LIVELY SCENES AT KUGLER'S DURING FRESHMAN DINNER.

Turner's remains laid away.

Six straight for freshmen.

Communication.

During freshman dinner, the body of George D. Turner was yesterday laid away in Morrell Mortuary as the funeral cortège wound its way out of Chestnut street.
First Regiment Athletic Meet. At the First Regiment Armory to-night the night athletic meet of Company I will open with fifteen institutions represented and six hundred individual entries. This is the largest indoor meet to be held in Philadelphia for several seasons. The most important event will be the match race between Metin Sheppard and Gray Hawkins, who defeated the New York representatives in their last race five weeks ago. Tomorrow night there will be a special match and relay race among the All-New York, All-Brooklyn and All-Philadelphia for the intercity relay championship. This city will be represented by John R. Taylor, Guy Haskins, Thomas O. Hadock, all of Pennsylvanias, and J. H. Mulligan, the former Georgetown quarter-mile runner.

A large number of Pennsylvania runners are entered in the various other races, among whom are Lloyd P. Jones, Lloyd D. Whilham, Frank L. Plymell, Leo Gran, George Breckman, William Paul, W. C. Moyer, J. C. Hartnett, and Capitan N. J. Carmell.

In Manager.

Whereas, in his demise the Class of '05 L., of the University of Pennsylvania, has lost one who had already commenced to exert his influence for the good of his class and for that profession which he had sought out; and

Whereas, His classmates have been bereaved of a valuable friend and comrade, a courteous gentleman and kindly associate; therefore do we

Resolved. That the Class of '05 L. tend to the afflicted family that heartfelt sympathy which only those who share their grief can offer; and be it

Resolved. That these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and published in appropriate University publications. Signed: Henry I. Hyneman, chairman.

Photograph This Afternoon. All members of the Philomathian Society are requested to report promptly to-day at 1:45 o'clock at the dormitory triangle, for the purpose of having the society photographed. Officers are requested to bring their caps and gowns. Every member should present himself promptly at the designated time. Photographs are to cost one dollar each, and will be ready on February 28th. Orders or money should be handed as soon as possible to the picture committee—Wanzer, Foust, Metlin, chairman.

Carmel's Debating Team. Carmel has entered the following debating team to represent the Red and White against Pennsylvania in Houston Hall on February 28th: Andrew Logan Gilman, '08 Arts; Roscoe Claudius Edlund, '05 Arts, and Robert Earl Coalition, '05 Arts, leader, with Albert Heber Winder, '08 L., alternates. Connon was speaker and Edlund alternated on the team which met Pennsylvanias last March at Ithaca. Connon has chosen a new one on the team that meets Columbia at Ithaca. The New Yorkers have entered a total protest.
