Football Songs. We print several songs that have been written by N. W. Harker, '71. 1. The first is sung to the tune of "Halbin," the second to "Summer Time," and the third to "Imarity."

Come give a cheer now for Penn—y—y—y—y—
Shout loud! Bang! Bang!
See in the fray
How the men come and go.
And the Spirit, that grand old song, will go on.

Down the field, never yield,
Our team is coming, plugging. On see them hanging.
Ten yards more, then a score.
More will come, great Penn. Men of Penn once again
Give our long hoorah.
And there's a kind named Keating.
Eleven loyal men,
We call them Pennsy Panthers when they fight for Penn.

Addition to the Library. A very interesting gift has been received by the University Library in a volume entitled "A Twenty Years' History of the Class of 1875." The volume was published last year by a committee of which William R. Ash, '58, and Francis E. Perowne, '75, were members. It is a book of some one hundred and twenty pages, full of interesting material and one which every Pennsylvania might well read. It gives an account of all the various classes before and since 1857 and similar messages from Provost Harrison, Vice-Provost Smith and other of the old Professors who taught at the University twenty years ago. A great many poems, chiefly ode and class songs, are published, with pictures of the various reunions held by the class and of the '75 parade leading into Franklin Field. It is interesting to note that the class has held a reunion every year, and although there are only one hundred and forty-three surviving members, there has been an average attendance of fifty men.

Biographical sketches of the individuals in the class with their pictures of today and a score of years ago are also included. The volume is consecrated by a memorial to William Pepper, Provost of the University during the class' undergraduate years, and a necrology of the twenty-five who have been summoned to the great beyond.

Freshmen and Two Crews. Crew practice of the various classes continues on the river daily. Although the Freshmen have been on the river longer, while the other classes each have one or two practices, the Freshmen have elected J. P. Ferguson as Captain to lead their eight.

Additional Football Stands. Plans are now under way for an additional five thousand seats to the seating capacity of Franklin Field. The stand as usual will be erected at western end of the field, and at present time in the roof of the Gymnasium. Owing to the large demand for Arts-Navy tickets this movement is again necessary. It is expected that though the stands will be ready for the Thanksgiving Day.

Camera Club Lecture. Mr. Morris Earl of Williams, Brown & Kerl, will deliver an illustrated lecture on a new style of camera lens, in the Camera Club House, Tuesday, October 27th, at eight o'clock. All those interested in photography are urged to be present and bring their friends.

Activities at the Mask and Wig Club.組織 the Executive Committee. Thomas B. Brown, '85, and Charles A. W. Griswold, '85, have been elected to lead the club for the ensuing year. The following were elected graduate members of the Executive Committee: Senator, .1. Martin, '85; Vice-President, .1. J. H. Merrick, '87; Secretary, H. K. Mohr. The elections were held October 27th, at eight o'clock. All those at all interested in photography are urged to be present and bring their friends.

Organization to Hold Exercises at Laybridge House, N. Y.

Mask and Wig Club Elections. The first annual meeting for the election of the Mask and Wig Club was held on Wednesday evening. There was a large number of graduates and undergraduates present, and the prospect for the coming season seemed very bright.

The various committees made their reports which showed that the season of 1906 was a great success.

The new Dormitory, which will be present from the club in memory of Clayton Potter-McMichael, is near completion, and it is expected that some form of exercises would take place at the laying of the cornerstone.

Newspaper and Magazine. The Newsmaker will be present from the club in memory of Clayton Potter-McMichael, is near completion, and it is expected that some form of exercises would take place at the laying of the cornerstone.

Camera Club Meets. — The first meeting of the Camera Club of the University was held last night in Room 3, third floor of Hebbian Club. The Camera Club has a well appointed meeting room, also five dark rooms, fully equipped and having lockers for the use of members.

The meeting was called to order by President Cole, who stated the objects of the club and urged the members to do their best to get good material for exhibition purposes. It was decided to hold meetings every second and fourth Tuesday of each month during the college year, the first meeting to be open for general discussion of work and the second for a regularly arranged program. The club has been in existence about fifteen years and has had good success, winning several competitions against the clubs of other colleges and universities.

At the next meeting, Tuesday, October 27th, Mr. Morris Earl, of Williams, Brown & Earl, will give a very interesting lecture on a new lens. The lecture will be held in the auditorium of Houston Hall, and will be illustrated by lantern slides, beginning at 8 P.M.

The dues are one dollar a year. Several new members were admitted. It was suggested that members bring pictures to the meetings, so that all might have benefit of the criticisms given. A preliminary exhibition will be held just before Christmas, so that material may be chosen for use at the intercollegiate exhibit. The President announced that, as few of the members were present, he would postpone the appointment of committees until next month. H. A. Bogey, '12 Arch., was appointed Secretary pro tem.

Holland Dental Society. — The regular monthly meeting of the Holland Dental Society was held last week. The lecture on new lenses was given. The meeting was held in the auditorium of Houston Hall, and was illustrated by lantern slides, beginning at 8 P.M.
