COMMUNICATION.

Dear Sir—From every college whose football team sustained a defeat during this season come reports of the manner in which the student body by cheering and singing during the practices have put new life and dash into their team, and yet during the past week, when such a team has extended its ambitions to Pennsylvania, the stands at Franklin Field have been empty, silent and gloomy. Indeed, it is past time that the Pennsylvania student should do his part to encourage the team and show them that he is still behind them. It is not too late for a demonstration at Friday afternoon's practice before the Lafayette game, and it therefore becomes the duty of the Pennsylvania and the closer leaders to assemble the student body in the stands and give them a chance to return decisive votes for their cheering content, as well as to show the team that you are with them, and the public to the world that Pennsylvania spirit is a reality and not a theory.

Zeta to Discuss Chapel Hour.

With characteristic enterprise the Zephyrion society has selected as the topic for discussion at its meeting this evening a question which is of great present interest to the student body. The debate will be on the subject, "Resolved, That the chapel hour of the College be altered to the chapel hour of eight o'clock." Messrs. Torrey, Thompkins and Mason upholding the affirmative view, while Masters, Murphy, Jackson and Jordan will argue the negative. A general discussion on the subject will follow the debate. Presiding will be W. C. Scherhorn, who will serve as captive for the evening.

British Association Meeting.

This evening (Friday) at 8 o'clock, the British Association will hold its first meeting of the new college year in Houston Hall. All the members have been registered up to date and several new members have been added, making the total number about sixty-five.

It is expected that this first meeting this year will be the most complete yet, and that the regular papers will be read. Adelphi—Ernest Novell.
Ernest Novell, the celebrated actor who is to make his first appearance in this city during the week of November 11th at the Adelphi, ranks in Italy equal to the elder Malvib in tragic and to Zonclaud in modern serious dramas, while as a comedian he stands without a peer. He is beyond doubt the most versatile of all the world's great actors. Sarah Bernhardt has, indeed, declared him to be "the greatest comic actor of our time." The versatility of Novell has long been recognized, and he has produced the wonderful range of art making him a Coquetry in comedy, and Athalia, Shylock, Kiss of the Judas, and Romeo in tragedy. He is equally at home both at the serious, obscure modern drama, romantic melodrama—such as "Romeo" or "Leaves XI." During his local engagement he will present eight different plays. Last season, in New York he gave twenty different performances, all winning the unanimous praise of the press and public.
