Varisty Captures But Two Bout's Out of Seven in First Dual Meet.

Princeton won the first dual wrestling meet of the season last evening in the gymnasium by the score of 2 bouts to 0. BASKETBALL WITH YALE TO-NIGHT

ALL IMPORTANT CONTEST WILL TAKE PLACE IN NEW HAVEN.

A Victory Over the Yale Practically Insures Championship—Columbia out of the Race Since Defeat by Yale.

When the Varsity basketball team faces Yale tonight at New Haven it will be for the coveted contest of the 28 season. The Yale five have been playing all through the season in consistently good form, having defeated Princeton, Cornell and Columbia by safe scores. The Blue's only defeat has been at the hands of Pennsylvania.

The Varsity is able to admit a second defeat to the New Haven team they will take the championship almost a foregone conclusion. Should the Yale team win, however, Pennsylvanias will drop to second place with a percentage of 259. Columbia, after the defeat of Yale on Saturday night, has fallen behind, though the Blue and White is still a factor. Cornell and Princeton are out of the race for the championship. Although the Yale defeat was a setback for the league, the game has practically narrowed down to Yale and Pennsylvania.

The line-up tonight was: Yale—Fitzpatrick forward, Cookman, Keil forward, Van P sleek centre, Murdoch, McCroden guard, Noyes, Ritchie guard.

The standing of the intercollegiate Basketball League as of date is as follows:

Fencing with Cornell To-Night. Pennsylvania will cross lines with Cornell tonight in the first intercollegiate fencing meet of the year. Owning to the fact that the Sophomore Dance is to be held in Weitzman Hall, the fencing will not meet in the floreurs of the Philadelphia Athletic Club, 1206 Arch street.

Cornell's team this year is especially strong, being composed of the same men who fenced throughout the season, finishing third in the intercollegiate and winning the Manse Cup, in Brooklyn. This latter event was almost duplicated last Saturday, when the strong West Point team was the cup again a large number of college and university club counters, Cornell finishing a close second.

Pennsylvania on the other hand is handicapped by the fact that but one member of last year's squad—Captain Wills——has returned to the camp. Two or two members of the team being given men. However during the last two weeks there has been a decided improvement in the work of the men, and the team should put up a strong fight against the more experienced rivals.

The team which will fence tonight will be composed of Captain Wills, Martin and Trevino. Wendell, who has been in bad conditions for the last week, is now fencing in his old-time form, and should give a good account of himself. Martin and Trevino have as yet had but little chance to show what they can do if hard pushed, so they undoubtedly will be tonight, but both have been steadily improving throughout the year and are rapidly being molded into shape by Coach Terne in preparation for the uncollielegiate preliminaries, which will be held at Annapolis on March 16th.

Tonight's match will start at eight o'clock, and complimentary tick- ets may be secured by application to any member of the team or officer of the Fencing Club.

Dr. Leonard Speaks. Dr. Rosell L. Leonard, a member of the faculty of law of Brooklyn, and Albert Wilmer professor at Columbia University during 1907-08, delivered an address in Prize Hall, Law School Building, yesterday afternoon, at three o'clock, on "The Significance of German Jurisprudence in America." He said in part:

"The German private law is so very different from the American by the different development of the two countries that a professor of German law cannot suggest an imitation of his institutions, but only a consideration of the German ideals concerning private law. Such ideals are especially four:

1. The use of the Roman texts in order to educate practitioners of law, the tendency to have written principles of private law, the universalization of the different laws of the single states, and finally the legal care for working men. These ideals cannot be realized in America in the same way as they have been in Germany. But there exist at least two ways which can conduct to the same goal, namely, the activity of the science, the agreements between the states, and the compulsory favor of public opinion.

Sophomore Dance Committee. There will be an important meeting of the Sophomore Dance committee to-day in Room 213, College Hall. Every member must be present, as the bands will be given out. Signed: P. A. Lawton, chairman.

Boxing Classes. Classes in boxing, under the direction of Mr. William J. Herrmann, will be held daily in the gymnasium. All those wishing to join the classes please report at Dr. McKenzie's office, in the gymnasium.

It adds to the general enjoyment of the meal. BRAND'S SAUCE.
