We take occasion to congratulate our Christian Association upon its splendid work during the past year. In standing at the head of the list as a university contributing to missions as a work, we emphasize our position as the broadest of all institutions in our lack of self-centrism and our observance of the needs of the rest of the world.

That our Christian Association is able to produce such wonderful results abroad and at the same time carry on an important work among the poor of America—we such work is done every day at the University House—is indeed a striking testimony of the vast number of students of all races and religions coming to this country for a higher education.

The standing of the four highest students of the Pennsyl

The Cut and the Quality.

In the choice of a suit cut the cut is the first consideration, of course. It may be the jaunty, slightly upward face of our "Columbias" or the straight and upright "Armos," or some of our several variations of these models.

The certain thing, however, is that not only are our suits correct cut, but in choice of patterns and elegance of finish they represent the best achievements of today in tailoring. Suits $15 to $40.

Overcoats $15 to $80.
