GAME WITH VILLA NOVA TO-DAY

Last Year Varsity Defeated Main Line Team—Score, 110—10.

Scarlett to Play at Right End and Miller Will Be in Charge of Quarter-Back Light Practice Yesterday Afternoon.

A hard game with Villa Nova College is anticipated by the Varsity coaches this afternoon on Franklin Field. The Main Line college team always lays out its best defense to shape early in the season, and last week's score—Villa Nova, 15; Penn State, 9—tells testimony to this.

The coaches may be able to get some insight into the real strength of the Villa Nova team by the called team will line up as in the backfield game with the addition of Scarlett at right end and Miller added to quarter-back. Two weeks ago "Villa Nova held the Carlisle team to a score of 0-0. Last year Pennsylvania defeated Villa Nova by a score of 11-0.

Futiaux may be tried out at right end and Irwin is spoken of as the only possible substitute to Miller.

The game will take place at Franklin Field and will begin at 3.30..—The Penn Metallic, Oct. 7.

ATTEND MASS MEETINGS.

When five hundred, or only onethird of the total number of students en-rolled at this University, report in re- sponse to an appeal for a mass meet- ing, something is wrong. What is the trouble?

Can it be true that such a small pro- portion of us are alive in the desire Pennsylvania spirit? Do only five hundred men love their Alma Mater enough to inconvenience them- selves for a few minutes to practice cheerleading? We do not believe that so many of our number are lacking in what we call “Pennsylvania spirit,” but the fact remains that in years long gone by, when our student body was about half as large as those of today, our mass meetings were better attended than last evening’s. The ab- solute indifference evidenced by the student body last night is truly a dis- grace.

Our Coaches and Trainer ask for more material, and we all know the material is here. Now why can’t we give them all of the available? In or- der that they have a fair chance to do their share they must have it. Old Scrub is small, and we appeal to every man in college to do his share towards increasing it.

Organizations within an organization if they help a little in the proper direction always work to the success of the larger organization. Is each of our several fraternities and clubs doing its share in this matter? We want to believe that everyone is working for Pennsylvania first and giving everything else second attention.

When five hundred of forty-six hun- dred students report for a mass meet- ing, when an institution of this size makes a small a Scrub team as we do, when eleven men report for Fresh- man football practice; with all these facts confronting us, how can we be- lieve what we strive to? Now is the time to turn over a new leaf, not after we have lost a big game. Every student help, if you can’t play yourself, tell your classmate to go out.

After this, when the cheer leaders ask for a mass meeting, everybody go to it; when the coaches say they need more men, everybody get busy and turn the men out—there they're here. Make the Freshman go out for their “Vann” football.

Do so for this season the student aspect toward the football team has been a disgrace to the University.

A. A. Directors Meet.

At a meeting of the Board of Di- rectors of the Athletic Association, held yesterday afternoon in the Gym- natorium H. M. Martin and W. F. Keenan were awarded their “F.” The elections of Bordman as Captain and Crowell as Almanzor of the cricket team were ratified. The members of the “Vann” crew—“Red” Captains; Dean, Deyton, Showmaker, Hendrie, Rogers, Town-_sd, Dearing, Westcott, Riddle, Brod- beck, Breslinger and Akers—are awarded their “D.” The 1914 class crew was given material, as follows: A. L. Smith, Wilkes, Bennett, Fox, Wilcox, Shoemaker, Martin, Thompson, Howard, Koppel and Stoneman.

Cross-Country Notice.

All candidates for Varsity and Freshman cross-country report at the gymnatorium this afternoon at 2:30, to take the car for Fairmount Park. It is important that all candidates be present, as the election of both Vars- ities and Freshman Captains will be held after the run. The election of a new “Vann” Captain is due to the fact that Captain Oglesby will be unable to run on account of a week’s illness. Signed: A. S. GEAR. Manager.

“Punch Bowl” Candidates.

Candidates for the “Punch bowl” board leave copy for the Press while at the Law School office before 5 P.M. tomorrow. Signed: George Wagner, Editor-in-Chief.
