomorrow and a start made in the doubles.

Harvard appeared to have the call for the final honors in the singles, so the Varsity players will have different opponents tomorrow afternoon.

For the upper bracket in this second Misses' championship, it is the favorite, although to reach it he will have to beat Gordon, of Proutton, and Tilton, of Pennsylvania. The matches concerning the 'Varsity tennis team scheduled for yesterday.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

Friday, October 4, 1907.

We take pleasure in announcing the election of E. B. Rohnette, '06 C., as associate managing editor. Mr. Rohnette will enter upon his duties at once.

A representative of this paper has been authorised to call upon the clubs at the University to secure their agreement to pay a special subscription for the year and the price, were 80°°c., as a student managing editor. Mr. Rohnette will enter upon his duties at once.

The reason for this plan is obvious. The arrangement will prevent the loss of money always wasted when twenty-five men, more or less, read the same copy of the paper, and will at the same time provide every club house with a convenient number of papers. We do not believe that any will doubt the wisdom of such an arrangement or fail to adhere to it at once.

We would be very much pleased, and we would the more, the Junior and Sophomore Classes adopt the "hours of election" in their full election. The scheme was employed last year by the Senior Class and proved to be highly successful in eliminating objectionable elements in election. Although the Juniors may not be in as much danger of a frontal political campaign, it would do well to keep up the precedent set by the Senior Class and prove to help establish the method as a Pennsylvania custom. We are convinced that the movement would be wise and beneficial. It would be well for the undergraduate committee to use their influence with the Juniors and Sophomores to this desirable end.
