Owing to the necessity of publishing today the roster of examinations in the College, we have been obliged to reduce other news space to make room for it. Now is the time for undergraduates to set down the books, finish the homework, and get ready. It will be quite worth while for men in all classes to remember that their ability to succeed in college work shows largely what their ability will be after graduation to succeed in whatever line of work they undertake. It is also well to note that a few men can finish their year satisfactorily to themselves or anyone else without a great deal of hard study. Those who have been taking their college course in a haphazard manner to the present time should from now until June labor to make themselves a credit to the University. A man who flunks out of college because he was lazy, indifferent or careless will surely have in after life to regret most bitterly such a lot on his career as a man.

Mask and Wig Club's Trip. This morning, at nine o'clock, the Mask and Wig Club will leave for Pittsburgh. Our special train will leave Broad Street Station on rounds to Washington, where it is scheduled to arrive at twelve o'clock. The men comprising the cast and chorus will stay at the Atlantic Hotel and will give their performance at the Beaux Arts Theatre tonight. To-morrow morning, at nine o'clock, the special train will leave for Harrisburg, where luncheon will be served at the station restaurant. After luncheon the train will leave for Pittsburgh. While in Pittsburgh too men will be entertained by the Pittsburgh Yacht Club. Saturday afternoon the regular mail train will be given at the Nixon Theatre. After the evening performance the special train will leave for Buffalo. During the day a trip will be taken to Niagara Falls. On Monday morning the train will leave Buffalo, arriving in Rochester about noon. In the evening the final performance of "Uncle Sam's Dick" will be given at the Lyceum Theatre. After this performance the special train will leave as soon as possible for Philadelphia, arriving here about ten o'clock Tuesday morning.

Golf Practice This Afternoon. The University golf team has a schedule this spring which includes matches with Cornell, Lawrenceville, Princeton, Baltimore Cricket Club and some of the local clubs. To live up to this schedule it is necessary that more men report for practice. Anyone interested in the game is urged to take the 2:15 or 2:40 train from West Philadelphia Station to Overbrook, this afternoon for practice. Freshmen are especially urged to turn out. Ivy Ball Last Night. Weightman Hall last evening was the scene of the Ivy Ball, the last dance of the year 1899. The hall was a mass of sparkling bloomers, bodices and short skirts, gowns and ivy leaves. The orchestra was hidden behind a great mass of foliage. Hordes of small electric lights, hidden amidst the greenery and brass, illuminated the hall and produced a brilliant effect. The best time should from now until graduation to succeed in the next class' work. No able student will find his year satisfactorily to himself or anyone else without a great deal of hard study. Those who have been taking their college course in a haphazard manner to the present time should from now until June labor to make themselves a credit to the University. A man who flunks out of college because he was lazy, indifferent or careless will surely have in after life to regret most bitterly such a lot on his career as a man.

Baseball with Virginia To-Day. This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the Valets will play the University of Virginia nine on Franklin Field. In the same fashion with the Southern eight team each week will make a game. The defeat of Virginia by Princeton yesterday afternoon was decisive, the score being 8 to 2 in favor of the Orange and Blue.
