Hollenbeck, Draper, Ziegler and Scar- SCRAP REPORT ON FOOTBALL.
tant and manager of the Combined Musical Clubs, surprised the members of the clubs present by announcing his resignation from both positions, which is to take effect at once. Day is a Senior in the Architectural Depart- ment and the demands of the course have been so pressing that he was forced to take this step. Day took the difficult task of president manager last spring, when the organiza- tion was facing an $800 deficit; but when the books were balanced up in June the clubs were almost the same, and the meeting is ends and entirely free of indebtedness.

Day prepared at Fargo (N. D.) High School and won the club in the Sophomore year as second tenor. He was first tenor junior year and was elected assistant manager for 1906-07, from which position he graduated into the presidency by announcing his resignation from both positions with the greatest brevity.

The undergraduates have numerous candidates in the field except in the Dental and Veterinary Departments. Haskins and Judd have the field to themselves.

Many of the candidates for position of elect- or are listed among them are Lloyd T. Kenna, W. C. Albee, C. A. Allnutt, Scully, J. Shipley Dixon and Richard M. Phil. O. H. Perry and Pepper and John H. Munger, the present represen- tatives of the Medical Department, will try to be re-elected, and there is some opposition, the result is not as certain here as in the Col- legiate Department. The candidates will be represented either by John A. Bowne or Harry H. Hopfen, elected as both of them are graduates of the College Department, there is quite as intense an opposition to both of them, and the election will be held in the Record room.

The annual Western trip of the 'Varsity polo and swimming teams is now being arranged. The schedule will not be published until the new Athletic Association has ratified it.

The point winners in the bi-monthly events so far are: J. W. Anthony, 11; J. S. Has- mans, 10; R. A. Korn, 9; D. M. Gibson, 5; R. I. A. Korn, 3; E. C. Clément, 3; J. Graham, Jr., 2; R. M. Gilden, 2; J. M. Borden, 1; E. C. Clément, 2; J. S. Harnett, 1; B. R. K. Hughes, 1; R. A. Korn, 1; G. D. Mills, 1; R. F. Neumann, 1; E. C. Clément, 1; T. N. B. Rotherbad, 1; J. K. Shyrock, 1; G. C. sylvester, 1; O. C. Fall, 1; R. R. Van Ganton, 1. As- sistant Manager 'Varsity Crew.

All candidates for the position of assistant manager of the 'Varsity crew hand in their applications in writing at the Athletic Association office as soon as possible. Only College Juniors are eligible. Signed, R. H. Philhower, manager of Varsity crew.

"La Poudre aux Yeux" Trials. At the trials for the Fresco crew, last evening, several of the leading parts were assigned. There are, however, fifteen of the parts still to be filled. More candidates are desired. To be held in Room 217, College Hall.

"Red and Blues" Wanted. Copies of "Red and Blue" for February, 1908, have been compiled. These works should be returned Im-

Pittsburgh Club Notice. The smoker committee of the Pitts- burgh Club has decided to hold a smok- er of Christmas observance. The dinner will be served at 7:15 o'clock, in the Record room, Prospect Clubhouse. The dinner will be served in the Record room, and all the members of the fraternity and the secretaries of the clubs are asked to be present.

high class. Keinath joined the "Varsity" squad in mid-season, and for this reason he was even considered for All-America honors by many writers, as was the case with Lawrence last year.

In coldness, cleverness, dodging, clean handling of punts and in brilliant ground games Keinath is recognized as having few superiors on the gridiron today. Just how he would compare with "Tad" Jones in an actual game must remain a matter of conjecture, but critics who have seen both stars play this season agree that neither is the least decided adversary. If Keinath shows the same form next season, he will make a strong bid for the pivotal position on 1908's all-star team.

Dwyer is favorably treated by the Washington, Pittsburgh and Philadephia experts, and many papers seem to think that if he continues to improve he will be the 1908 centre. Grant, of Harvard, and Schultz, of Michigan, are the snapper-backs selected most often.

Both full-backer at guard and Gassert at tackles have been put on alternative elevens. Gassert's defensive work and pepacity to nab fumblies and Gassert's terrific charging and tackling have been noted by critics who have not the slightest inclination toward Pennsylvania.

Verein Rehearsals Begin.

Preliminary work on the Deutscher Verein play was begun with a viva last night, when trials for places in the cast were held in Houston Hall. Mr. Richard Wagenmann, who will coach the play this year, made a number of tentative selections and the first tryout for the play was rehearsed. "All Heidelberg" will be produced this year by the Verein, in the last week in February. The play will be taken to two or three towns up the State after the Philadelphia performance.

The next full rehearsal will be held on Wednesday evening, at eight o'clock, in Houston Hall, when all candidates are asked to be present. New men are also invited, since competition for the places will not close for at least two weeks.

Eugene Delano Prize.

The examinations for the Eugene Delano prize for the best special examination in the French and German required for entrance to College will be held as follows: French, Tuesday, December 19th, from two to four, Room 217; German, Friday, December 20th, from two to four, Room 218; Jordan H. Penman, Dean.

The Princeton Sophomores defeated the Freshmen in the annual boxing tournament, winning three bouts out of four.

As "F" Intervened with a trumpet has been awarded all members of the Strange University Band, in recognition of their services.

Mr. T. J. Cole, architect, of London, who was recently in Philadelphia, delivered a lecture before the Harvard undergraduates on "The Book Beautiful."

Appos of the recent "expanses" of the Conflict Indian football team, it is interesting to note that over 100,000 people witnessed their playing this season.

Under circumstances at Cornell have just been permitted to take out books for home use from the university library. The library compiles about 239,000 volumes.

Michigan undergraduates will in the future be taught the correct pronunciation of modern language by means of the "language phone," a modification of the phonograph.

"Jack" Monkley the "Mike" Murphy of Cornell, has just been presented with a house, the money for which was raised by popular subscription among the undergraduates.

Professor Burke, of Yale, has compiled physical statistics of the Freshman Class this year. He finds forty-six per cent. of this forty-six per cent. no less than thirteen per cent. began to smoke after entering college.

Governor Hughes, of New York, was elected Republican Presidential candidate at a model convention of Michigan undergraduates. Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, and Secretary of War Root were second and third choices respectively. President Roosevelt's candidate, Secretary Taft, was far down in the list.

Hospital House Staff Vacancies.

There are two vacancies on the house staff of the Elizabeth General Hospital, Elizabeth, N. J. The service is a general one for one year. For further information address the superintendent, A. F. Knowles, Elizabeth General Hospital, Elizabeth, N. J.

A competitive examination for two positions on the house staff of Fordham Hospital, Southern Boulevard and Crotona avenue, New York City, will be held at the hospital December 18th at 2 P.M. The examination will be written and oral. The successful candidate will be assigned to duty January 1st. It will have a mixed service of ten years. Candidates will present their written applications in person in the underpromotion on or before December 18th. Signed: Albert F. Bouman, M. D., secretary of medical board, 720 West One-hundred-and-thirty-ninth street.

Lawrence County Club.

A meeting will be held on Thursday evening, December 12th, at eight o'clock, on the third floor of Homer Hall, for the purpose of organizing the Lawrence County Club of the University. Signed: J. F. Rhodes, secretary pro tem.
