Mr. Cromie has had considerable experience as a gymnastic instructor, having held such positions in Easton, Pa.; Auburn, Ill.; Newastle, Pa., and Philadelphia. His last post, which led to the present, was in the University of Pennsylvania's Young Men's Christian Association.

A number of slides, comprising photographs of Swiss Alpine scenery, were exhibited at the meeting.

The club has decided to prepare a series of photographic souvenir postcards of University scenes, and a committee has been appointed to arrange for the business.

New Football Songs.

The following two football songs have been submitted to The Pennsylvania university publication:

TUNE: "IOWA."

Here at Penn we have a team,
When they play they play with steam.
Pennin', Oh Penn—syl—va—nia.
Of all players there's the cream,
They all tackle like a dream—
Pennin', our good old team.
When our big big halfbacks they go dashing through the line.
First down every time,
See, they're playing fine!
Then there is an end run and we say
That is a sign
That the team will surely win the game.

Chorus:

Penn—syl—va—nia— a break through and tear them.
Don't let 'em see, Penn.
Don't let 'em score.
Such morale and more.
But beat them and defeat them.
Host down town, Penn.
And win the game. Penn—syl—va—nia—

K. M., '11.

TUNE: "CHORES OF HONKY DOY.

Pennin', we're here to see you,
Boast them.
Pennin', team, we're here to see you
Eat them.
With all the toys playing hard to win.

Charging in

With a will.
Pennin', just tackle low and hold on.
Push 'em back and run them off their feet.
Pennin', score.
Never fear,
You will catch them, crush them.
Boast them and you'll win the game.

K. M., '11.

More candidates were reported for the team, but they did not pass the test of the jury of the jury members.

The practice was very spirited, although no remarkable playing was done.

Basketball Practice.

Ten men more showed up for the varsity basketball practice last evening, making the total number twenty-four.

Additional candidates for the Freshman team increased that squad to thirty in all. Every candidate was given a chance to play on his position for two halves of ten minutes each.

The practice was very spirited, although no remarkable playing was done.

Engineers Elect Representative.

At a meeting of electrical and mechanical engineers yesterday in the chemical laboratory, a representative was elected to temporary responsibility on the Freshman executive committee, and the position was held temporarily by a few men who responded to the call.

Meeting of Junior Week Committee.

Christmas Songs.

When our great team proves itself in form fit to win, it will be the cream of all players.

The team will surely win, I

That is a sign
That the team will surely win the game.

Chorus:

Penn—syl—va—nia— a break through and tear them.
Don't let 'em see, Penn.
Don't let 'em score.
Such morale and more.
But beat them and defeat them.
Host down town, Penn.
And win the game. Penn—syl—va—nia—
