PROSPECTS ARE GOOD.

The preliminary trials will be held immediately before the Christmas holidays. From all accounts Lafayette will send another strong eleven down to Chestnut Hill, where they took a long, bracing cross-country walk, getting in good shape. The 'Varsity regulars, with the exception of Zelgler and Captain Folwell, have held Pennsylvania to a tie score — 6-6. In 1905, the only game which the 'Varsity failed to win, and 0-0 in 1906. From all accounts Lafayette will win by a comfortable though small margin.

Pennsylvania meets Lafayette on Franklin Field this afternoon in what will prove a close and interesting game. Lafayette has not defeated the Red and Blue since 1898, but they have always given the Quakers a hard struggle and for the last two years have held Pennsylvania to a tie score — 6-6. In 1905, the only game which the 'Varsity failed to win. and 0-0 in 1906. From all accounts Lafayette will win by a comfortable though small margin.

Pennsylvania meets Lafayette on Franklin Field, and will enter the game with a rather depleted team. Entries include Captain Carter, the interscholastic champion distance man. The entries:

VARISITY MEETS LAFAYETTE TODAY IN DIFFICULT GAME

FOLWELL AND ZEIGLER ARE THE ONLY MEN IN POOR SHAPE.

Cross-Country Walk Substituted for the Practice Yesterday Afternoon. Coaches Think Penn Will Win.

Franklin Field presented a rather deserted appearance yesterday afternoon. The 'Varsity men were taken to Chestnut Hill, where they took a long, bracing cross-country walk, getting in good shape. The scrub men were given a well-earned rest. The 'Varsity regulars, with the exception of Zelgler and Captain Folwell, are in first-class condition. Zelgler's hand is still bothering him, while Folwell's injuries in the Indian game were so serious that he may not play at all today. If he does not, Sommer will take his place. The

DEBATE QUESTIONS ARE SENT TO CORNELL AND COLUMBIA

EXCELLENT.

The Red and Blue won handsomely last year. Of the two winning teams, Schick, who debated against Cornell at Urbana, is the only man to be lost. Both captains, Paris and Faval, are back in college, together with Gilkison, Alexander and Delia Miller, of the '95 and '96 teams, who in the Law School, is ineligible because of teaching; but to compensate for this loss there are A. W. Smith, Obermayer, Helton, Melvin, Roseinh and Reeves, all of whom may be counted upon to make the members of last year's team battle to retain their places.

The University debate committee has decided to declare all men eligible for the Frasier prize debate who rate the preliminaries. This means that the registration this year will be unusually large, and unless all signs fail, over one hundred men will come out for the Varsity next month.

Gymnastic Notice

All students in the College who have not already done so are directed to arrange at once with the Department of Physical Education the hours at which they will report for gymnastic work. This work is required of every student who has not been specifically exempted by Dr. McKenzie. Failure to conform to the gymnastic regulations will lead to exclusion from all college classes.

The 16 per cent student reduction announced in your Houston Club Book on Embick tailoring is a reduction on prices $5 to $10 less per suit than their nearest competitors' prices. Establish this fact for yourself. Suits, $10 to $25. W. H. Embick & Sons, 1028 Chestnut street.
