At the recent annual meeting of the intercollegiate Cricket Association the election of officers to serve for the ensuing year was made. President, W. F. Keenan, Jr., Penn-sylvania; vice-president, C. L. E., Jr., Cornell; secretary-treasurer, P. A. Myers, Jr., Harvard. After discussion plans for the coming season two prizes were awarded, one to the person having the highest batting average and the other to the individual having the best bowling average Pennsylvania earned both of these prizes the former going to C. M. Graham and the latter to W. F. Keenan.

All the colleges in the association with the exception of Harvard were represented at this meeting. They follow: Pennsylvania, W. F. Keenan, Jr., President; Cornell, P. A. Myers, Jr., E. B. Cloherty, M. E. A. Edwards; Cornell, W. S. Pease.

The chairman of the games for 1908 was adopted subject to ratification and subsequent change. May 14th, Harvard; May 15th, Pennsyl-

Both Varsity and Freshmen crew candidates went out on the river for the first time yesterday in sight of high water and threatening weather. The men were in harness, and the river was spent chiefly in acquiring them to the change.

In the new crews the men were started rowing a pair at a time until about ten o'clock. They were the oars of forty men. There seems to be no lack of good material other than the necessary lack of line, and it is hoped that any man with rowing ability will show up at once.

Dr. Arthur Goodspeed Lectures. One of the most interesting lectures ever on the program of the Camera Club was delivered last night by Dr. Arthur W. Goodspeed, at the Department of Physics. His subject was "Photography in Natural Colors or the Lumiere Autochrome Plate." Dr. Goodspeed described briefly the manufacture of these plates, which were made of commercial value and placed on the market last summer. He then went on to a description of the optical laws which caused the unique results, and told of the processes of development which leave only transparency in natural colors. He concluded the lecture, which was informal in character, by showing in the lantern a number of interesting slides made by this process under various conditions.

After the lecture a short business meeting was held. Maurice T. Pyle, president of the Intercollegiate Photographic Association, announced that the annual exhibition will open in Philadelphia about April 15th. owing to lack of interest on the part of many of the clubs composing the association, Harvard and Penn's clubs will be the only competitors. Pictures for the Pennsylvania representation in the exhibition are to be made and be handed in to a member of the committee at the Houston Hall office by March 1st. The exhibition now hanging on the walls of Houston Hall will be taken down. The room is the work of members of the Drexel Camera Club. This club is composed of graduates of the college in photography given at the Drexel Institute. Among them are Matthew Wolfe and several members of the University Camera Club. These clubs are members of the Houston Club. They are not, however, represented in the exhibit, which contains a highly interesting display for K. E. Allen. Examples of K. E. Allen, Cory, Schede, E. K. Lynman, Laura Revce, Revce, A. Revce, Anne D. Simon, Mary V. Finch, M. E. Shortman, E. L. Lee, E. W. Fisher and M. W. Whible. The work of such high-class and range of the pictures exhibited are distinctly pleasant. Emphasis among these was the mentioned a portrait group by K. E. Allen and a landscape, entitled "Blackberry," a "Study in Lilies," by Laura Revce, and a landscape by Anna G. Copeland.

This exhibition will be followed next week by an exhibition of the work of the Intercollegiate Photographic Association.

T.W. GOODLE.

In the effort being made this year to bring the undergraduate publications of the University to a higher standard, members of the board of The Pennsylvania, "Fou and Five" and "Punch B" can congratulate themselves on securing the above-hung next Thursday evening.

At present there is only one issue, during which the editors and those interested in the welfare of the various papers get together in a social way in order to understand what the other papers are trying to do. This meeting should give many suggestions every year to the work of the papers. It will be the precedent for a recreational and social meeting.

This year's program will be a decided success if the editors and managers make it a point to be present. It is important that all should be there. Excess of the ordinary kind are not valid, since it is the duty of every member of every board to make due provision for this event. It is one way to show a real interest in the work that should not be neglected or considered of no importance.

The committee expects an attendance of forty. If there is a shortage it is not expected that the committee will be obliged to turn the ball, but that those who did not attend shall make up the deficit. It is only just that they should do so.

Bi-Monthly Swimming Events. The regular bi-monthly swimming events, which were held in the gymnasium pool last night, resulted in no broken records, although the average time made was pronounced by Coach Klotzke to be encouraging. The 200 feet event was won by Shyrock. In the plunge for distance Hans won not with 63 feet. The fairy dancing of Hans was the feature of the evening. In the 100 yards race Shyrock was from a large lead.

Supreme Class Pictures. Supremo wishing class pictures can place their orders with the manager of the committee. The first order is turned in to-norrow at noon. Signed: M. A. Wayland, chairman.

Committee on Track Athletics. There will be a meeting of the members on track athletics today at four o'clock, in the gymnasium. Blinded: J. H. Cochran, secretary.

TO PENNSYLVANIA MEN.

A Personal Word from the President.

The college men who obtain the best temporary or permanent positions in July are usually the ones who start looking for them early in the year. If you go on holiday with any expensive or inefficient employment agency or before you start on a more or less sellerless individual search for the position you desire, it will be worth while your while to learn about our Cooperative Movement. We are an organization of college men. We can save you time, travel, trouble and money by furnishing you with accurate information while in college and by securing you a desirable position or business opportunity when out of college. There are no involved contracts, no costly commissions, no red tape, no strings attached to our service. We think we solve and problem in a new and better way.

A Strong Body, without a weak spot, is the best insurance against the ills of the world. This year the students of the University have a chance to develop their bodies in the Athletic Carnival. The event to be held tonight is the hurdle race. Many entries are expected and the University is confident of a victory. The Carnival is open to all, and is an excellent opportunity to enjoy the beautiful weather that is expected. The event starts at 7:30 p.m., and all students are encouraged to attend.
