TO-MORROW IS UNIVERSITY DAY

Celebration Will Be Marked by Presence of Hon. Joseph H. Choate and Presentation of the Chilian Library

University Day will be celebrated to-morrow in honor of Washington's birthday and the annual exercises will be held at the Academy at ten this morning. Hon. Joseph H. Choate will be the orator of the day. Mr. Choate is the leader of the American Bar and was United States District Judge under President McKinley. He graduated from Harvard in 1852 and has received honorary degrees from Harvard, Harvard, Cambridge, Edinburg, Yale, St. Andrew, and Oxford. He was elected Beneficer of the Inner Temple, England.

The President of the Phila- dellphia Bar, will present Mr. Choate to Provost Hamilton to the President of the University.

The other candidates for honorary degrees are Miss Cecilia D. Solar, President Judge of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania; Governor Edwin E. Pauley and Dr. R. Gilbert, of the United States Geological Survey. Governor Pauley, who is to present one public orator to present the candidates for degrees, this year each candidate will be announced by separate speakers.

After the reading of degrees Senior Dan A. Mead, the Chilian Ambas- sador to the United States, will present the University a collection of about five hundred volumes of Chilian works. This collection is the gift of the heirs of Mr. B. Armendar, recent and temporary and last in his business.

Dr. E. V. Whitt, on behalf of Mrs. A. J. M. Nightingale, of Chil- ean with an oil portrait of the late Palmaro Roseo, Mr. Roseo having been a brother-in-law and was Professor of Civil Engineering at the University, 1874, 1875, and 1876.

The exercises are very old at Penn- sylvania, dating from 1825, when the Trustees act February 24th as an official day to be observed annually by the students and officers of the University.

One of the main features of the early celebrations was the reading of Washington's farewell address, one of the highest projects in public life have delivered orations of late President McKinley speaking in 1893; President Low, of Columbia University, in 1895; in 1896 W. T. Fane, a Chilian publican, in 1891 Bishop Peirce, of New York; in 1892 President; in 1893 Dr. Dr. S. W. White and in 1894 Governor Nett. W. Peasekcy; in 1890 President Roosevelt; in 1884 Hon. Van Dyke, and in 1867 Owen Warren.

The guests of the city, including arid degrees, will attend the dinner of the Alumni Society in the hotel. At dinner Pres- entation of the Chilian Library. Several toasts will be responded to and addresses will be made by Mr. Choate, Governor Pauley, and others.

ANNUAL EXERCISES IN HONOR OF WASHINGTON AT ACADEMY.

 interesting Intercollegiate Basketball Game to Take Place at Ithaca.

Pennsylvania's basketball team will play Cornell this evening at Ithaca, the game promises to be fast and closely contested, as the Cornell five, though only one out of five games has been won, has been playing a con- siderably good game all the season. The Ithacans' only intercollegiate vic- tory was over Princeton, but three of their four defeats have been exceedingly close margins.

The first game of the Cornell season Columbia won at Ithaca 23.17. Yale defeated Cornell in New York 25-21, but was badly beaten the next night in New York by Columbia 18.9. Over the following evening in New York the best Yale could do was to win by 18 to 15 points.

Pennsylvania by winning tonight will be practically assured of first place in the league. Should Cornell win the Pennsylvania five will be assured of a first place in New York and Cornell at Ithaca. The teams could also win first honors by simply defeating Columbia and losing to the Ithacans twice. The line up:

The association football team will play the Frankford Cricket Club to- morrow at Frankford. The following will take the 2:30 train by the Reading Terminal for Armit street, Frankford: M. W. Stack, March, M. M. Stack, Howard, M. H. Stack, Mrs. E. Wood, M. M. Marine, C. B. Stack. Second class or telephone Presto 361 before 1:15 o'clock.

Banquet of Alumni Society

Annual Dinner Will Be Held in the Gymnasium To-morrow Evening.

The Peninsulian is the gift of Hon. Joseph H. Choate and Governor Smart, and others.

Mr. Charles E. Murphy makes a quaint appeal for help from the under- graduates in developing a successful team this year. The loss of Bixsky brought out more clearly than ever the dependence upon such player, who are placed upon a few stars in championship football, and Trainer Murphy has addressed the secret of a warm-up to his. He writes:

"I wish to call the attention of the students to the fact that the amount of material coming out for the track team is very small. There are not nearly as many men out now as at the time last year, and although we have a lot of good, hard-working followers out with us, there is a lot of men who would be able to do some- thing if they only would come out to work. Every time I get hold of them they promise to begin at the end of the season, but we never see them working.

"There is another class even worse than these, they are the men who come out when they feel like it. When you ask them where they have been, they will make excuses, promising to do better in the future. This is the largest and worst bunch of the lot, because you count on doing some- thing with these men, when the day approaches and you need them badly, they are not in condition for a contest, they are still making excuses and deferring you with promises. In fact, you wake up and find that you have nothing, and in a few years you could have got the same number of chances as you would have liked to.

"To-morrow afternoon, at two o'clock, the University bowling team will meet the Frankford team at the Casino Bowling Alleys.

"French Play Rehearsal.

A full rehearsal of the French play will be held tonight, at two o'clock, in the New Century Drawing Rooms, 100 Chestnut Street, between Chestnut and Walnut. All members have to report.

"Senior Class Tickets.

All members of the Senior Class who have signed in their names for University Day tickets can obtain them at 3527 Locust street today at 11 o'clock. Signed: R. E. Miller, president.

Engineer Duxa To-Night

At nine o'clock tonight the mechanical and electrical engineers will give their annual dinner in the assembly room of the new Engineering Building. As is usual, ten days dinners have been held, so that now the halls, stairways and assembly room are attractively decorated with palms, palms and blooming plants, intermingled with Red and Blue bunting. The assembly room has been transformed into a veritable garden, many novel decorative efforts having been called into use. The engineers' club room has been turned into a reception room for the patrons.

At 11:30 o'clock supper will be served in the sketch room, small tables being provided for the patrons in the club room.

Program: Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Ellers, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Plang, Mrs. Goodspeed, Mrs. Griesser, Mrs. C. Harrison, Mrs. C. C. Fencing Meet with Columbia

This meeting at 8:30 o'clock the Varsity fencing team will cross foils with the trio from Columbia in the freshest aspect of the season and is expected to be close.

Columbia's team this year is unusually strong, two of the members being veterans of several years experience. Pennsylvania is handicapped by the fact that two members of the team are green men who, until a few weeks ago, had never fenced in any inter-collegiate contests.

The teams will be composed of the following: Columbia—Amato, captain; Byrne and Perrine. Pennsylvania—Calkins, captain, Martin and Trevino.

This meet is an invitation one, and only those of admission are required. Everyone is cordially invited.

Junior Class Meeting

At the last meeting of the Junior Class motion was passed that a special meeting be held Friday, February 21, to vote on the honor system. This meeting will be held in Room 205, College Hall, to-day at 1:15 o'clock. Tickets for University Day will be distributed at the same meeting.

Editorial Banquet March 5th

The joint editorial banquet of the boards of The Pennsylvaniaian, "Red and Blue," and "Punch Bowl," will be held at the Hotel Windsor on Thursday evening, March 5th.
