DEATH OF A MEDICAL STUDENT

FORREST HADLEY MAURER, SUCCEBU OF PERITONITIS.

Deceased Graduated in 1904 from Princeton and Entered Pennsylvania Medical School—Funeral To-Morrow.

Forest Hadley Maurer died in the University Hospital last night, the victim of peritonitis. His illness had been of a severe character; he was admitted to the hospital April 25th. A complicated condition of the heart was diagnosed, and he was discharged on the 30th. On the 31st he returned to the hospital, and was operated on for appendicitis. The operation was successful, but on the following day he succumbed, and the cause of death was decided upon as an exacerbation of appendicitis. Maurer, 21 years of age, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Maurer, of Allentown. He was at one time a student in the University High School, but he had been at the Pennsylvania Medical School only a short time.

Straw Hats Out To-day for Princeton Game

Two Prominent Men Speak

Rev. James A. Montgomery, STC, President of Mercersburg College, and Preacher in the Rector of the Rescuement of the Day, has been invited to address the Class of 1909 of the University. He was graduated at Mercersburg in 1886, and has been a teacher and preacher since that time. He is now an elder in the Presbyterian Church. He is well known to the students of the University, and his address will be of great interest to them.

Swarthmore Drops Football

Unexpected Action Is Not Thought to Be a Thoroughly Good Team in Previous Seasons, but Up for the 'Varsity Nine Quite Unfamiliarly with Princetox, but Will Not Start at the Game, the University of Pennsylvania will play Princeton on Saturday, May 16th, at the Cambridge ground. The University of Pennsylvania will be represented by a team consisting of the football players of the Freshman and Sophomore classes, and the team will be under the management of the football committee.

The team is expected to be a thoroughly good team in previous seasons, but up for the 'Varsity nine quite unfamiliarly with Princeton, but will not start at the game.

At Mercersburg this afternoon the Freshman nine lines up against the strong Up-to-date, which a Princeton student and former Mercersburg "star," among other members of the team, has a high point of preparedness for the game. He has been in camp all week. The Freshman nine will be a thoroughly good team in previous seasons, but up for the 'Varsity nine quite unfamiliarly with Princeton, but will not start at the game.

The line up and batting order will be as follows: Pennsj Ivanla, center field; Long Island, second base; Stryng, right Beld; Rahal, left Beld; Van Bocksl, shortstop; Judd, first base; Smith, third base; Simpson or Tinorwatt, pitcher; Princeton—Fish, first base; Dillon, center field; Webber, second base; Herringer, shortstop; H. McKnight, H. 0.

The line up will be shown around the University of Philadelphia, Saturday, May 9, 1908, with the purpose of the game to be shown against Princeton, which was scored tor seven wickets, augurs well for the Red and Blue against the Game. The variety of the game is expected to be a thoroughly good team in previous seasons, but up for the 'Varsity nine quite unfamiliarly with Princeton, but will not start at the game.
