Clippings from Exchanges. Valentine's Day's holidays, sending an All-America crew to the Olympic Games in London this year. Williams College undergraduates have a production of Hamburg's 'Dr. Faustus' as part of their celebration of May Day.

An expedition will be sent out this summer to the Orient by the University of Chicago to aid the educational needs of the Far East.

William Churchill, the noted painter, recently delivered a lecture before the Harvard students on "Political Ideals and the Duties of a Citizen.

President David Starr Jordan of Leland Stanford, is heading a move to establish the greatest game of football and substitute English Rugby.

Columbia's second test with a start of ten seconds was delayed by the Cornell crew by two seconds in a practice run of two miles, held on Monday afternoon.

The annual spring regatta at Yale will be held on Lake Whitney May 16th. Eleven crews have been entered, two from each of the three-year colleges and five from the Freshman Class.

Five caps have been offered atvard for precedence in football kicking, to be competed for from the present time until October 16th. The caps are offered for long-distance punting outside kicking, drop kicking, long-distance and short-distance place kicking.

Improvement in Crews. There has been a great improvement during the past week in all of the crews. The varsity is rowing in splendid form, as well as the second varsity and novice. The Freshman crew is now up to the standard of varsity crews. They will be unable to meet the Central High School crew tomorrow, as the varsity was interfered. The race will be rescheduled as soon as Coach Ward can pick his crew. Harvard will take its place in weeks and Yale will row at the 4 in future races.

Every man of the varsity has been the outscript in a race from the National college to the boat house but yesterday the outsprint turned the tides by defeating the varsity by three lengths, with the second varsity close behind.

Leach-Swift Pin. Lost. In the neighborhood of the dormitories, probably on Sunday evening, a Swift pin, a pattern in solid serpents. Finder please return to dormitory office or to Receiving, Leedy House, and receive reward.

HAZARD S.

Within the last few days the copper drinking cups from the fountain in the dormitories have disappeared. There were presented the Class of 1908, of which course cannot be suitably replaced by others. As present plain cups along the fountain. Also of the fact that a new sign on the unis was deliberately broken off and found three days later some distance from its proper position.

Such acts of vandal attacks are not to be condoned by the student body. It is not in their power to arrest such acts, they are beyond their control.

We feel that those who were not perpetrated by students. Since this is directed upon the undergraduates to do their part in the power to cause the return of the stolen cups and to guard against repetition of such performance in the future.

Pennsylvania in the past has suffered extensively from the loss of prominent athletes. It is gratifying to note, however, that some have been eliminated from competition because of scandal offenses to those new present in one of our neighboring college.

In that case a number of the best athletes have been expelled because of abnormal appetites for pils, which led to a complication of the same.

Why? We cannot understand, unless perhaps in absence of our University Hall.

Freshman Game Postponed. Owing to rain the baseball game scheduled for yesterday between the Freshman and Harvard Grammar School was postponed.

Freshman Pin Found. The Freshman who lost his pin may obtain information of whereabouts of same from H. S. Mauer, 21 C. E.

Suit for Lost. Will finder please return suitcases taken from top of locker 123, College Hall, to same place.
