FOOTBALL PLAYERS ARE NOT SUFFERING FROM MICHIGAN.

The Freshmen Lined Up at the Scrub and in Practice

On a slow and muddy field the Varsity yesterday indulged in its hardest scrimmage since Saturday's victory. After a half hour's signal practice the Freshmen were lined up against the Varsity. All the old men were in their respective places except Holshack and Gistón. Polkow was shifted to fullback, Somers admirably filling the gap at halfback. Macklin was started at right tackle but was replaced by Gistón near the end of the scrimmage.

The Freshmen backed off, but soon managed to obtain possession of the ball while holding the Varsity for downs in nearly every play, until finally all attempts at line plunging Johnson executed a brilliant forward pass to Favorite on the Varsity's forty-four yard line. Catching the ball the Varsity managed to spoil the play of the afternoon, sprinting towards the goal line leaving only several tacklers and making the Freshmen's only score after four minutes.

On the next kick off the Freshmen tried the Princeton practice play of their own man, that is, kicking the ball ten yards forward but toward the side lines, thus enabling the end to gain the ball before it is caught by the opposing team. This play worked well, for the man was downed in his tracks.

The Varsity soon pulled themselves together and shoved Polkow over the Freshmen's goal line. No scoring followed during the remainder of this practice play. The Varsity tried many new plays and performed a good character, all involving the forward pass.

Pennsylvania-A. K. Beck, II. Ilowle, Aaaootatlon has done anything in this novel undertaking in the last few weeks; but when Cornell and Pennsylvania met, a scene of thrilling action followed, which the Varsity has never seen before. For the first time this season the Varsity was able to hold its own against the Red Alibaba, and the excitement of the afternoon was multiplied by the fact that Cornell was playing her last regular game of the season.

The big college games this year an' those of the Pennsylvania-Tomahawk have already shown, and the team must cease to be an aggregation of men and become a team in the true sense of the word. Cornell has reached such a state of excellence that every man dependent upon his own doings to obtain his end will have to do so with all his might and to do it well. The game was intense and the play requiring team work, that Michigan, the team now facing the Varsity, could be an aggregation. In every way it can be said that when Pennsylvania meets, the team must at least be first as far as the spirit of the game is concerned. Both teams have won their last game, and the contest on Thanksgiving Day will be a contest between the two best teams of the East.

The big college games this year are the contests for the championship between the 12 to 10, and the Pennsylvania-Cornell game, yet to be played. The championship between the two teams will be the Tiger victory over the Wolverines. The game will probably result in a decided victory on the part of Pennsylvania over Michigan. But the Cornell team is one of the best teams in the country and is worthy of consideration.

The game will be on sale at the Pennsylvania-Cornell field on Thanksgiving Day is always the very best that Cornell can produce, for the team that has been the important of these games.

The game was on sale over and over again, and it is always the best that Cornell can produce. The team that has been the important of these games.

A Matter of Common Sense.

We take it for granted that no wise and honest man believes that he is getting something for nothing when clothing is offered him—for whatever pretended reason—at less than its value.

Under its true colors it is worth all it costs.

We believe that the clothing made by Browning, King & Company is as fine as it is made.

We'll leave it to the Judgment of any well-informed man.
