Several of the Candidates Amused a Large Audience and Showed Remarkable Talent in Initial Trials.

In one act, adapted by T. B. Donaldson and produced under the direction of Charles H. Morgan, was presented. Though cut down to a one-act, it was given in the club house, 311 Quince street. The Mann Seel family and given to spiritualists, will be held this evening; the chapel, 10th street, Pennsylvania University. The Committee upon selection of B student to a scholarship, has already examined a number of the State or Territory in which they have their residence. They may pass the qualifying examination at any hour from 10 to 11 o'clock, at the office of the Pennsylvania Board Notice.

The Pennsylvania Freshman basketball team defeated the strong Law-renceville team yesterday on the latter's floor by the score of 52-20. The game started with little scoring, but after ten minutes the Freshmen led, and the first half ended with the score 23-13 in favor of the visitors. The next half proved very rough, but the Red and Blue had no such luck in running up a larger score. The work of Saxe, Hess and Kennedy for Pennsylvania and that of Reed, Harmon and Lawrenceville was commendable. Line up:

Penn Freshmen. Lawrenceville.
Saxe — forward, Uhl
Hess — centre, Munk
Tobey — guard
Duren — forward, Harmon

Goals — Saxe, 19; Hough, 1; Tobey, 2; Hoxie, 1; Kennedy, 3; Golder, 1; Reed, 4; Munk, 3; Harper, 2. Goals from foul—Saxe, 1; Reed, 2. Reference —Hallday, Princeton.

PENN LAWRENCEVILLE. Time of halves—29 minutes.

NEWS EDITOR OF TO-DAY'S ISSUE.
RITNKK W. WOLLING.

It seems rather trite to urge undergraduates to attend basketball games. We have done it so frequently that it has become an old story, but the results are in better.

At Pennsylvania, where games are so numerous and engagements so diversified, it is often necessary during the basketball season for men to sacrifice some personal inclination in order to increase the attendance of "rascals" at the games to a reasonable showing.

If a few will indulge their University spirit for to-morrow night's game with Columbia on the gymnasium floor they will find their enthusiasm greatly benefited. It will be much easier next time to make a dutiful sacrifice.

Pennsylvania now has an excellent chance to win the basketball championship. Such is believed to depend upon the results of the games with Columbia, of which to-morrow night's is the first. Let us all turn out and help our team to a victory.

Frazier Debate on Monday.

The Frazier price debate will be held next Monday evening, January 20th, at eight o'clock, in Rice Hall, instead of on February 10th, as previously announced. The judges will be Thomas S. Gates, Esq., J. Levering Jones, Esq., and Thomas Easburn White, Esq. Provost Charles C. Harrison will preside. The speeches will be eight and four minutes in length respectively. The subject is that of the intercollegiate debate, which is scheduled for February 28th.

French Play Cast Rehearses.

The members of the French play cast rehearsed the first act of this year's production in College Hall last night. The men are making rapid progress in learning their parts, and "La Poule aux Yeux" promises to be the most successful play in the history of the circle. Reen, Lefy, Waddell, Custer, Fuerst, and Strasburg went through their parts last night.

Preparation for numerous indoor meets is occupying the attention of the Pennsylvania track men to the fullest extent. The more important of these indoor meets are the Company I (First Regiment) meet on January 18th and 25th and the Company E (First Regiment) games on Washington's Birthday. There will also be a meet on Lincoln's Birthday, February 12th, at the Second Regiment Armory, this city.

At the Washington's Birthday meet of the First Regiment the principal attraction will be a wrestling match between Captains PolweIl, of the Pennsylvania wrestling team, and Geobel, of Yale. This will practically be an intercollegiate heavyweight championship bout, since PolweIl won the heavyweight championship at the intercollegiate last year and Geobel, of Yale, was the runner up. Another feature will be a relay race between Pennsylvania and Princeton. The choice of distance has been left with the letterers.

At the Company I games jumping will be the feature. MoBItt, Pennsylvania's and Princeton's. The choice of distance has been left with the letterers.

Debate Captains Selected.
The Varsity debating teams elected their captians yesterday, Dale H.
Parke, '89 L., being chosen captain of the affirmative team and Edgar B.
Richardson, '89 L., captain of the latter. For the negative team Frank A.
Plant, '90 C., was nominated, but refused absolutely to consider the matter, owing to pressure of work. The University debate committee has yet not ratified the selections, as the committee meeting had adjourned before the members of the team met to vote for captans.
