HOUSTON CLUB RECEPTION TO NEW MEN THIS EVENING

AN ANNUAL EVENT AND SHOULD BE HIGHLY ENTERTAINING.

Dr. Edgar F. Smith, "Mike" Murphy, Coach Torrey and "Tommy" Donahue, on the List of Speakers.

As interestedly interesting an event is promised for the benefit of those who attend the annual Houston Club reception and smoker to new men which will be held this evening. Some years ago the officials of the club conceived the idea of introducing new men and students in all departments, to be held each October. The new departments have been visited in the past and success was promised by the students clubs at several other universities.

William J. Roode, '88 L, of the Thirty-Two Football team, the principal of the club, will call the students to order in the auditorium about 8.30 p.m. and then proceed to the studio to introduce the speakers. Vice-Principal Smith will be the chairman of the meeting.

Several of the regular members of the club stand to address the students. The evening will be devoted to a review of the results of the various departments of the University, with especial emphasis on the work of the Men's Wits and Wigs Club. Mr. Donahue will explain in detail the work of the three and Wiw Club and the various activities in which the club is interested.

The following informally addressed to the students:

W. S. Terrett, '09 C, President of the Men's Wits and Wigs Club:

"To all those who will attend the reception tonight, I am happy to announce that we shall have the pleasure of addressing you this evening. We have been working hard and have been very successful in our work. We shall be glad to see you all and to tell you about our organization and activities.

"We have been working hard to improve the work of the Men's Wits and Wigs Club. We have been holding meetings, lectures, and other activities to keep the students informed of the latest developments in the University. We have been very successful in our work and have been able to attract a large number of students to our meetings.

"We shall be glad to see you all this evening and to tell you about our organization and activities. We shall be glad to answer any questions which you may have about our work.

"I am sure that you will be interested in our work and that you will be glad to support us in our work. We shall be glad to see you all this evening and to tell you about our organization and activities.

"I am sure that you will be interested in our work and that you will be glad to support us in our work. We shall be glad to see you all this evening and to tell you about our organization and activities."

At the reception, the members of the club will be present and the students will be able to meet them and discuss their work.

The reception will be held in the auditorium at 8.30 p.m. on Friday, October 25th. The students will be seated in the auditorium and the speakers will take the stage.

The program will consist of speeches, songs, and other entertainment. The members of the club will be present to answer any questions which the students may have about their work. The students will be able to meet the members of the club and discuss their work.

The reception will be open to all students and will be an excellent opportunity for them to meet the members of the club and learn about their work.

I am sure that you will be interested in our work and that you will be glad to support us in our work. We shall be glad to see you all this evening and to tell you about our organization and activities.

I am sure that you will be interested in our work and that you will be glad to support us in our work. We shall be glad to see you all this evening and to tell you about our organization and activities."

Dr. W. S. Terrett, President of the Men's Wits and Wigs Club.
&l;COMMUNICATION.

Editor of THE PENNSYLVANIAN.

Your Ref—In reply to yesterday's editorial in reference to the honor system, the writers wish you to publish this letter for the information of those who may have read the editorial and any others who may be interested in the subject.

The honor system of conducting exercises and examinations as it is used in the Wharton School has become dear to the hearts of all who are interested in the school to organize a team. The faculty and students who have watched it working with peculiar fidelity closely with the object that it has done wonderful work for the department.

There is a much higher moral tone now than formerly. The vast majority of the men do more and better work while in college, and besides acquiring the habit of regular and consistent study, they go out into the world with higher ideals. The failure of the honor system at the institution mentioned in the editorial was due, so far as we can learn, to the failure to provide a supervising student committee.

That was a fatal oversight and one much to be regretted. But in institutions here the honor system has been tried and where there has been no such lamentable oversight, it has been successful, and in the Wharton School this is especially true.

Social Problem Lectures.

The social problem series of lectures which are being held in Legge Hall on Monday and Wednesday afternoons are being attended by more than the usual number of students. A number of representatives from the Church Training and Domestic Home and the Episcopal Divinity School are now regular attendants at the lectures. Dr. Elmer N. Patton lectures on "The New Basis of Civilization," which were originally to start on October 7th and continue until November 7th, have been deferred until Monday, November 18th. Dr. Henry B. Munsey is at present delivering lectures on "The Standard of Living," while others who may be interested.

News of Other Colleges.

Chicago has accepted a challenge to a chess match with Michigan. A movement is on foot at Michigan to have the University Library opened on a Sunday.

Dr. James N. Canfield, librarian, Columbia University, called for Europe on Saturday to collect information bearing on the relative standards of English and American scholarships. He will return before the new year.

Freshman Football.

The freshman football team went all the way to Garden City, L. I., on Saturday to play the St. Paul School team, only to find that there was other good cause why he should not try for the cast of the preliminary plays, and if there is none, to do more.

Mask and Wig Club.
All candidates for the Mask and Wig Club's preliminary trials will be notified at the club house Thursday night at eight o'clock.

Preparations for the Easter 1908 production are progressing rapidly and efforts are being made in the usual canny undergraduate manner. The club has lost many of last year's cast members and new material is most needed. Irrespective of whether or not undergraders may have experience in amateur dramatic work, the Mask and Wig orphans must of all departments to appear at the club house Thursday night and to show in a small way, that they are able to recite, dance, sing, minstrel or perform on musical instruments. The trials are entirely informal and need not discourage possible candidates from attending. The object of the club is to ascertain, if possible, a particular line of comedy work that a man may be fitted for, and he will then be given opportunity to compete for parts in the preliminary performances. Two separate casts will produce the same certain results—a bare comedy in one act, with seven or eight musical numbers about December 22.

At Thursday night's trials there will be no auditions other than the candidates, and the club's stage director will review the work of the men. About twenty-five men have signaled their intention of competing and have made written application to the club; but in case other men have not yet received application blanks they may do so at the club on Thursday by applying to Stage Director C. S. Morgan, Jr.

Sunday Orations Announced.
Advanced announcement is now authorized by the Christian Association of a partial list of speakers who will have charge of the Sunday morning services in Houston Hall from the Christmas holidays until vacation:

The speaker at next Sunday's services will be the Rev. Charles A. McCall, of Rochester, N. Y., formerly pastor of the First Methodist Church of Germantown. The usual meetings of the association, which follows the Sunday morning service, will be held in the association's rooms, instead of in the auditorium, hereafter.

Students in Students' Ward.
The following are at present in the University Hospital: E. B. Robinette, '09 C., acromegaly; H. W. Willits, '08 M., scarlet fever; W. F. Russell, '09 C., grippe; H. M. Cracchi, '11 C., intestinal fever; E. H. Whittaker, '08 M., lymphatic lassitude, and H. J. Joyce, '10 M., has left the hospital and gone home, unable to continue his studies at the University.

Wharton School Sophomores.
All Wharton School second-year men will meet in Room 162, Logan Hall, at 11.05 A.M., to elect their representatives on the honor system committee. The nominees are Bradfield, Hill, Shumaker and E. W. Smith.

Rhodes Scholarship.
All students who are planning for war with competing for the Rhodes scholarship at Oxford are requested to send their names to the undersigned.

Josiah H. Penniman, Dean.

Architectural Society Reception.
Invitations are now out for the annual reception of the Architectural Society, to be held in the library, College Hall, Friday, October 25th, at eight o'clock.
