The Yauniversity football team reported for practice today in a brisk condition. Swearndorf put up a pretty hard fight, and as it was the first game of the season, all the boys felt the effects of it.

Miller's practice consisted chiefly in a stiff signal drill and the customary kicking and forward pass play. It was found that the line men who are trying for line positions were given a hard drill in charging and showed much improved performance at the end of the work. The Varsity back field with the scrub back field have the "Varsity Line, one half of twenty minutes was used.

The game with Gettysburg next Wednesday is not expected to be as hard as usual, since they miss one or two stars from the 1906 line up.

The Intercollegiate cross-country run will be held at Franklin Field. The object of the race is to try a substitute for a good wall fight, for the year's honors. The College crews are U. of P., Yale, Princeton, Harvard, Cornell, Columbia and Williams.

The varsity football team will visit Chestnut Hill. The first regular meeting of the Iowa Club will be held in Room 245, Provost Smith House, Wednesday, December 14th, at 7:30. All Iowa men are to be sure to come, especially the freshmen. Signed: George P. Higge, '90, president.
New football songs are always desirable at this time of the year and there is surely lyrical genius in the University to warrant the publication of several each year. We have therefore decided to offer as a prize for every song submitted to us for the football season one new subscription to THE PENNSYLVANIAN provided that the song is considered good enough for publication. The music need not be original, but the words of the new songs may be sung to the tune of some popular song. The combination of music and words, however, will be considered in judging the competition.

The songs submitted will be published in the paper if they are good enough to warrant publication, and in that case the writer will be granted one free subscription to the paper. We withhold the right, however, not to publish any song we do not consider good enough.

We hope that we will have a large number of songs submitted to us, for out of many there are sure to be several good ones. In addition to publication in the paper these songs may have the additional distinction of being sung at the football games. It is desired that there should be several new songs, so it is to be hoped that all who are able to construct them will do so at once and send us in the result of their labor.

COMMUNICATION.

Editor of THE PENNSYLVANIAN.

Dear Sir:—In a previous issue of THE PENNSYLVANIAN the regular yearly call for ushers for the football games at Franklin Field was made in which certain requirements were announced in regard to signing the roll kept in the Athletic Association office. At the request of the secretary and treasurer of the Athletic Association I wish to state just what the duties are:

Football ushering is not a new institution at Pennsylvania, but the building of Franklin Field and the playing there of the Army and Navy game, in addition to the games on the University schedule, has made it a necessary one for the handling of the crowds that witness these contests.

Just as the corner street must match each Pennsylvania team better than the last, so the management strives each year to look after the comfort and enjoyment of the crowds that support the team.

A change has been made in having student marshals in place of city police in the aisles in front of the stands. These marshals are to see that the aisles are kept free from congestion before the game and as well as during the intermission between the halves. They also have authority to eject any drunken or undesirable characters.

These marshals are placed in the stands generally five to a section. One usher stands at the entrance to each section, to see that the people get into the proper sections, while the others have five rows of seats to take care of.

The men are appointed as marshals or ushers according to their fitness for the work, and receive badges entitling them to admission to all the games. The number of marshals and ushers is increased with each game and the men are placed according to the number of times they attend and the character of their work. Notices are posted throughout the University of the time to report for each game.

Thus the handling of the crowds this year depends on the students. It is up to us to see that this department is well administered.

J. M. THEOBALD, '98 L.,
Head Usher.

4,157 REGISTER AT U. OF P. UP TO OCTOBER FOURTEENTH

Biology, 13 in Chemistry, 21 in Chemical Engineering, 36 in Civil Engineering, 44 in Mechanical and Electrical Engineering, and 103 in the Wharton School.

Increased registration in Freshman is most noticeable, which shows a gain of 24 per cent.; Mechanical and Electrical Engineering, with a gain of 23 per cent., and Wharton School, notting a 28 per cent. increase.

The growth of the University during the past few years is clearly demonstrated by a reference to the catalogue of 1902-1903. At that time there were 2,578 students at Penn, and the increasing five years has been an increase of nearly three-fifths in the total registration. There were 1,113 men taking work in all departments of the College, while today 1,857 are registered, exclusive of the evening School of Accounts and the Summer School. This means an increase of 66 per cent. in five years, covering the same courses.

Garrick—"The Christian Pilgrim.
"The Christian Pilgrim," in which Henryvo Croome is universally conceded to have achieved the most notable triumph in a career rich with successes, last week tax ed the capacity of the Garrick Theatre, for the public has ranked this version of John Bunyan's immortal "Pilgrim's Progress" with "Paradise" and "Everyman."

"The Christian Pilgrim" is equally notable when judged melodically, dramatically and scenically. It possesses the qualities that will make it last. For James MacArthur has succeeded in transferring to the stage all the stateliness and beautifully dynamic force of Bunyan's allegory. It will appeal to all theatregoers, for everyone will find impressive, absorbing and intensely interesting emotional drama in Mr. MacArthur's stage version, which is finely heightened in its mood and in its sense that is certain to move William Penn to obtain a position among America's foremost com- posers. The "Christian Pilgrim" shows the journey of Christ in the City of Destruction through the Valley of Tophet, through the Wicket Gate to the House Beautiful, thence to the Valley of the Shadow of Death, to Bo-Peth Meadows, Dancing Castle, the Valley of the Waters, the River of Death and the Celestial City, all of these scenes being masterpieces of the scene painters, the costuming, the scenery and the stage management's act, for no production in recent years has been so beautifully staged, being as near perfection as modern theatrical art can reach. It may be safely said that Miss Croome never did better work as her career moves. Her Christian is truly noteworthy for artistry. Tract, Powers, Addison Pitt, W. V. Carleton and Bertha Harmon are notable assistants in her support.

Walnut—"The Girl Rangers."
"The Girl Rangers" entered its second week at the Walnut Street Theatre last evening. The show has proven itself a big animated entertainment, full of jovial episodes, fancy dress and lively musical numbers. It possesses half a dozen distinct features, among them a large chorus, part of which is mounted on horseback; an exciting race between an automobile and a railway train; wonderful exhibition by a Western minstrel troupe, who account for some of the most successful feats such as the human torch, the couple of dancing horses, and a woman who was supposed to be a reading machine but who read her pages as she read her notes as she read and as she read. The show also works into an entertainment that also has much substantial elements as a good story, crisp dialogue and dainty music. It is full of the atmosphere of the romantic West and of a wholesome tone. The costumes are the picturesque part of the Western plains.
