RESUME OF THE SOUTHERN TRIP

RESUMÉ OF THE SOUTHERN TRIP

Red and Blue Team wins four out of eight games.

Pennsylvania Crosses Dart with University College The Afternoon—Van

After two games, with the Carlsons, Americans Against and after beating one of the strongest teams in the country, the University baseball team encountered the various teams with a total of four losses and one win.

The first game was against Atlantic City, with a score of 8 to 7 for Pennsylvania. The fast batting and base running of the Carlsons represented a serious threat to the team, but with some assistance and excellent plays, the University team was able to make a comeback.

On the following day as a result of false signals at the plate, the Carlsons were defeated by the University team by a score of 12 to 10. The Carlsons were able to hold the university down to one hit but for the rest of the game, the Carlsons were beaten.

On April 25th the University met its second defeat by a team from the city of Detroit. The game was played in the Sports Spring and Chapman being used to good advantage in the pitching position. The final score was Pennsylvania 12, Wallack Athletic Club 5.

On April 25th Pennsylvania met its second defeat by a team from the city of Detroit. The game was played in the Sports Spring and Chapman being used to good advantage in the pitching position. The final score was Pennsylvania 12, Wallack Athletic Club 5.

The University team played its final game on Saturday afternoon against a team from the city of Detroit. The final score was 3 to 2 for the university.

In a score game in which Virginia’s fielding was not up to par, the university and the Red and Blue met defeat on April 25th by the close score of 10 to 8. The Southerners played handily, and a timely double by California, followed by Pearson’s single, scored the two point lead which gave them the game. Pennsylvania was the following losing the game by the score of 8 to 3. The Red and Blue was credited with only one error.

In the final game with Annapolis, played last Saturday, Pennsylvania lost to the Midshipmen in a very close and exciting game by the score of 2 to 0.

Pennsylvania will cross hands with Vassar College this afternoon, at 3:30 o’clock, on Franklin Field. Unusually, though a small institution, has always managed to turn out a good team, and the close result of their recent games with Princeton seems to favor a close contest.

The visitor’s line up has not yet been received, but probably the line up will be as follows: Thayer, right field; Longacre, second base; Heaton, short; Clark, center; Packard, first base; Wood, third base; Corcoran, catcher; Smith, center; Simpson, right field.

Runners do not need to be reminded of the fact that the Ivy Ball takes place tomorrow night in the Gymnasium. This will be 1908's last dance, and every man in the class should make a pronounced effort to be present.

Our class dances are often not as well attended by the members of the junior class as they should be. These dances are not for the regular few, but for everybody. They are as enjoyable as any of the other class functions and as deserving of patronage and support. It is very much to be desired that there will be no one at any of the class dances in previous years they will do so before their college days are over, and be present at the Ivy Hall. Every 1908 man should be there. The committee has worked hard to make it successful, and there is not the slightest doubt that it will be the best ball the class has ever seen.

"Varsity Crew Practice." Coach Ward made several changes in the crew during the holiday. The most important was the dagat away with the bungee cord and thereby strengthening the second Yards and octopus. Atkin, of the four oared, is now steering the octopus. All of the crew were given a rest from the Friday before Easter until the following Tuesday. The Varsity remains the same and the men are rowing in the following positions:

First—Varsity—Bow, Doering; 2, Townsend; 3, Rogers; 4, Henkle; 5, Shoemaker; 6, Drayton; 7, Dean; stroke, Bing; coxswain, Westcott.

Second—Varsity—Bow, Ferguson; 2, Reeves; 3, Crooks; 4, Townsend; 5, Breeding; 6, Scott; 7, Fixture; stroke, Ralston; coxswain, Withrow.

Octopod—Bow, Emory; 2, Schel- lin; 3, Brown; 4, Backie; 5, Hoff- man; 6, Withrow; 7, Knipricht- stroke, Atkin; coxswain, Pichekey.

"Scotty" Renwick, who was accidented, "Scotty" Renwick, who was accidentally injured during baseball throwing practice, is recovering slowly but satisfactorily. In about two weeks he will be able to leave the University Hospital, where he is now confined.

Professor Patterson's Class. Professor Patterson will meet the freshman class in pleading on next Thursday afternoon at five o'clock.
