WILL SEND TEAM TO BOSTON

PENN TO COMPETE IN FOUR-CORNERED RELAY RACE

Indoor Track Meet Will Be Held on Saturday, February 1st—Several Other Colleges Have Men Entered

At the indoor meet of the Boston Athletic Association, to be held in Bostonian Saturday, February 1st, Pennsylvania will be represented by a revolving relay team. The other colleges which will compete in this event are Cornell, Columbia and Dartmouth, which have closed out their indoor track men.

The Red and Blue team will be composed of Guy Hazle and Taylor, two others. Among those who will be given a thorough try out in the coming week for places on the team are Pyznak, Jones, Boyle and Beat. With material of such calibre there is hardly any doubt but that Pennsylvania will duplicate her victory of last year in this same event.

Another important track event will be the dual meet between the Metropolitan Athletic Association and the Middle Atlantic Association of the Amateur Athletic Union on March 4th. Trainer Murphy has taken charge of the conditions of the representatives of the Middle Atlantic Association who will include in the team not only Pennsylvania track runners, but also all the available material in this district. Haskins, Curtrell and Taylor seem certain of places on the team. The proceeds realized from this meet will be applied to the cost of sending an American team to the Olympic Games in England next July.

The biggest indoor event of this winter will occur on February 8th, when Harry Hamill, of the New York Athletic Club, and J. R. Taylor, of Pennsylvania, in the 600-yard run, make their first appearance in the Metropolitan Athletic Association's meet. Melvin Sheppard, Bacon, and Parres, Yale's old track men, will make their reappearance. Another feature of this meet will be an intercollegiate wrestling meet. The names of the competitors for this event have not yet been announced.

No successor to George D. Turner has yet been considered, but the track management intends to communicate with some former student to fill his place.

Editorial Banquet Committee.

There will be an important meeting of the joint editorial banquet committee today, at 1.50 o'clock, in The Pennsylvania. All members of the committee will be present, and the meeting will be short, so all members of the committee please be on hand. Signed: H. Wolferholtz, chairman.

Freshman Football Notice.

Water Polo Candidates Report.

All candidates for the "Varsity and Freshman water polo teams must be on hand at 5.45 o’clock to-morrow afternoon. Signed: George Klister, coach.

MUSICAL CLUBS’ BOSTON TRIP

Will Give Concert in That City for the First Time on February 8th.

DARTMOUTH GAME TO-NIGHT

Visitors Have One of the Strongest Teams in East.

On Saturday evening, February 8th, the Combined Musical Clubs of the University will give a concert in Boston for the first time in the history of the organization.

Annals of Boston and the vicinity are now at work preparing to give the members of the organization a reception upon their arrival and to show them an enjoyable time during their visit.

Immediately after the concert the members of the Boston Athletic Association will go to the claque a supper at the Copeland Hotel. This smaller will take the place of the regular annual dinner of the society, and will be an entirely informal affair. Members of the Glee Club will in all probability sing some impromptu songs, and several male and female members have signified their willingness to be present and do some "sung" dancing.

The clubs this year are among the strongest which Pennsylvania has ever had and are one of the best combinations in the country, so the New England people should feel confident of drawing crowded houses throughout their entire New England trip, which will last several days and will include many of the larger towns of that section.

It is a pity this trip has not as yet been definitely decided upon, but it will probably be announced some time this week.

Intercollegiate Wrestling Meets.

The final trial for the team which will represent Pennsylvania in a dual meet with Princeton will take place tomorrow in the gymnasium.

The meet with Princeton will be held Thursday evening, February 6th, whereby the question of a series, most of which will be contested on home ground. The meet is the last of a long series, and the intercollegiate championship, will also be held Thursday evening.

This year Cornell will participate, making the fifth college which is to take part in the dual meets. The other colleges participating are Princeton, Yale, Columbia, Cornell and Pennsylvania are the other entries.

Owing to this increase in numbers a preliminary round will have to be held as soon as the teams are ready to make up the entire list. Signed: R. J. Waite, manager.

PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1908

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

AMERICAN BANQUET FEBRUARY 22.

For the first time the Senior class will be invited to Attend Dinner.

Provost Harrison has accepted the invitation of the Alumni Society to be present at its banquet, to be held in the gymnasium on February 22d, and will represent the President of the University. Vice-Provost Edgar F. Smith and Dean Penniman have also expressed their willingness to be present. The Vice-Provost will speak on "An Appreciation of the Alma Mater," and Dean Penniman will reply, in the interest of his Alma Mater, by a speech which will be appropriate and patriotic. The dinner at 7.30 o'clock will be at the Union, and Henry E. Clark, '90, C. the president of the society, will preside.

For the first time in the history of the society the members of the Senior Class will be invited to make a toast to the University banquet. "The masks and Verse" will be the theme of the toasts. For the first time in the history of the Philadelphia stage "Masks and Verse," an Adelphi production, will be produced under the auspices of the Philadelphia society as a Mayor's Day entertainment. Scene will be held throughout, although Ben Great and Mitty Sheehan have organized the play to America this year. For the first time, however, the Adelphi董事会 has performed a commercial play.

Last evening witnessed the last performance of Shakespeare's "As You Like It," with scenery. The house was crowded by an enthusiastic and appreciative audience. Several box parties, composed of Pennsylvania graduates and undergraduates with their friends, enlivened the scene.

COMMUNICATION.

Editor of The Pennsylvanian.

Dear Sir,—I write to ask whether The Pennsylvanian will not lend its influence toward correction, either by the adoption of a rule or by the circulation of sentiment, of a very disagreeable dormitory abuse.

A few days ago I brought some friends out to see the dormitories, and I regret to say that any impression of attractiveness or beauty they might have produced on my guests was largely offset by the condition of the triangular lawn. A partial catalogue of the rubbish, we saw as we walked down one side of the triangle and short the other would include such interesting trifles as newspaper clippings, shredded letters in blue and white, all sorts of paper scrap, advertising pamphlets, fragments of ink, water, milk and pickle bottles, cigar butts, Creed's "snipes," tobacco stumps, mouse, apple cues, apple parings, orange peel, match boxes, cigarette boxes of three species, playing cards, and an unmentionable small round dish of horse. This list is all true, and there was much more.

The staff of caretakers at the dormitories is a good one and does its work well, but it would need to be cleaned three times its present size if it were to deal satisfactorily with this condition of affairs. It should not be necessary to go over the lawns with a fine tooth-comb in order to keep them in shape to be seen. The point is not that these things are left on the lawn, but that they were ever thrown there in the first place.

The above thoughtlessness is that responsible ought not to be difficult of correction. But this note will not do it alone.

The number of tickets to be distributed is very limited, and as all the applications cannot be granted, they will be considered in the order of priority, but the committee reserves the right to reject any application.

The Cut and the Quality.
In the choice of a suit the cut is the first consideration, of course. It may be the jaunty, slightly padded front of our "Columbia," or the straight and stylish "Anna," or some of our several variations of these models.
The certain thing, however, is that not only are our suits correct in cut, but in choice of patterns and elegance of finish they represent the best achievements of today in tailoring.
