Unanimous Decisions Over Cornell and Columbia Were Awarded by Judges Red and Blue Secures Championship.

Pennsylvania won unanimous decisions over Cornell in Philadelphia and the 1907 Cornell and Columbia Debaters Win. The match was held last night in the University Gymnasium by four bouts to three. The results follow: 115 pounds—Walt, Cornell, received decision over G. S. Thomas, Pennsylvania. Time, 15 minutes. 120 pounds—Haigh, Pennsylvania, and Walte, Pennsylvania, Time, 9 minutes. 125 pounds—Penn State, Houghton College, and Cornell, Time, 15 minutes. 130 pounds—Penn State, Houghton College, and Cornell, Time, 22 minutes.

Final "Brain Trust" Performance.

The "Brain Trust," the play presented by the Architectural Society of the University, was performed for the last time before a very large and enthusiastic audience last night. The scenery, which was excellently painted entirely by the members of the society.
