which is to contain the names of every member of the association, was passed. The book will include the names of all undergraduate, graduate and senior members. Its production is for the express purpose of aiding the judges of elections.

It was passed that a vote of thanks be conferred upon the judges of elections for their excellent work. A resolution that in the future the names should be put on ballots in order of chances was passed, and that in case there were two or more nominees of the same class, that the names should be put in alphabetical order.

A resolution that next year it should be recommended to the board that fifteen members of the football scrub team be taken in after games away from home was adopted.

The last proposal that was accepted was that next year some inducement be used by the board of directors to increase a larger attendance at the meetings.

The judges of elections then announced the following election to the board of directors of the association:

Bi-Monthly Fencing Bouts.

Last night the first of a series of bi-monthly meets among the members of the fencing squad was held in the fencing room of the gymnasium. Seven men participated. First place was won by Osmond Wendell.

An elimination contest among the members has been arranged. In order to have some basis to start from, sets were drawn for positions, which resulted as follows: Martin, Bill Hay, Parker, Shouney, Taylor, Pierson, Porter, Hastings, Lange, Fisher. Venables had the last. Trevino, Galbraith, Landis, Walnutt, Cope, Donovan, Swain. Each man is required to challenge the man in the position above him in a bout. Simply the Best.

Unquestionably "bargain sales" are symptoms of distress when the public is begged to buy merchandise that is in the ordinary course of healthy business should make its own market.

There is nothing the matter with our clothing. It is worth every cent that we ask for it.

We plead no business incapacity as a reason why you should be able to get it for less than it is worth.

We offer it simply as the best clothing that we know how to make.

It is stylish and it is well made.
