PRINCETON FIRST OPPONENTS

INTERCOLLEGIATE BASKETBALL

SERIES BEGINS TO-NIGHT.

Varsity Five in Good Form and Are Confident—Tigers Reported to Have Stronger Team Than Last Year.

The Princeton basketball team, accompanied by Coach Russell Smith and Assistant Manager J. Lee and about twenty-five undergraduates, will leave for Princeton this afternoon to play its first intercollegiate game of the season. Besides the regular members of the Varsity team Simmer and Speer will be taken to act as substitutes. Should the game not prove too close these two men will be given an opportunity to play.

The team has been working ever since the last game was played. There is much optimism about this year's team. It is expected to be stronger than last year.

Tickets for the Prize Debate, to be held next Thursday night, will go on sale at the Union Monday morning at 10 o'clock. The prize will be the Foster Cup.

The Cut and the Quality.

The choice of a neck suit or the cut in the woman's frock, of course.

It may be the beauty, slightly rounded front, of our "Columbian" or the upright, and angular "Ateneo" or one of our several variations of these modes.

The certain thing, however, is that you are not our suits before you look, but in our choice of patterns and elegance of finish they represent the best achievements of today in clothing.

Suits $15 to $40.

Overcoats $16 to $80.
