NEW ATHLETIC FIELD PLANNED

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION IS TO FURTHER THE GOOD WORK.

Vacant Ground Near the Commercial Museum Will Be Transformed— Expected to be Open to the University.

The University Christian Association, in charge of the University Settlement work, will in the near future equip and manage a large athletic field and playground upon land belonging to the University. It is proposed to call the field after the late Dr. George Washington Cable, who founded the University Settlement, south of Franklin Field.

The committee in charge, including Dr. George Orton, Dr. R. Taft McKen- nie, and other prominent Philadelphia men, are planning to erect a new stand, two baseball diamonds, tennis courts, and facilities for boating upon the lake.

The grounds will be placed primarily at the disposal of the children of the University House, Twenty-fifth and Lombard streets, and a feature will be a free playground for the younger children of the neighborhood.

Work is already being pushed upon the premises, and when completed opportunity will be given all University students desiring to secure participation upon the grounds by applying to Mr. Thomas S. Evans at Houston Hall.

Cape May Defeats Freshmen.

The Class of 1904 defeated the baseball team of both teams the "Varsity Freshman team" on Friday, April 24th, on the grounds of the University, 4 to 1.

Cape May will probably be arranged in the near future.

The un打算 game of E. H. Miller, Pennsylvania, which was left for adultification, is reported as having been played upon the Campus of Pennsylvania. This brings the final score up to 6-0.

Saturday's Baseball Scores.

Change in Zinc Debate Team.

A change has been necessitated in the personnel of the team which will represent the Zoological Society in Washington against students from George Washington University on Friday, May 1st. Owing to the resignation of four members previously announced, the team will now be made up as follows: Roy A. Holton, '98 C; H. L. Smith, '98 C; Ralph W. Hess, '98 C; C. P. E. Mars, '11 C, and J. P. Heritage, '12 C, alternate. Zeal has been three times abundant in the Valley of the Nile, and the hope is expressed that the Washington debate will make the year's score perfect.

LAFAYETTE DOWNED BY 5 TO 4.

GAME A DUEL OF PITCHERS, WITH THE HONORS EVEN.

Both Teams Made Costly Errors.

Port's Hand Is Broken in Sliding for Third Base—Replaced by Smith.

Pennsylvania was victorious over Lafayette on Saturday by the score of 5 to 4. Game was exciting from start to finish. The Red and Blue was the first to score, but in the fifth inning the Eastonians made two runs and tied the score. They assumed the lead in the sixth inning and increased it in their half of the eighth. The score then stood 4 to 2 in favor of the Maroons and White. Pennsylvania made three runs in the second half, and the score was four, and turned to four. In this inning Thayer was the first batter up. He was hit by a pitched ball and reached third base on a wild pitch. He scored on Landridge's bunt. Landridge then stole second and third, and scored on a beautiful two-base hit by Spring. Spring crossed the plate on Corkran's grounder to Schneider. Port was seriously hurt in the third inning, for he made a sacrifice pitch at first base, and with men on bases was practically unhittable. Landridge played a good game at third and Cogan folded a cleverly at third base. The score and summary:

Drawing a comparison between the life of the Christian and the journey of the Israelites to the promised land, we cited many instances of his personal experience with all classes of men we could think of, and these we are all interested in securing a win from Princeton's representative, Miller.

The Pennsylvania team was entered by the Princeton team, and a return match will be played.

Pennsylvania, Two-thirds defeated Princeton in six innings, and was leading 5 to 2, when Port was hit by a pitched ball and forced the second and third runners to score. UIP was then caught out in foul, and Smith was called at first base.

D. J. Wilbur Chapman Says University Men Must Accept Christ.

Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman says University men must accept Christ.

A Seasonal Experience Beyond the Ordinary was the theme chosen by the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman for his address at the Sunday services in Houston Hall yesterday morning.

Drawing a comparison between the life of the Christian and the journey of the Israelites to the promised land, we cited many instances of his personal experience with all classes of men we could think of, and these we are all interested in securing a win from Princeton's representative, Miller.

Our lives can only exalt a great influence for good in proportion as it bears upon the life of Christ within it. The Valley of the Nile is not fertile because the great river flows through it, but because it overflowed the land and enriched the soil.

"I believe the stories of the Bible; they are authentic as ancient history. They were written by men who were inspired authors but inspired by God, and so the story of the Israelites may be the history of men without parallel, and they have been misleading to the world, even though they be themselves the creation of men.

"We who are in sin must recognize that we are sinners and sin is the curse of sin. There have been numerous examples of this in my own experience. I have found that when I was in sin I could not escape from their besetting sins. I have found that when I was in sin I was the subject of their sins, and I could not escape from their besetting sins.

The 1905 Record committee has decided not to raise the price of the Record in the fall fifty cents at this time but to sell the book for $2.25 from April 15th, at which date the price will be raised to $2.50. This year's edition will be the last. The University record committee published a volume of over four hundred pages, hand-bound in leather with gold leaf ornaments, containing a large number of local print and pen photographs, pictures of the campus, clubs, choirs, football players and students with athletic records and chronicles, sketches of life in each depart- ment, views of campus athletic field and the buildings, interior and exterior, and many other attractive features too numerous to mention, all together a mass of carefully prepared and arranged material about Pennsylvania that should be worth much more than the price to any one interested in the University.
