TEAM REACHES MT. CLEMENS, MICH., IN FINE CONDITION

ARRIVES TOO LATE FOR PRACTICE—SNOW COVERS GROUND.

Takes Cross-Country Walk—Quartered at Bingham's Lake Side Inn, on the Shore of Lake St. Clair.

[By Special Correspondent.]

Curtains are being drawn on the tour en route the Pennsylvania football team arrived at Mount Clemens, Michigan, late yesterday afternoon in good condition.

[56x794]They are at present quartered at Bingham's Lake Side Inn, on the shore of Lake St. Clair, twenty-two miles south of Detroit. The team arrived too late yesterday afternoon for practice, but were taken on a cross-country walk before daylight, which snow covers the frozen ground.

On leaving Philadelphia the team received great ovations along the route. They arrived in Buffalo at 4.30 o'clock, where necessary arrangements were made for the evening, being chased by one hundred local alums, who cheered the team morning air to cheer the sons of old Penn on to victory.

[56x794]Some members of the team missed connections at Buffalo, and was compelled to lay over for some time, causing them to arrive late at Mount Clemens.

When Pennsylvania made up against Michigan at Ann Arbor on Saturday the team will be different from the one that lined up against Colorado weeks ago in the meeting to that last occasion, the Red and Blue eleven has practically dropped all of its old line, five positions and is adhering to the open game, being long end runs, forward passes and the oval kick. The men seen to have adopted themselves to this style of play are: Smith, the halfback, who is playing his third game against Michigan as he played against Jefferson College; Gatsbey, halfback, and those playing against Michigan also.

The offense and defense of last year was due to the weakness of the East-end condition of the team and not the forward line, a point pointed out by Zelo in the debate. The men of last year's team was not up to the standard of the team as a whole, however, and it is imperative that both cars can be filled. At present there are places for ten more men than have bought tickets. This is the final chance for those who intend to go. The first two trains leave Broad Street for West Philadelphia at 12:15 A. M. Friday and will be connected to the regular trains to West Philadelphia so the difference in number of the party the farce, including meals and Pulman accommodations, will be had for $41.40 more than was originally expected. It is imperative that both cars be filled.

All tickets for the special trains to Ann Arbor and return must be sold and the money turned in by 1.15 to-day. No space will be reserved later. Not enough men have turned out to fill a special train, so two cars have been provided. These cars will leave Broad Street Station (no stop at West Philadelphia) at 12:15 A. M. Friday and will be connected to the regular trains so the difference in number of the party the fare, including meals and Pulman accommodations, will be had for $41.40 more than was originally expected. It is imperative that both cars be filled.

All collectors of funds to please see a collector at once. The Treasurer appointed by the Foot- ball Captain must have all subscriptions today before two o'clock.

GO TO MICHIGAN

No more applications for seats on the special undergraduate cars to Ann Arbor will be received by the committee after 11:30 o'clock today. This morning will furnish the last opportunity anyone will have to join the party.

Ten more men are needed to complete the list. Surely we are not willing to allow only a handful of Pennsylvanians men to represent four thousand undergraduates at one of the biggest football games of the year. It will not be an easy fight to defeat the Wolverines and our team will need the backing of our cheer and songs. Michigan is said to have one of the strongest teams she has ever had, and not only is it strong, but the undergraduates of the Ann Arbor university are more eager to win this game than any they have ever played. Michigan has never been defeated on her own field, and her supporters are determined that an Eastern rival shall not accomplish her downfall.

The matches in the Interdepartmental bowls of the University will begin Monday, November 12th, when the team of '09 C plays the architects on the Houston Club allegy. These matches will be played on every afternoon until each team has met all of the other departments.

The competition this year should prove very interesting, as many good bowlers have entered College, and will materially strengthen the teams. The following games are scheduled to be played at 3 P. M. during next week: Monday, '09 C vs. Architectural Department; Tuesday, '10 C vs. '10 L; Wednesday, '11 C vs. '11 M; Thursday, open; Friday, '98 C vs. '11 M; Saturday, '09 C vs. Veterinary Department.

Freshmen to Narrate

The news of the decisive victory scored by Penn over the strong Penn State eleven was received with unqualified rejoicing by Michigan rooters. It means that Penn has one of the strongest elevens in the East, indeed the Quakers are not the strongest aggregation in their section. Now a Michigan victory next Saturday will give the Wolverines all the prestige they want, whilst a defeat will not be nearly as disastrous as was the case last year when Penn had been pronounced punkted around by her Eastern rivals.

The time at which the train will leave to return has been changed from 1:29 to 1:25 o'clock. The committee informs us that the train will leave exactly on time and will wait for no one. Those who are going on this train are therefore asked to make their arrangements so that they will be on time.

We trust that the needed ten men will report to the committee today before 1:15 o'clock. Let no one hesitate to take this trip.

Camera Club Exhibitions.

Beginning Thursday, November 14th, and continuing for two weeks, there will be an exhibition of work of some of the members of the Camera Club. The pictures which have won prizes at the Intercollegiate exhibitions, as well as those of views about the campus and of class scenes, will be exhibited. Your support is called to the fact that copies of these pictures can be purchased and orders can be left with Flesher or Carrige. Some of the pictures of the class fights are very interesting and of especial interest to the lower classes. Look over them and you will probably see yourself as others saw you in the fights.

The regular meeting of the Camera Club has been postponed until Monday, November 18th, when all members should report, as there will be important business.

Philo Debate Team Trials.

The contest for the debate with the Philological Society of Columbia has been signed and trials for the Philomathean team will be held on Friday evening, November 22d, at eight o'clock. All junior members, including all students who are combining fourth-year college with first-year law, are eligible for the team. All candidates are asked to register with either Moderator Wagner or the chairman of the debate committee at once. The trials will be adjudged by three faculty members and each contestant will have one speech of seven minutes duration. The subject is: "Resolved, That Congress should impose a progressive inheritance tax; constituunality conceded." Choice of sides optional.

Interdepartment Bowling.

The matches in the interdepartmental bowling championships of the University will begin Monday, November 12th, when the team of '09 C plays the architects on the Houston Club allegy. These matches will be played on every afternoon until each team has met all of the other departments.

Freshmen to Play Tome.

This Saturday afternoon the Freshman football team will play the Tome Institute eleven on Franklin Field. All A. A. books and season tickets will be honored for this game.

Reports of the Pennsylvania-Michigan game will be given from time to time on the field. There is probability, should a direct wire from Ann Arbor be obtained, of having a miniature score-board set up.

Georgia State Club to Organize.

Student from Georgia will reorganize the Georgia State Club, meeting for the purpose in the Houston Club early next week.
