SMOKER TO ENTERING CLASS OF EVENING SCHOOL TO-NIGHT

NEW MEN TO BE GUESTS OF THE WHARTON ASSOCIATION.

Addresses by Provost Harrlan; Vice-Provost Smith and Dean Pemberton—Musical Clubs to assist.

The third annual smoker and reception of Evening School of Accounts and Finance, tendered by the second and third classes to the entering class, will be held in Houston Hall at eight o'clock this evening.

The Wharton Evening School Association, under whose auspices the entertainment will take place, has arranged an entertaining program, which includes addresses by Provost Harrlan; Vice-Provost Smith, Dr. Penniman, Dean of the college, and Dr. Edward S. Meade, Director of the Evening School. Dr. Smith's address will consist of his popular "Picture Book Talk." Music will be furnished by the Combined Musical Clubs of the University.

The Evening School is growing rapidly and has reached the four hundred mark, which is within eight men of the regular college school registration for the year.
