BASEBALL AT OTHER COLLEGES

COLUMBIA HAS ENTIRE TEAM, HARVARD EIGHT VETERANS.

Conditions, While Not So Promising
at Yale, Cornell and Brown, Give Promise of Good Teams This Season.

Of the dozen teams of the big colleges which attract the attention of the baseball enthusiast, Harvard, by graduation,
while Pennsylvania, Columbia, Harvard and Yale seem likely to maintain their hold on the opposite ellipses. Neither Princeton nor Harvard has excellent playing material
and, in addition to their good teams,
their chances for good games this season
are correspondingly good.

Columbia, with its entire team,
and with the graduation of Dehn, the wonderful South American pitcher, of the Harvard nine, now that the season has begun, seems to be the only man who played for Princeton last year who will not be playing this year. Campbells, Dick
and Barnett, are the only men who have returned.

These two men; Watson, captain and evangelical, and Emery, shortstop, ingratitude, right field; Higgins, center field.
In addition to these men, who make up the six members of the football team which played
the Harvards last Thanksgiving Day: Woodville, Lally, Williams and Fulton, of the 1897 Freshman team, and Gibb, a substitute pitcher.

Columbia is starting the season with her entire baseball squad back in order, and Princeton too has lost but little. The only men playing against them is Connery, the onl only man who played for Princeton last year who will not be playing this year. Campbells, Dick
and Barnett, are the only men who have returned.

THE SENIORS.

Many college men by the time they become seniors first realize and perform their duties to their class and classmates, but it is to be feared that far greater number allow their interests to fall off or cease to show whatever little interest they once had.

There must be no men of this college in 1908. As seniors let us show more interest in the work of our class than we ever did as freshmen, sophomores or juniors. Punish carelessness in regard to class meetings, class dues and all class functions counts for a great deal more in the last year than in any of the previous years. These are probably our last chances to meet many of our classmates. Our satisfaction in years to come will be far greater if we live our college life properly to the full while it lasts.

Ways in which a senior may show his knowledge gained from experience as well as his appreciation of Pennsylvanians as an old resident are numerous. He can make an excellent start in practical life and its requirements by doing right now without coercion those things which he knows should be done promptly. Let none of us "shirk out" at the last minute. Let us show that we are continuing to be a model class by attending our Alumni dinner, for our Senior banquet, being present when the class picture is taken next Thursday, attending the (yv Ball and Class Day exercises, and above all by working to get our Record out on time and making it a "record breaker".

Maryland Club to Meet.

An important meeting in the engineering of the Maryland Club will be held this evening, at eight o'clock, in the third floor of the room in Houston Hall. The members are urged to come out. Signed: L. H. Boorman, secretary.

Junior Banquet Committee.

A meeting of the Junior banquet committee was held in Room 205, College Hall, yesterday. Plans were discussed but nothing definite decided upon.

Organization of Taft Club To-Day.

Students who wish to further the candidacy of Secretary Taft for the Presidency will meet at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon in Price Hall, Law School, for the purpose of organizing a Taft Club. Members of the Old State Club and many of the prominent debaters in the College and Law School have signified their intention of attending.

Sometime to-day's meeting for organization a theatre or hall in the center of the city will be secured, in which, with the aid of speakers from Washington, the boom of Secretary Taft for the Presidency will be formally launched in Philadelphia.

Dual Swimming Meet Saturday.

There will be held a dual swimming meet between the freshman and varsity polo teams on Saturday afternoon in the gymnasium. The first-year men have a very fast team and several excellent polo players, and they should have little difficulty in defeating the sophomores.

The varsity polo team candidates are to report every afternoon this week as usual. Coach Krieter is much pleased with the showing of the men in last Saturday's meet, but he feels that there is much room for improvement in the playing of the polo team.

Nurses' Alumnae Dance.

Last night the fourth annual dance of the Nurses' Alumnae Association of the University Hospital was held in the Houston Club. The hall was tastefully decorated with palm leaves and the patrones included the names of many of the wives of the faculty. This was the first of four dances to be given in Houston Hall this week. The Houston Club dance will take place to-morrow night, the Southern Club Thursday night, and the Kappa Sigma Fraternity dance ending the week's dances on Friday.

News of the Law School.

Notice for third-year men: Those who have not yet called at Haaseler's, 1512 Walnut street, to have their picture taken will kindly do so. In the future no mail will be distributed at the reading room desks.

List of lectures and dates: Legal geography, 2 P. M.—February 12th, Justice Freidel; February 20th, Mrs. Benjamin R. Curtis; February 27th, Lord Kenyon.

Civil Engineering Picture Taken.

The Civil Engineering Society had their annual picture taken yesterday afternoon, at 1:15 o'clock, on the steps of the Engineering Building. Despite the inclemency of the weather the representation was very good, nearly all the members being present.

Senior Picture Thursday.

The Senior picture will be taken on Thursday, at 1:15 o'clock, on the University Library steps, and not on Wednesday, as previously announced. All 1908 men are urged to present promptly.

Engineering Dance Committee.

There will be a meeting of the mechanical and electrical engineering dance committee to-morrow afternoon at 1:15 o'clock. Signed: C. R. Weis, chairman.

Sophomore Class Meeting To-Day.

There will be a meeting of the sophomore class to-day, at 1:15 o'clock, in 206 College Hall. Signed: J. Pierce Ferguson, president.

Tickets for University Day.

All Juniors wishing tickets for the University Day exercises must apply to Room 205, College Hall, at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon.

University Debate Committee.

Regular meeting of the University debate committee to-day, at 1:15 o'clock, in Room 205, College Hall.

The college men who obtain the best temporary or permanent positions in July usually the ones who start looking for them early in the year. Before you get entangled with any employment agency or before you start on a more or less aimless—individual search for the positions, it will be very wise to learn about our organization of college men. We can carry your time, travel, trouble and

time consuming business with accurate information while in college and we can secure a desirable position or business opportunity when out of college. There are no involved contracts, no costly commissions, no red tape, no strings attached to our service. We think we devise and problem in a new and better way. Will you let us prove it to you? Just write for particulars, stating your needs.

A Great Rush!
Some dealers in clothing of a certain or uncertain sort are making a great rush over their "Bargain Sales."

Like the last cry of "Wolves," these exponents of the sales all the year round must have trouble in finding buyers to believe them. When the standard and staple clothing made by Browning, King & Co. is offered, as it is now, at twenty per cent. discount, that means something and meets with response. Every bit, Overall, Trousers and Fancy "Boy's" and "Children's" suits included.

Citizenship Assignment.
Tuesday, February 12th: The class will prepare extracts from the following treatises governing the status of inhabitants of newly-acquired territory. These provisions will be found in the volume entitled "Compilation of Treaties in Force," which is on special reference in the inner reading desk of the Library.

Banquet Date Fixed.
At a meeting of the banquet committee of the combined publications it was decided to hold the annual banquet on Thursday, May 9th.
